

Jesuit Erwin Lutzer's Reunited "Church" to Stop the Final Reich Part 1

2 Timothy 3:13 But evil men and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived.

2 Peter 2:1 But there were also false prophets among the people, even as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Lord who bought them, and bring on themselves swift destruction. 2 Peter 2:1

Attempted reversal of the Reformation, infiltrating of Jesuits and Free-masons to direct the churches and redefine them, blaming Jesus and his disciples for the crimes of the Catholic "Church" in order to recreate Nazi Germany in America toward the end promise of world peace without God.

If you love Jesus, you will not be able to trust Erwin Lutzer after you read his book and understand what he says about God, the church, atheists, and his own Jesuit philosophy.

Part 1 of our book review of Hitler's Cross: How the Cross Was Used to Promote the Nazi Agenda

2 Timothy 3:13 But evil men and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. 2 Timothy 3:13

2 Peter 2:1 But there were also false prophets among the people, even as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Lord who bought them, and bring on themselves swift destruction. 2 Peter 2:1

In this study of quotes from Lutzer's book, you will quickly notice or by the end you will have noticed that Erwin Lutzer hates Holy God as much as Hitler hated God, with perhaps the most significant difference being that Lutzer does not openly agree with Hitler and his partners killing Jewish people and Christians. Lutzer agrees with the scenario that Hitler created being dropped as blame on the church. This review is written for our fellow servants of Christ who need to understand a corrupt agenda that has already taken over the leadership of many "churches" in America. That agenda is, simply-put - an attempt by the Catholic "church" (especially by the Jesuits and other secret orders and lying ecumenical leaders calling for "unity") to make American Christians seem complicit in sharing the guilt of its 1700 years of crimes, death, deceitful partnerships, and false religion against our Lord Jesus and His disciples. Unfortunately and surprisingly, this agenda is even redirecting or has taken over (without enough notice to respond) many of the churches and seminaries from the more trusted conservative fundamental, evangelical, and reformed movements in America. The intent of this agenda that Lutzer has joined since at least 1995, is to make Christians seem equally hypocritical and as deadly as other false religions (Catholicism, Islam) have been, so they are all forced to be on equal levels for peace-negotiations toward one-world government and one-world religious unity. Our biggest concern, after you see what Lutzer is saying, is the fact that he is giving these speeches to pastors (around the world even) based on his two books Hitler's Cross – How the Cross Was Used to Promote the Nazi Agenda and When a Nation Forgets God: 7 Lessons We Must Learn From Nazi Germany.

Most of the influential and larger buildings in America that are called churches and seminaries have been misdirected and/or slowly infiltrated starting from at least the 1950's and are now often being led by Free-masons and Jesuits and American satanists. This sounds almost impossible or else tragic to those who are unfamiliar with the problem, but many of you are already well alert to some hidden agendas (like Rick Warren's movement to super-size churches) and secret societies perhaps without knowing their purpose. We cannot, in this document, show the vast network that is controlling religion in America through the seminaries, denominations, and popular movements in “Christian” movies and music right now. But we want to show what is clear about Erwin Lutzer from his book, which is enough to be concerned about for this book review and accompanying profile of some of Erwin Lutzer’s history and friendships. Lutzer’s friends, who are religious leaders, like his hatred against Holy God. Erwin Lutzer is the “pastor” who provided spiritual cover and advice for the Jesuits and Free-masons as they snuck into to Moody Bible Institute since the 1980’s and are now subtly over-running the decisions of the school.

For this part one, we want to look at more than a dozen quotes and sequences of examples where Lutzer is trying very hard to redefine the church. And we want to look at a collection of about twenty quotes of Lutzer’s most abusive accusations against God attempting to make Him responsible for the Holocaust, for protecting and commissioning Hitler, and for giving approval for the mass-murder of Jews and Christians and other minorities in and around Germany. We have no doubt that people would prefer to assume that we have taken his words out of context. And to that, we say that you should buy a copy of his book so you can be informed – it is shocking. We have used a different font type so you can easily identify when we are quoting from Lutzer’s book. And we have used italics and underlining where we wanted to add emphasis to parts of Lutzer’s quotes. To start, here are six quotes and our analysis of Lutzer’s religious philosophy follow immediately after:

Page 66 “Notice carefully that the title of this chapter is not: ‘God or Hitler: Who Was in Charge?’; but rather it is ‘God and Hitler.’ God had His part – He was doing the delegating. Hitler and Satan were doing their part – they were doing the destroying.”

(see note 1)

Page 66 “What is more, God does not pass judgment on Himself because there is no standard outside of Himself to which He must conform.”

(see note 2)

Page 68 “Your Responses to Divine Providence – There are three possible responses to God’s providence. First there is atheism.”

(see note 4)

Page 69 “The second response is anger – vindictive anger against God. Some people are so bitter toward God because of the terrors of this world that they shut Him out of their lives. One angry person said to me, ‘If there is a God, he must be the devil!’ Such anger is understandable but destructive. Anger toward God is futile wasted energy. No one who vents his or her anger at God wins. We may not like what He does, but since He doesn’t ask us how to run His universe, we hurt only ourselves. You can’t sink a battleship with a peashooter.”

(see note 5)

Page 69-70 “The third option in the presence of the God who rules our cruel world is awe. In light of the fact that God is so terrifying, because He has permitted all kinds of atrocities to take place in His universe, we should be motivated to prepare to meet Him one-on-one after death. No wonder we read that it is a ‘fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.’ Liberal theologians have promoted foolish theories teaching that the God of the Old Testament was a cruel God, whereas the God of the New is loving and kind and would never send anyone to hell. We can answer them by saying, ‘Just look at the Holocaust!’ You don’t need to believe the Bible to see that there is a side to God other than unrestrained love.”

(see note 6)

Editor’s comment (note 1): Lutzer knows there is a big difference between holy God and the father-of-lies Lucifer. But Lutzer mixes God and the devil here because Lutzer wants to be evil. There is no reason to make them joint partners in this, but you will see Lutzer do this repeatedly through his book if you read it. We have only quoted some of them. The truth is that God guides those who seek Him, and the devil guides those who love sin and follow his fiction and destroying. God uses godly men and women to express His authority (given to us at Creation and again after the flood) since God does not fellowship with evil-doers. But if the righteous top leaders don't stand against the most dangerous evil, then that evil keeps working until God can raise up other godly men to oppose the devil. The world doesn't usually hear their names because the world ignores God and ignores God's spokespeople, so they are certainly not going to be prominent in the news usually unless to try to discredit them. And God certainly did not do any of the planning or delegating to arrange this situation as Lutzer accuses; He was teaching the church how to resist it and just couldn't find enough faithful and prayer-focused believers to expose the tricks and hinder the violence as thoroughly as we wish they could have. God does not delegate all authority as Lutzer is accusing and using misdirected Scripture to pretend that God establishes anti-christs in power.

Correction found in Acts 4:24-26 So when they heard that, they raised their voice to God with one accord and said: "Lord, You are God, who made heaven and earth and the sea, and all that is in them, who by the mouth of Your servant David have said: 'Why did the nations rage, and the people plot vain things? The kings of the earth took their stand, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord and against His Christ.' " Acts 4:24-26

Editor's comment (note 2): Lutzer just blamed God for the murders that Hitler did, and then Lutzer wants you to hate God. Lutzer is very ignorant and evil to say that the only reason God doesn't pass judgment on Himself is because there's nothing by which to judge Himself. There is a self-evident standard of right and wrong and that is based on who God is because He chooses to love righteousness. God has always lived in righteousness only. Also, man decided to fall, so God put Himself on the toughest edge of existence and took our punishment for our sins so as to redeem many souls. That is the object of His attention that is outside of Himself to which He conforms His plans – in effort to save souls. Lutzer is trying to convince people to judge God!! Wow!

Editor's comment (note 4): Notice that Lutzer personalizes it by saying "Your Responses" speaking directly to us believers who would be reading. First of all why does Lutzer see atheism as one of our responses at all?? There is no one who actually believes that God does not exist. They have to block God out in so many ways and pretend as a way of life (Romans 1:18-32). Second, why would Lutzer make this the first possible response? What Lutzer is saying here is exactly what prominent atheists say is the first "obvious" response to reading the Bible – atheism. Meaning that to them, it is most logical to assume that God is not involved in the earth. They see this as a kinder, more amicable response than saying (as they often do) that the God of the Old Testament is a (long sequence of horrible adjectives that make God seem like a mass-murdering) supreme dictator. We really hope you can understand what is being said here and not just take our word for it or ignore it.

Editor's comment (note 5): Why does Lutzer say that anger against God is understandable but wasted energy and that you cannot win by venting anger at God – as like a peashooter trying to take down a battleship? Why does he want to take God down? Lutzer even says he understands how someone could be confused into thinking that God is the devil! He follows that, not with a correction as a believer would immediately want to do, but rather by saying that it is wasted energy, because God doesn't ask us how to do things and that you can't win that way. Win what?!? Go back to it and notice that Lutzer uses "We"/"You"/"us" and "no one" as a sleight of hand, so it is not immediately clear on the first reading of the sentence, that he is speaking for himself still when he says that you can't take down a battleship with a pea-shooter. Also, Lutzer ignores that it is the choosing to love sin that causes people to hate God; it's not justifiable anger at God for failing to solve problems. It is rebellion, pride, and sin that causes anger against God – which is not even slightly similar to righteous indignation as Lutzer wants to imply he and others have against God. Perhaps some of you need to read the first two chapters of the book to understand how Lutzer built up his accusations to this point. We are limited by space, so we just jumped right into the heart of the matter.

Correction found in Ezekiel 18:19-23 Yet you say, 'Why should the son not bear the guilt of the father? Because the son has done what is lawful and right, and has kept all My statutes and observed them, he shall surely live. The soul who sins shall die. The son shall not bear the guilt of the father, nor the father bear the guilt of the son. The righteousness of the righteous shall be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon himself.' Ezekiel 18:19-23 and Exodus 34:5-7 (Notice here that the requirement to deal with the effects of sins goes only to the third and fourth generations, which makes sense because they are alive at the time or shortly after and therefore directly effected by the sin committed. The Jewish nation has long since been in a position to recover from that curse they took on themselves and their children as recorded in Matthew 27:25, but unfortunately, they have been blinded by their chasing the pursuits of this world and trusting/partnering with the rulers of this world. Once they recover from those things, they will be stronger in faith than any nation has ever been able to in seeking the Lord. They will have learned truth that no other nation was willing to learn from God, because they chose to have a covenant with Him) Now the Lord descended in the cloud and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the Lord. And the Lord passed before him and proclaimed, "The Lord, the Lord God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abounding in goodness and truth, keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, by no means clearing the guilty (unrepentant), visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children and the children's children to the third and the fourth generation." Exodus 34:5-7

Editor's comment (note 6): Instead, Lutzer's last (and presumably the main response he has chosen to hide behind) option is shocked horror and grit trying to act as respect/awe toward God while still accusing God of sending the Jews into that Holocaust!! Lutzer is literally saying that Jesus is just like the skewed atheist view of God in the Old Testament sending people into a Holocaust, which Lutzer delicately makes to be an earthly equal to hellfire! If you are not aware, the word Holocaust literally means "a sacrifice consumed or destroyed by fire". But WHY is Lutzer making this comparison without correcting it? Hitler and the world powers were trying to create an analogy of God being a monster who sends people (Jewish people and Christians in that case) to burn in hell (which they see as the same whether earthly or eternal). And Lutzer is agreeing with those who accuse God of unfairly sending people to hell by allowing the false comparison of God also sending Jews into a Holocaust, rather than admitting and explaining that the Nazi plan is a carefully constructed satanic ritual to discredit God – set up/planned by the Vatican and super wealthy powerful elite families. If Lutzer is going to raise such serious accusations against God, he should resolve them. But Erwin is a twisted evil liar; he secretly likes the devil. If you read Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John, you know exactly what God is like. Also Galatians 5:22-23 shows that the fruit of the Holy Spirit - love, joy, peace, patience, kindness... is God's personality.

We were horrified when we read these five pages of his book. And we're just getting started showing you what Lutzer is saying in this book. Lutzer thoroughly hates God. He can't even bring himself to have a proper understanding of God which would allow for a response of LOVE in one of the three options in response to God's love for us working the best out of our bad decisions while rescuing as many as will receive Him through salvation in His Son Jesus. These statements from Lutzer are very serious accusations that we hear all the time from scoffers and satanists/atheists, so it would do us well to understand what that means about Lutzer's heart and motives for misdirecting the church in so many ways as he is doing. He's ignoring that God is Humble and Holy, and that God doesn't do anything for selfish purposes or gain. Lutzer does not know God (after decades of supposed "ministry") and we are saddened by the need to show the church from his own quotes that Erwin Lutzer hates God. God is love and holy – these principles work very well together, but most people like Lutzer don't understand them and would rather blame God for their problems.

Correction found in Galatians 5:22-23 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Against such there is no law. Galatians 5:22-23

But as we continued to read Lutzer's accusations that he left unanswered, it became clear that Lutzer is only raising the accusations and intentionally not resolving them as he expresses so bluntly on page 66:

Page 66 “3. God Holds Angels, Satan, and People Responsible for the Evil That He Lets Them Do – Here we seem to reach an impasse. Since God has ultimate control, is He an accomplice in men’s evil deeds? That was the dilemma that evidently caused Einstein to reject belief in a personal God. He argued that if God were truly all-powerful, then every human thought and action is also His work. Therefore in giving out punishment and rewards, Einstein said, “He would to a certain extent be passing judgment on Himself. How can this be combined with the goodness and righteousness ascribed to Him?” Einstein was expressing what most of us have struggled with. How can God hold human beings responsible if they are simply fulfilling His will? A complete discussion of this question is well beyond the scope of this chapter, but in general we can say that the personal beings God created have enough independence to make them accountable for their deeds. Notice carefully that the title of this chapter is not: ‘God or Hitler: Who Was in Charge?’; but rather it is ‘God and Hitler.’ God had His part – He was doing the delegating. Hitler and Satan were doing their part – they were doing the destroying.”

Page 70 “John Calvin’s words would have given comfort to the Christians who withstood the Nazi regime. ‘Let them recall that the devil and the whole cohort of the wicked are completely restrained by God’s hand as by a bridle, so that they are unable either to hatch any plot against us or having hatched it, to make preparations for or, if they have fully planned it, to stir a finger towards carrying it out, except so far as he had permitted, indeed commanded them.’ ”

Editor’s comment: Ouch! No, God does not command them to do evil... ever! If obedient Christians won’t boldly oppose evil, the devil keeps doing evil.

Correction found in Romans 3:3-4 For what if some did not believe? Will their unbelief make the faithfulness of God without effect? Certainly not! Indeed, let God be shown true but every man a liar. As it is written: “That You may be justified in Your words, and may overcome when You are judged.” Romans 3:3-4

Page 70 “Whether in the Third Reich or the Last Reich, the God of the universe rules.”

Page 88 “Just as Hitler suppressed rival worship and practically crushed the church, so antichrist will destroy all opposition. Christianity and Judaism will especially be his targets. Before him almost all knees will bow.”

Editor’s comment: WHY would Lutzer compare Jesus to anti-christ!? – Whereas EVERY knee will bow before Jesus at the VERY end, because it will FINALLY be clear how Righteous and Good He really is (not how cruel and all-powerful a dictator), Lutzer says “almost all knees will bow” before satan! How can he say these things and pretend to be a truthful teacher of the Word of God? Actually, most Christian writings being printed these days have a lot of double-definitions and duplicitous hidden meanings to the words they are using. These skills have been honed and crafted by the wizards who run Disney World, Hollywood, and the largest mega-churches. To those who are not familiar with the satanic arts being used against us – this method of literary comparison and parallels that Lutzer has been using in his book are common tools of subliminal messaging used to allow two perspectives to coexist side-by-side – it allows Christians (unaware of the other perspective) to only notice how cruel of a dictator the antichrist will be, while it equally allows atheists who read this to cheer in believing that almost everyone will recognize antichrist as the real underdog who earns respect. In other words, Lutzer does not defeat the destructive point of view, but rather fuels it alongside the Christian view-point. Further, by doing this, Lutzer subtly makes God sound as the infamous totalitarian dictator who allows nothing less than total submission, while the antichrist settles for what he can get which Lutzer says will be almost everyone. We don’t know how to express this in a more clear way for followers of Christ to understand what method Lutzer is employing in his arguments here. If you’re not familiar with it, it could still seem benign. But it is very familiar to us, and it is anything but benign.

Correction found in 2 Corinthians 11:13-15 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ. And no wonder! For satan himself transforms himself into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also transform themselves into ministers of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works. 2 Corinthians 11:13-15 and Philippians 2:5-11 Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus, who, being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bond-servant, and coming in the likeness of men. And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross. Therefore God also has highly exalted Him and given Him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Philippians 2:5-11

Page 95 “God will have proven that man cannot rule himself; all attempts to take the scepter from the Almighty were futile and foolish.”

Editor’s comment: Actually those who are pure in heart and humble, gentle, and strong in maturity of right and wrong will rule over the earth. We just won’t be doing it by trying to knock God down in the process because we actually love His righteousness. Why is Lutzer saying this contorted statement, that it is an ignorant waste of time to fight God. It is evil to fight God; it’s not ignorant or a waste of time, as he wants to rephrase it!

Page 100 “Talk to the Jewish people today, and many of them will tell you that there are no advantages to being chosen. The non-chosen, for all of their trials, have appeared to be more blessed. The chosen appear to be the cursed. With the honor of being singled out by God for blessing has come centuries of tears and persecution. And, as we shall see, there is more to come.”

Editor’s comment: Lutzer says this last statement in reference to what he calls the “Final Holocaust”, the Tribulation. Lutzer is confusing the chosen versus non-chosen by saying that Jewish people who do not follow the gospel are chosen but somehow cursed also. In doing so, He accuses God of failing His children most of the time. This is totally false. You are either blessed through faith and obedience or cursed by taking your own path and choosing to accept some sins in your life while rejecting Christ, which even many of those in “churches” are doing. Do not let Lutzer confuse you into believing that God mistreats and abuses His children or that He fails to protect them. These kinds of evil tricks that Lutzer is using in this book are constantly happening at all seminaries to try to convince anyone willing to go toward ministry that they cannot trust God or the Bible. Because people like this control the education of the ministries, slowly having filtered out honest Bible students in favor of obedient followers to their authority and their doctrines, they have infiltrated and destroyed our churches from the inside. They have done the exact same with Christian music since the introduction of gospel music.

Correction found in Romans 9:6 But it is not that the word of God has taken no effect. For they are not all Israel who are of Israel...” Romans 9:6 and Galatians 3:10-12 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse; for it is written, “Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things which are written in the book of the law, to do them.” But that no one is justified by the law in the sight of God is evident, for “the just shall live by faith.” Yet the law is not of faith, but “the man who does them shall live by them.” Galatians 3:10-12

Page 109 “Led by the bishop of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America (ELCA), they walked to a nearby synagogue for a joint ceremony to commemorate the declaration of repudiation. ‘We share in the guilt of those who, bearing the name Martin Luther, slandered and defamed the Jewish people... Whether [it is we] ourselves speaking and killing or standing silent while others vilified and killed, we crucify our Lord anew,’ the pastor said.”

Editor’s comment: If you do some study and watch documentaries, you can see that many of the common people had no idea what was happening, and certainly were not silently approving of or assisting Jewish people being killed en masse. I realize that this is how the Jewish people view the Holocaust, but it is a total fabrication made by elite thinkers to discredit the church to attempt to break fellowship between the Jewish people and the followers of Christ. Similarly, Bolsheviks are being said to be Jewish people who killed Christians in the Soviet Union, which is also false. It's the devil's attempt to break unity between the people of God and the servants of Jesus, their Messiah. If Lutheran leaders were complicit, then it would be right for them to take responsibility for their guilt. But instead, they were intentionally trying to mislabel the entire church as being responsible for the deaths of all Jews. It is very dangerous to genuine Christians and to those who are considering following Christ that they did this. If the Christians did their best to take no part in evil, but failed to know how to stop it – these are two totally different steps. Not only is Lutzer (and this Lutheran “pastor”) indicting the actual church of Jesus for failing to know how to stop the Nazis from separating Jewish people away from society, but also for supposedly knowing that these Jewish people were being put to death, and supposedly not doing anything to stop it. Then he adds on top of that the accusation of denying Christ and actually participating in or assisting the murder of Jews. Then he adds on top of that the suggestion of trying to repent for knowing murder while trying to make Christ guilty of those murders attempting to crucify Jesus again for willful evil. This is such a convoluted mix of things. This is a lot of misplaced accusations against followers of Christ who would not do these things and would expose if possible those who were doing them. Evil impostors who are playing “church” games are not the same as the real church/body of Christ, and even most of them would not have done the things that Lutzer is describing here.

What is really happening here, is that if the Jesuits like Lutzer can get the Christians to agree that we should have stopped evil and are therefore equally evil for failing to stop evil, then we would equally be indicting God for failing to stop evil abruptly. That is the real agenda here from Erwin Lutzer. Jesus says that the thief, who is Satan, has come to steal, kill, and destroy – which is exactly what happened. God is not divided, He does not change from following righteousness and truth, and He is not failing to stop evil. He has left us in responsibility of this earth and works with our will to accomplish the best scenario to reach as many people as possible for the truth. God does not over-ride human will; He receives those who yield their will to His own perfect will, thus having His own kingdom within the world. If God were to judge right now as Lutzer is trying to require Him to do, God would be unjust to those who have not made their decisions yet, because all of the truth has not come out yet. The devil is constantly pulling in the opposite direction from Christ which is beginning to (and eventually will) make the middle ground for each person's decision-making basically non-existent in the shortest number of years possible. So the devil is actually using this equation in attempt to force God to respond before God's work of saving souls is complete. God is not willing that any would perish but is actually trying to seek and save those who are lost and suffering by ignoring His good and perfect will. Lutzer mixes his harmful deceptions with his skillful retelling of history so that it is easy to lose track of what is being said sometimes. It takes a lot of work to learn how to be that aggressive and sneaky against God while only seeming to tell a story.

Correction found in Hebrews 6:4-6 (This verse does not apply to those Christians on whom Lutzer is attempting to bring this condemnation by quoting the “bishop's” misuse of these verses, but it does seem to apply to Erwin Lutzer based on what we have seen) For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted the heavenly gift, and have become partakers of the Holy Spirit, and have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the age to come, if they fall away, to renew them again to repentance, since they crucify again for themselves the Son of God, and put Him to open shame.
Hebrews 6:4-6

Pages 123-124 “Today many Jews are atheists because of the Holocaust. If there were a God, they reason, He could not have stood by without stopping the brutal injustice. Unfortunately, the church did not, for the most part, come to the aid of those who were ostracized or sent to the death camps. In fact, some joined in the persecutions. Some justified their actions, contending that the Jews suffered because they called for Christ's blood after they rejected Him as the Messiah. The Jews did crucify Christ, but so did the Romans, and so did we.”

Editor's comment: First of all, Christians were not persecuting Jewish people. Lutzer is referencing Catholics under this title who clearly did not believe in Jesus. Even the Jewish documentaries show that it was Catholic churches saying these things. Secondly, Jews who reject God, reject Him by choice just as anyone else in the world does, even if they used excuses like this in addition to their real sinful reasons for rejecting Him, rather than finding out what God was really doing. Thirdly, there were many actual Christians around Germany being killed by or suffering under the same machine. Fourthly, only a specific crowd of Jewish rulers crucified Christ and took His blood on them and on their children by their own acknowledgement of that requirement when Pilate refused to be guilty of Jesus' blood (Matthew 27:25) and got some sort of crowd to go along (which in no way reflects on the Jewish people as a whole), while only a few Roman soldiers did the physical crucifixion at the command of Roman rulers (not knowing what they were doing, for which Christ forgave them) and WE in the modern era did NOT crucify Jesus. Strangely, this is actually a statement being used by Roman Catholic leadership to make all man-kind equally guilty of Jesus' blood, so that they can equally extend Jesus' blood to all man-kind. This they intend to do through unity of one-world religion (which will be by force), and by misuse of corrupted Scriptures to suggest that Christ died for ALL, therefore ALL are saved. This is the secret planning of councils for the next wave of world dominance which also incorporates teaching from the Book of Enoch, the Quran, Buddhism, and all of the satanic and pagan mystery religions. We have written a separate report which shows some of Erwin Lutzer's friends and education background that we believe VERY clearly explain his motivations for saying these things he is saying. We provide the link to that article here: www.RestoreMBI.com/Erwin-Lutzer-Profile.htm

www.RestoreMBI.com/Erwin-Lutzer-Profile.pdf

Correction found in 1 Corinthians 1:25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men. 1 Corinthians 1:25 Perhaps many do not understand these verses in the letter to Corinth. It is saying that when God seems to be weak (by not responding with judgment), it is still stronger by far than the greatest supposed strength of humans. And when God seems to be foolish (by not outwitting and preempting the plans of the devil), it is still wiser by far than the greatest supposed knowledge and wisdom of "expert" humans.

Page 125 "Unfortunately, only a few German Christians saw the Jews as their brothers and sisters; only a few saw them as Christ; only a few stood against the devils of hell that were unleashed by a satanic leader. A delegate to the 1950 Synod of the Evangelical Church in Germany declared, 'In every train which carried Jews to their death camps in the East, at least one Christian should have been a voluntary passenger.' Those who preserved their lives lost their honor. And in the end God used persecution to force His people to clarify their mission. There were reasons why the church was paralyzed, unable to find the strength to act."

Editor's comment: That is Lutzer's remedy? He believes that more Christians should have figured out how to smuggle themselves aboard trains that they did not even know were carrying Jewish passengers, let alone not knowing that they were going to death camps. Everyone was under the strain of the Nazi regime, not just those in the ghettos. They could not have known that they should be somewhere else that they did not even have the ability to understand what was happening over there.

Page 130-131 "Germany was about one-third Catholic and two-thirds Protestant. To its credit, the Catholic Church stood against Hitler with a greater solidarity than the Protestants. Hitler knew that the Catholic Church had an organizational network in many countries, so he preferred to maintain goodwill with the Vatican for as long as possible. In fact, a concordat was signed with the Vatican that guaranteed freedom of religion in exchange for political support. Unfortunately, when Hitler began to break his promises, the church leaders were confused."

Editor's comment: And here we start to get to Lutzer's real motivation. He mislabels Germany as being almost entirely "Christian", which he also does on page 190 saying that "95 percent of the people belonged either to the Catholic or Protestant church..." He is laying Hitler's conundrum at the feet of the church, where he believes it should be blamed. And here, Lutzer sets his trap – attempting to bring the whole church under Roman Catholic authority. He suggests that the Roman Catholic leaders stood against Hitler, while one second later admitting that they signed a Concordat with Hitler – something that most Protestant churches did not do – since Hitler did not want to partner with them. Many corrupt Protestant churches bowed to Hitler, but they could not partner with him as did the Catholic “church” in many ways. So Lutzer admits in Chapter 5 that the Catholic leadership (Vatican) signed a concordat with Hitler for partnership, but then immediately redirects with a sleight of hand wizardry/sorcery comment suggesting that the Catholic leaders were confused by Hitler. We want to briefly interrupt this sequence of quotes to bring you another series of quotes from the first chapter of the book which show that Lutzer includes the Roman Catholics as the most necessary part of a united “church” against anti-christ or Hitler.

In this next part, we hope you will see and understand why we put quotation marks around Lutzer’s use of “church”, because Lutzer wants to force humble followers of Jesus under the leadership of corrupt Free-mason and Catholic authorities over his new combined world “church”. This has never been accomplished en total at any time in history, in spite of all of the bloodshed and torture and threats and bribes made by the Vatican in attempt to force us to do so. So now in America for several decades, the Vatican is using the cleverest sequences of slow nudges to try to get us to agree to be under their authority. Lutzer provides one of those little nudges by concluding (for us supposedly) at several points that this is the only way to fight the anti-christ and the final reich, while saving the “church” from becoming irrelevant. Lutzer has written other books and sermons where he similarly concludes that the church is almost dead or starving for relevance, and you will definitely see that theme if you read this book also. Lutzer is trying very hard to redefine the church. He is very much like his hero Billy Graham who said, “I think Islam is misunderstood, too, because Muhammad had a great respect for Jesus, and he called Jesus the greatest of the prophets except for himself. And I think that we’re closer to Islam than we really think we are.” Well, Lutzer is saying the exact same thing about the Vatican. And no, the Vatican is not closer to being like us at all, nor is the Catholic-made negotiating tool called Islam anything like us. You will want to investigate St. Augustine and Muhammad’s first wife, and their idolatrous Ka’aba, if you are interested in understanding how they founded, equipped, and are still using Islam for their work toward world dominance.

Page 20 “Hitler’s report card was filled with such astounding achievements that many Christians saw him as an answer to their prayers. Some Christians, I have been told – yes, I said Christians – took the picture of Christ from the wall in their homes and substituted a portrait of Hitler.”

Editor’s comment: In other words, Lutzer suggests that there were followers of Christ who believed Hitler to be the return of Christ. That is an outright lie or at best is seriously misrepresentative of the confused state of information coming out of Germany. But there is a reason Lutzer is misrepresenting Christians in Germany. It is the Roman Catholic “church” which teaches its leaders (and by example, its followers) world-wide to readily add their surroundings (including false religions as you will discover if you investigate the Catholic church world-wide) to their “churches”. This is their misdirected use of Paul’s words (1 Corinthians 9:17-23) to understand and be respectful of those who are under Jewish law when among them, and to not be required to observe Old Covenant laws among those who are without the Jewish law, because that was a transitional period just after Christ.

Page 21 “Or were the Germans not only human but fully human, simply human without the veneer, without the constraints of society and God? The answer, as we shall discover, is that the Germans of the Nazi era – indeed Hitler himself – were all too human.”

Editor’s comment: Why would Lutzer ask this? And why would he answer it this way? There is no such thing as humans who are highly evolved animals; we all have a conscience. It requires humans to intentionally disregard their conscience to do these things – but that would not be Christians for the most part. There is no normal process by which humans do these things to each other – it requires intensely deep piles of lies and a network to slowly introduce and “stabilize” each lie in a strong successive rising tide or current that seems tolerable. And it requires people who HATE God - not people who ignore God or as Lutzer says are “without God.” That is evil, not ignorant – which is a very serious difference to make. Lutzer is knowingly blurring this.

Correction found in Genesis 6:5 Then the Lord saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. Genesis 6:5

Page 25 “Nevertheless, Charlemagne cemented the growing unity of church and state that was begun during the days of Constantine (274-337).”

Editor’s comment: Ah... here we have his definition of “church”. This is false; there was no unity between the actual followers of Christ with the Roman religious leaders who made those agreements. The powerful elite had built a powerful corrupt thing (built partly on truth and partly on Babylonian mystery religion from Pergamum, which later became Constantinople) they called the “church” and connected that with state authority. It was not the real church of Jesus that was doing this by any stretch of historical imagination. But Lutzer sees the church as synonymous with the Catholic “church”. You will see this pattern throughout. Almost every time we see Lutzer use the word church in reference to Germany or America in this book, you will notice that he includes the Catholic leadership as part of that.

Correction found in Revelation 2:20-22 (Jesus speaking to the church in Thyatira, which also was in reference to the future corruption of the Catholic Church spirit which had not arrived yet) Nevertheless I have a few things against you, because you allow that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess, to teach and seduce My servants to commit sexual immorality and eat things sacrificed to idols. And I gave her time to repent of her sexual immorality, and she did not repent. In deed I will cast her into a sickbed, and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation, unless they repent of their deeds. Revelation 2:20-22 and Luke 17:20-21 Now when He was asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, He (Jesus) answered them and said, “The kingdom of God does not come with observation; nor will they say, ‘See here!’ or ‘See there!’ For indeed, the kingdom of God is within you.” Luke 17:20-21

In fact on the next page (26) he says “Even today the church in Europe (both Catholic and Protestant) is supported through taxes.”

Editor’s comment: As you can see, he combines them under the one word “church”. “Church” singular combined with both Catholic and Protestant – Lutzer has set his definition right here.

Chapter 1 short summary – For some reason, Lutzer titles this chapter “Waiting For Hitler” and uses it to explain how the “church” and state have been working together, except that he conveniently forgets the Catholic “church” part of the conspiracy against believers through two millennia. He conveniently never explains that World War 2 and the Nazi regime are an intentional sabotage to discredit the church by setting up a “straw man” religious empire (partnership of “church” and state). In fact, Lutzer makes it seem a wholly natural progression of human thought among those who ignore God and refuse to follow His Truth, as if there could be a people who are just evil (such as atheists whom Lutzer pretends that they think God does not exist) without being intentionally aware that they are fighting God (such as the Catholic Church who hate God and whom Lutzer is covering for regarding their crimes and participation in the Nazi powerhouse). Hitler’s partner Mussolini also signed a Concordat with the Vatican (Catholic leadership in Rome) in 1929. It was even worse than the Reichskonkordat with Germany, because it was this agreement with Italian government during their consolidating the state of Italy under their power, which is actually what allowed the Vatican to refuse to join that state and secretly became a separate city-state not governed by the Italian (or any) government and sitting as its own world power in negotiations thereafter. The negotiators of the League of Nations questioned allowing that Concordat with the Vatican to stand, but it was allowed and has never been removed.

Lutzer concludes this chapter on Page 44 by saying: “With the existence of God wiped from the consciousness of the ruling elite and with the exaltation of the state above the laws of ordinary men, Hitler was free to pursue his goals. Dostoyevsky was right: If God does not exist, everything is permissible.”

Editor's comment: Do you see what Lutzer just did there – "If God does not exist"? Lutzer says that the second half of Dostoyevski's axiom is correct, which would verify the first half of this if, then clause. As I said before, Lutzer raises these and intentionally does not answer them. So we will answer it instead. God did not cease to exist! They were pretending not to have to think about God, and Lutzer recognizes that as an honest position of human logic. Lutzer is pretending that the ruling elite were unaware of God. Lutzer is going to spend the rest of the book explaining that the church (which he sees as a union between Catholic leadership and Protestant leadership) is the only potential hindrance to evil, as if it requires Lutzer to organize that, as if God isn't doing His job or is in fact assisting the evil-doers (as Lutzer alludes to in the next chapter, of which we already looked at in part). Lutzer believes that if a person chooses not to think about God, therefore effectively "God does not exist" to them. Lutzer is saying that the laws of ordinary men (such as international consensus which in 1948 became the U.N. Declaration of Human Rights) was the only other obstacle which was then usurped by the state. As you will see in the rest of Lutzer's book, he drifts back and forth between accusing God or else pretending that God is not a help to us and that the unity of Catholic leadership with the Protestant leadership is the only solution. I am about to show this even more fully from Lutzer's words about "the one universal, Catholic church" from pages 24-26.

Correction found in Romans 1:18-20 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness, because what may be known of God is manifest in them, for God has shown it to them. For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead, so that they are without excuse, because, although they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God, nor were thankful, but became futile in their thoughts, and their foolish hearts were darkened. Romans 1:18-20

Page 44 "Now we turn to look at these events through the lens of Scripture. God was not simply watching from heaven. He is, after all, the One who raises up leaders and brings them down. We must see His fingerprints even in the course of Nazi history."

Editor's comment: We realize these are big words and questions that we're laying back on Erwin Lutzer, but please focus on this with us if you care about the reputation of our Lord Jesus Christ, because Lutzer is laying on words against our Lord. The heart of God is being severely slandered by a Jesuit here who is helping to recreate this scenario on American soil. How is Lutzer helping to recreate the problem on American soil? By avoiding pointing to the Catholic "church" as the institution that has helped create this false dichotomy, because the ruling Pope and Cardinals are the highest level of satanists, also called secular humanists (which simply means trying to be good without God). Lutzer is pretending that this conspiracy is caused by people with a LACK of awareness of Christ (atheists and communists), when in fact, it is created by people who know more about God than most common humans (Jesuits and Freemasons) while HATING Him and consciously trying to discredit Jesus' followers by reverse imitation. That requires a high level of skill in the Scriptures and in the active work of the Spirit of God to know how to teach the secular people to see God as though He is satan. They don't accomplish that level of imitation by self-seeking only. They learn it by infiltrating and growing up children into adults through the complex mesh of wheat and tares, living their life-style as close to God's children as possible and then misleading the true believers to incrementally deceive them into giving verbal consent to leaders and ideas and things they don't understand in a slow progress of lies that will go undetected. And at the same time, also leading the other enemy of the believers by feeding information to the enemy (Nazi regime is the given example in Lutzer's book) about how to imitate their actions in reverse. This mechanism of satanists who look like great "Christians" within the church leadership gave the Nazi regime real-time information about how to undermine the inner unity of the followers of Christ who were trying to figure out a solution to Hitler's programs. Instead, those attempts were overtaken in part by Bonhoeffer and Niemoller and Barth, who performed their pre-planned response of unifying the Catholic church with the Protestant church and helping establish the path for a Lausanne Council and Niemoller actually later became president of the World Council of Churches as we expect to explain clearly in part 3. These satanic infiltrators/directors of the "church" during a world-wide crisis like this have to be powerful enough AND secret enough at the same time to be able to lead both sides of the equation – which requires people in the secular leadership and people in the “church” leadership. The Roman Catholic institution is the only institution powerful enough and with enough of the right secret partnerships world-wide to be able to accomplish that. And if you study the history, you will discover Catholic networks throughout the whole equation.

Acts 20:28-30 (Paul speaking his farewell to the elders of the Ephesus assemblies) Therefore take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, among which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of God which He purchased with His own blood. For I know this, that after my departure savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock. Also from among yourselves men will rise up, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after themselves. Acts 20:28-30

In chapter 2, Lutzer uses the words “Providence” and “Fate” 41 times within sixteen pages to try to emphasize what he suggests is God’s partnership in Hitler’s life. Particularly of interest are pages 49-59, which you really should read for yourself to see how Lutzer has shaped this partnership. This is Lutzer’s clever cover-up of Catholic and Freemason “hidden hand” involvement in the build-up of the Nazi structures. This is his response to the question of such power – He accuses God of providing the power necessary to build the Nazi regime. Do you understand the switch that has happened here? Infiltrate, act as the opposition while feeding information to the enemy from inside the church, use the corrupt leaders to slowly discredit the church, then attack while using your inside information feeds from the corrupt church leaders to imitate and make God seem to be the devil. I have already shown you Lutzer’s anger against God which he feels is justified where Lutzer quotes the man who was saying “If there is a God, he must be the devil.” Here it is. This is Lutzer’s message to the “pastors” in America and around the world!

On page 24, Lutzer identifies “the one universal, Catholic church” without explaining that it was not a church, but rather a corrupt political institution to destroy and discredit and rule over and oppress the genuine believers in Christ. He avoids that because he actually respects what he knows are the secret intentions of the Vatican as shown by his friendship with Franciscan Fr. Dimitri Sala and the G11 pastors group, as well as his education by Jesuits at Loyola University.

Then on the next two pages (25 -26), Lutzer uses that word ‘church’ seventeen times to try to reinforce his redefined ‘church’. As I pointed out earlier on this same page 26 is where Lutzer gives his definition of singular “church”, when he says: “Even today the church in Europe (both Catholic and Protestant) is supported through taxes.” Lutzer says singular noun “church” with singular verb “is”. That is singular combining the two into one. That is his clarified definition after using the word “church” seventeen times on those two pages to force his new definition. This is very intentionally worded this way; very carefully and with coaching from other experts most likely who helped him work through all of the nuances to avoid and go below people’s radar to combine them unnoticed.

Whether you agree with our assessment of Lutzer’s secret sorcery on behalf of the Catholic church or not – if you care about God’s reputation, we trust you are concerned enough by Lutzer’s assault against God’s Person (as we believe we have clearly demonstrated) enough to be willing to investigate Lutzer’s reasons for yourself. We realize this is probably already over-whelming to most people, because it is such a dark subject matter as to usually warrant avoidance. Secondly, it is not pleasant (and does not seem possible) to think that a strong leader of the evangelical church is actually a Catholic infiltrator. Thirdly, there is such disclarity and seemingly too many unknown details that most people would give up trying. But if you are still trying to understand, we appreciate your interest in helping rebuke Erwin Lutzer and correct the lies he is making against God. Most people would avoid writing this type of review about motives and would rather favor befriending the person and giving advice or asking what their intentions were with this statement or that. But our family has spent our lives in close proximity to some very powerful and dangerous religious leaders over American “Christianity”, which has taught us that most of the influential buildings that are called churches and seminaries have been misdirected and infiltrated and are now being led by Free-masons and Jesuits and satanists. Lutzer fits that description in far too many ways. It grieves us to have discovered that about him several years ago when we identified his Jesuit training, but he is saying very clearly what he wants to say. This is the second edition – he could edit any errors that he discovered after twenty years (from the first edition being published).

Matthew 12:33-37 Either make (identify) the tree good and its fruit good, or else make the tree bad and its fruit bad; for a tree is known by its fruit. Brood of vipers! How can you being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth good things, and an evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth evil things. But I say to you that for every idle word men may speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment. For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned. Matthew 12:33-37

Page 133 “It should come as no surprise that Protestant leaders called for a synthesis of Volkstum (German national identity) and Christianity. Since the Protestant churches all belonged to more than twenty independent districts, the goal was that these regional churches be replaced by a Reich’s church, that is, a centralized national church. Some leaders wanted to revise the church’s creeds to bring them in line with National Socialism.”

Editor’s comment: Lutzer exonerates the Catholic leadership for having done more to stop Hitler than the rest of the “church”, and he hides and ignores the role that Catholic priests and Jesuits and Free-masons had in creating chaos and confusion in Germany. Now he then blames the Protestants for trying to cause a “synthesis” between national socialism (Nazism) and Christianity. The reality of the Vatican’s involvement in building Hitler’s regime is very much the other way around from what Lutzer is trying to pretend. Here again Lutzer is trying to attack the integrity of “Protestants” so as to try to force us under the leadership of the Catholic Church who Lutzer pretends were hindering Hitler more than anyone else. Why else would he expect actual believers to try to conform the truth to Nazism? No, Lutzer knows that these Protestant churches were overrun and corrupted by Catholic and Freemason authorities who were abusing the genuine believers in Germany who did not agree with them. They did this to try to direct the merger of Catholic leadership with those of the house of faith in Jesus who they hoped would follow their “Protestant” leaders right under the Vatican. There were, no doubt, many believers who were confused by the leaders and tried to help people communicate and solve problems while still holding their faith in Christ. But that is not the same as corrupt infiltrating “Protestant” leaders who were trying to misdirect the Christians into making agreements with the one system (Vatican) or the other system (Fascism). Those leaders knew quite well what their responsibilities were to the system and how contradictory they were to the truth or else were deceived by their own willful ignorance, desiring to use the gospel as a means of gain.

1 Timothy 6:3-5 If anyone teaches otherwise and does not consent to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which accords with godliness, he is proud, knowing nothing, but is obsessed with disputes and arguments over words, from which come envy, strife, reviling, evil suspicions, useless wrangling of men of corrupt minds and destitute of the truth, who suppose that godliness is a means of gain. From such withdraw yourself. 1 Timothy 6:3-5

Page 189 “It was a time, says one, ‘when the power of darkness was greater than the power of light.’ “

Editor’s comment: Christ is never weaker than lies and destruction. Even the weakness of Christ is greater than the strength of men, and even the foolishness of Christ is wiser than the greatest tricks of men – as Paul the apostle explains very accurately about the work of the gospel to the nations. Also God created all of the angels some of whom turned away. The devil is trying to consolidate his “kingdom” by forcing everyone to accept or else take their stand with Christ’s kingdom. It is a clear separation of kingdoms that is happening. The devil really likes eclipses because in his pride, it seems to suggest that the darkness could overcome the light. This seems to be one of those types of statements here.

Correction found in Matthew 6:23 (Jesus speaking) “But if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is that darkness!” Matthew 6:23 and Ephesians 5:11-14 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather expose them. For it is shameful even to speak of those things which are done by them in secret. But all things that are exposed are made manifest by the light, for whatever makes manifest (makes it visible and clear) is light.

Therefore He says: "Awake, you who sleep, arise from the dead, and Christ will give you light." Ephesians 5:11-14

Page 196-197 "DID THE GATES OF HADES PREVAIL? What do we make of Hitler's apparent victory in crushing the church? Did the 'gates of Hades' prevail? To put the question differently, 'Did God win, even in Nazi Germany?' Yes, God always wins, even when He appears to lose. He does not have to win numerically to win spiritually. The question is not how many souls are saved; nor is it the number who were willing to suffer for their faith. Jesus was under no illusion about the percentage of those who would turn out to be His true followers. 'Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father has chosen gladly to give you the kingdom' (Luke 12:32). The great kingdom goes to the 'little flock.'"

Editor's comment: What kind of a question is that coming from a supposed pastor? Hitler didn't even come close to crushing the church; he only caught it off guard and unprepared to follow the Holy Spirit through such difficult tricks. But then Lutzer switches the discussion entirely to point at God with accusations about God not caring about unbelievers and believers and not caring about those who suffer persecution for their faith, which instead creates an even deeper accusation that God is more interested in His own power than in righteousness and hearts and souls of people! Lutzer is saying that God only cares about Himself – in a very crafty way, he has said this. But then Lutzer continues by contorting the facts to suggest that only those who boldly resisted Hitler are true Christians, which is a severe lie. There were many believers who fled Germany, who resisted in silence for fear of worse problems, and who were unaware of the devil's devices because they were too complacent in the ways of the world, which satan intentionally arranged – the weakest point of Christ's body to fight the greatest "strength" of satan's strategies. Furthermore, Lutzer only wants to look at leaders, but then subtly applies the principles of leadership to those believers who were steadily and persistently dis-allowed from leadership by those who ruled over the corrupt "church" in Germany in the decades leading up to World War 1 and 2.

Correction found in Luke 12:29-34 (Jesus is speaking to the few early disciples who started the process, not to the whole congregation of the righteous) "And do not seek what you should eat or what you should drink, nor have an anxious mind. For all these things the nations of the world seek after, and your Father knows that you need these things. But seek the kingdom of God, and all these things shall be added to you. Do not fear, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell what you have and give alms; provide yourselves money bags which do not grow old, a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches nor moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. Luke 12:29-34 and Revelation 7:9-10 (This great multitude which cannot be numbered is only part of the Tribulation saints who were killed for their faith within a span of a few years) After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude which no one could number, of all nations, tribes, peoples, and tongues, standing before the Throne and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, with palm branches in their hands, and crying out with a loud voice, saying, "Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!" Revelation 7:9-10 and Revelation 19:1,6 After these things I heard a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, "Allalulia! Salvation and glory and honor and power belong to the Lord our God!... And I heard, as it were, the voice of a great multitude, as the sound of many waters and as the sound of mighty thundering, saying, "Alleluia! For the Lord God Omnipotent Reigns!..." Revelation 19:1,6

As we just said, so here it is in Lutzer's own words only looking at "leaders" of the church) –

Page 199 "If every pastor had been a Bonhoeffer or a Niemoller, textbooks on German history might read differently today. Perhaps Niemoller was right: God might have prevented Hitler from carrying out the Holocaust."

Editor's comment: He only wants to focus on "pastors", because there were many genuine believers outside the corrupt system who opposed Hitler but not as strong as someone who is granted a position of leadership could do. Lutzer says God might have stopped Hitler as if God created this scenario but was sorely disappointed with the church's inability to overcome the entire of the world's elite minds who backed Hitler. Their strategy had corrupted the “pastors” of the German “churches” for decades leading up to this strategy. There weren’t pastors who stood up, because most of them were not allowed to be pastors in that climate. They have done this exact same squeezing out of honorable pastors in America for decades by the seminary and Free-mason power-struggle games in the denominations. We have personally watched the overthrow of multiple churches with Rick Warren’s super-size the church growth program, which really just invited tons of false converts to come act like Christians among us. Then when they burst the bubble and everyone denies their faith, it could seem depressing to those who don’t understand who runs the churches. But in reality, it will just be the liars and scoffers who decide to stop pretending to be us, because it is no longer practical to their selfish gain. That is the type of people Lutzer is calling “pastors” in Germany. Lutzer is referring to were men who wanted a career or on whom were laid hands too soon who could not lead. This was by design for their hoax. Many honest pastors left the country, as you also see that even Bonhoeffer (who was imitating the honorable pastors) also had to do. Many others who were disallowed from being pastors, evangelists, Sunday school teachers, musicians in the “church” were still out there serving the Lord without a title. And many of them stood up to the Nazi regime in the best ways they knew how. Why would Lutzer not emphasize so much more on these people. Because he likes the power struggles that keep the Vatican and Free-masons on top of us. Read the following record of those who resisted the corrupt commands of the Nazi regime:

Although religious leaders did little to resist Hitler, that is not true of the general population. Between 1933 and 1939 the ordinary courts sentenced 225,000 people to a total of 600,000 years' imprisonment for political and religious offences. During the Nazi period of power, three million Germans were held at one time or another in prison or in the concentration camps on political and religious grounds. (23)

Correction found in 2 Corinthians 10:3-4 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh. For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds... Corinthians 10:3-4 and Matthew 16:11-12 (Jesus speaking about the religious hypocrites like Lutzer of his day) “How is it you do not understand that I did not speak to you concerning bread? – but to beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees.” Then they understood that He did not tell them to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and Sadducees. Matthew 16:11-12 and Revelation 18:23-24 (Jesus speaking about the destruction of the evil and deadly world religion center being destroyed – which is the future system created by the Vatican) “The light of a lamp shall not shine in you anymore, and the voice of the bridegroom and bride shall not be heard in you anymore. For your merchants were the great men of the earth, for by your sorcery all the nations were deceived. And in her was found the blood of prophets and saints, and of all who were slain on the earth.” Revelation 18:23-24

Page 217-218 “The text says, ‘The devil is about to cast some of you into prison, so that you will be tested, and you will have tribulation for ten days’ (v. 10). Christ has His hand on the thermostat when His people pass through the furnace of affliction. The prison term of these believers was not determined by happenstance but by Christ. Contrary to some popular teachings today, we cannot always be free of attacks from Satan. Christ put those believers into Satan’s hands! But Satan would be in Christ’s hands. Niemoller was right when he said that God had allowed Satan to shake the German church to separate the wheat from the chaff.”

Editor’s comment: God does not turn up the persecution; He holds the judicial rulings that allow but limit the amount of judgment to what is earned and required on the nation/city of people being accused and attacked by satan who wants to utterly destroy or corrupt them. No one can snatch us out of our Father’s hands, so it is a complete lie to say that “Christ put those believers into Satan’s hands!” Further, God is not directing the works of satan as this sequence implies. God hinders satan’s work as much as He can without violating the judicial laws of righteousness that are necessary to remove sin and evil-doers, so that God will not be unjust by justifying or protecting the wicked. And very often, the believers get caught in the middle of the two because we live in the world still, while being citizens of heaven. So we want to be in the middle trying to represent our Father to unbelievers while we live in this rebellious and sinful world. God does not ask these things of us, but we love Him and we love our neighbor and so we get caught in the middle just by the very nature of satan's tricks against God's righteousness.

Correction found in Matthew 13:40-43 (Jesus speaking here -This has not been fulfilled yet, but Lutzer wants to misapply this to World War 2 which is very dangerous doctrine and mischaracterizes the work of Christ again to accuse God of every kind of evil) "Therefore as the tares are gathered and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of this age. The Son of Man will send out His angels, and they will gather out of His kingdom all things that offend, and those who practice lawlessness, and will cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears to hear, let him hear!" Matthew 13:40-43

That is the end of the sequence of quotes for this part one. We do not have all of the answers to what should have happened differently in Germany if there had been a strong body of believers who remained present there. We do not fault the believers for leaving Germany and we do not fault the believers who remained for not knowing the extent of evil to which satan is capable. God will sort those things out at Jesus' judgment seat. Our concern is more with the Jesuits and Free-masons and elite minds who are thinking about repeating this algebraic equation in America. As a prominent example - there is currently a powerful network of Jesuits, Freemasons, and corrupt scoffers who have been trying to take over the direction of Moody Bible Institute/Seminary. They have been part of the leadership of the school for decades, but now they are moving to overthrow it and redesign it to fit their plan or else crush it. We noticed that Lutzer is highly educated in the Jesuit arts (M.A. and nearly a PhD in philosophy from Loyola University in that he only chose to not complete the dissertation) also which is no doubt at the root of many of these problems that seem insignificant to those who don't know the tactics that are being used to overthrow and redirect churches and "Christian" leadership.

If you are not familiar with the Jesuit order, we hope you will have a look at our website about the crisis at Moody Bible Institute which explains the leadership changes and the history of the Jesuit order. There is a reason that the current (acting as) President of the U.S. is a Jesuit and the current Pope in Vatican Rome is the first openly known Jesuit. This is not an accident. They are all working together on this current project to change America and change religion of the world while also working toward one-world government. For example, look up Erwin Lutzer's friend Dimitri Sala and his book The Stained Glass Curtain: Crossing the Evangelical-Catholic Divide to Find Our Common Heritage, and you will see that they are trying to force the entire of believers in Christ to be under the authority of Rome/Vatican again. Also notice that Erwin Lutzer is the "pastor" who provided spiritual cover for the Jesuits and Free-masons who have snuck in to Moody Bible Institute since the 1980's and are now subtly over-running the decisions of the school.

That is the conclusion of part one of this book review. If you want to see more about Lutzer's Jesuit history and partnerships with Free-masons and Catholics, we have provided the link here for our questions and notes on Lutzer's history on our RestoreMBI page.

For a short-form explanation of the powers that have infiltrated to overthrow the churches and ministries in America – much of it is directed by "The Family" aka The Fellowship in Washington D.C. partnered with Bill Bright, Billy Graham, the Rockefeller Brothers Fund, many Congressional and Executive leaders, Supreme Court justices, and a complex network of “authorities” over the evangelical movement and over various denominations and brand-name churches. It takes a lot of time to research and know/show all of that, which we regularly try to produce for anyone who is willing to renounce the sins of this world and seek Christ first and His kingdom and His righteousness.

In part two, we have collected a similar collection of thirty quotes that involve Lutzer trying to blame the “church” for being “confused” and complicit and even “participating” in the persecution especially of the Jewish people, Christians, and some other victims. He accuses the “church” of causing Jewish people to become atheists and yet also says that the Jews were “judged in the Holocaust”. He quotes “pastors” who took responsibility for the Holocaust and who were asking the “church” – “Where is Abel your brother?” – as if believers killed the fellow Jewish neighbors. Lutzer further explains that he feels that these questions should be placed at the doors of the church and thereby gives approval to such a scam happening again in America. He invites it by trying to convince pastors and those who read his book that “History has to repeat itself... because nobody was listening the first time around” which is how he starts his introduction to the 2016 edition. Of course, he tries to use that as a scare tactic to lead to his remedy, but his remedy is rejoining the Catholic “church”, the very complex organization that provides the extreme drama on both sides of these false experiments to destroy the true believers. So you can see the conundrum he is helping to recreate. We intend to show clearly from Lutzer’s quotes how he feels justified in forcing this problem upon the believers to figure out a solution for lasting world peace. In the process, Lutzer loads down more accusations and blame against the church and more-significantly against Christ along the way.

In part three, we want to look at Bonhoeffer, Niemoller, and Barth whom Lutzer promotes as being the solution to the Antichrist. Lutzer says (on page 199) that “if every pastor had been a Bonhoeffer or a Niemoller... God might have prevented Hitler from carrying out the Holocaust.” We also want to look at the fact that more than 80,000 Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) clergy have been trained in America by Billy Graham’s organization and others to use a New Testament, a Talmud, and a Quran to help calm the public during major crises that they are planning to bring on us – International Critical Incident Stress Foundation courses from FEMA. In light of that, Lutzer knows that the Muslims are intended to be part of this next planned conundrum in America when Lutzer asks (on page 259) “Who is Christ for us today? Certainly the unborn child, the abused child, the single mother, racial minorities.” We show how he tries to corner the church into rejoining with “God’s” pretend authority over the state through the Catholic model for combined church and state, which Lutzer feels we should be required to participate in. And we hope to explore the right answers to reaching our neighbors for the gospel while not joining political games from corrupt “church” leaders in America who are already starting a deep movement of fear and fight mode in the “churches” if we don’t get ahead of sorting out their lies. Most people are unprepared and set to fall into the first mode, or else into the second mode of peace on earth through world government consolidation. Both are equally disastrous to the gospel being accurately proclaimed to the whole earth. Thank you for walking through these discussions with us. We don’t claim to have answers to the problems. But truth dispels the darkness quite well, and God will give His church wisdom at each step along the way receiving new souls into God’s love against the tricks and walls that the devil tries to make between us.
