If you haven't read our research on the point-by-point comparison of identical problems caused by Jesuits at Moody's schools in Northfield Mount Hermon and in Chicago @ Moody Bible Institute, see link below. The second important article there shows who C. S. Lewis Study Center and Catholic Thomas Aquinas College represent in Jesuit discussions.

1. Jesuits: Please try to grasp how destructive to faith each of these persons are. They studied at evil colleges and they promote evil programs. See our introductory explanations in either of the MBI-Jesuit-Faculty reports as to why these ecumenical and Jesuit partnerships are built into the education process of these individuals and why they chose to turn away from Christ and reject the Bible's authority as the Word of God. The educational institutions are explained in our Concerns-on-academia report and many other reports, but we tried also to include some of those details along the way in this report. There are more details on many bios in the MBI-Jesuit-Faculty reports that we could not include here (too lengthy), but this retains the most offensive decisions and partnerships of Moody faculty and are fully backed by research that has taken right at six months. If the evidence is not provided in the links, search the key words – that is all that we did – besides our decades of listening/learning how these networks partner with Rome and the devil. We are calling for the removal of all of the faculty below and God will give wisdom to the Moody family to find faculty who do fear God and trust and obey His Word only.

Name [@ Jesuit education; ecumenical partners ___ ecumenical partners]

- Education:

- Name: and Faculty Position at Moody

Jonathan Armstrong [@ known Jesuit Fordham University; By his own admission is a leader in ecumenical Jesuit-led dialogue with leaders from 21 countries since 2011 for theological education ___ Director of Moody's Center for Global Theological Education (known as C-GATE) as a project of Vatican II Council Lausanne Consultation overthrow of Global Theological Education ___ Director of Aqueduct Project through agreement between Moody's Bryan O'Neal and several Lausanne interfaith directors (more in Bryan O'Neal bio) ___ Armstrong was Research Assistant to Jesuit CIA agent Cardinal Avery Dulles S.J., who is nephew of CIA/OSS Director Allen Dulles who partnered with Harriman Brothers and Prescott Bush (George W.'s grandfather) in funding the Nazi war machine, stealing from Jewish families, hiding criminal activity, and smuggling out Nazis after World War 2 ___ Besides the Ph.D., Avery Dulles helped Armstrong also get a special Grant from Fordham University to University of Erlanger-Nuremburg in the heart of Nazi history and a second special Grant for further study at Jesuit-led Oxford University Wycliffe Hall where Armstrong became a full-time theology faculty member in the year or two before coming to Moody Bible ___ Possibly the connection that brought Jesuit C. S. Lewis Institute (partner of Ravi Zacharias' program in Oxford Wycliffe Hall) and/or that brought Catholic Thomas Aquinas College to Moody's Northfield, MA; Thomas Aquinas was the 13th Century Dominican Patristics scholar who wrote thick volumes of Catholic "church" history to assist cornering separatists and true Christians under Vatican authority permanently

___ Probably brought the Kern Foundation/Jesuit-founded Acton Institute/Oikonomia Network connections to Moody Chicago which are led by Sajan Mathews (see Mathews bio); we say this because Armstrong's mentor Dulles was a known contributor in Acton Institute's research/writings ___ Personally mentored by World Council of Churches partner Wesley Granberg-Michaelson who is involved in Reformed-Catholic interfaith dialogue to conquer Protestant Evangelicals for Rome/Pope – which is what Reformed scholars like R. C. Sproul and John Gerstner used Thomas Aquinas doctrines for ___ Armstrong's education is identical to Jesuit agent Erwin Lutzer who obtained the level of doctorate at Loyola but avoided his dissertation so as to not get caught as a full Jesuit. But Lutzer's partnerships with Franciscan Jesuit Father Dimitri Sala and other prominent Jesuits and the books he has written have fully completed him as one of the worst Jesuits in our country. Lutzer preaches "unity" with the Catholic Church as the escape from the anti-christ program which Lutzer and Armstrong both know is just an attempt to make true Christians complicit with all of the horrible oppressive murderous history of the Vatican power and Inquisitions and Crusades including the Nazis who were largely Jesuit and Catholic which Jesuit Lutzer cleverly avoids mentioning. This is why Armstrong is tasked with altering Moody's international missions efforts through this Center for Global Theological Education project and his Aqueduct Project – to attempt to ensnare Moody's missionaries into partnering with the Vatican for world dominance ___ There is so much to say on Armstrong's connections - see more in full bio]

- Education: Cornerstone University (current President is Jesuit Joseph Stowell), Jesuit-led Trinity Evangelical Divinity School, and M.A. and Doctorate in Jesuit Philosophy (PhD) in "Church History" at openly Jesuit Fordham University (in New York – Jesuit usurper "President" Donald Trump is also an alumnus).

- Jonathan Armstrong is Moody Bible Institute Director of Center for Global Theological Education trying to spread his evil philosophy as far as possible. Armstrong is/was Associate Professor of Bible/Theology at MBI Spokane.

James Spencer [@ Jesuit-led Harvard University and @ Jesuit-led Wheaton College; Vice President of MBI and a prominent spokesperson/cover-up agent for the Jesuit overthrow during the shutting down of Moody Spokane campus and cutting of 1/3 of Moody full-time faculty __ Spencer was Dean of Moody Distance Learning which was handed to Bryan O’Neal so O’Neal could partner both with James Spencer in his new Jesuit retreat Northfield Mission Center project and with Jonathan Armstrong in C-GATE and the Aqueduct Project for Vatican overthrow of Global Theological Education __ Spencer is now Moody Online Director of Strategic Development for new Northfield Mission Center project as an interfaith Jesuit “Body, Mind, and Spirit Retreat Center” which actually claims Catholic Thomas Aquinas College as its “Mind” (in The Moody Center promo for the new NMC project). This is important because Thomas Aquinas is the scholar used by Reformed Evangelical scholars to undo the Reformation to force us back under Rome/Vatican authorities. Jesuit Erwin Lutzer, former pastor of The Moody Church, calls this partnership with two Catholic-led Thomas Aquinas inspired institutions – C. S. Lewis Center and Catholic Thomas Aquinas College – “Standing Where D. L. Moody Stood and Reviving His Legacy”, which he knows is not even slightly true – but is spoken as a true Jesuit who “evangelizes” by forcing people back under the Pope

__ Spencer is a mentor with Tommy Lee’s Resource Global – a partner of Kern/ Acton Faith, Work, and Economics program (more in Sajan Mathews bio) __ Commission on Accreditation member with Bryan O’Neal for Association of Biblical Higher Education which is requiring Jesuit Spiritual Formation to be taught at MBI (more in William Thrasher bio) __ Spncer is adjunct faculty at Right on Mission led by Jesuit Harvard United Nations “global Change Agent” Sarah Sumner (that is what she calls herself) who is former staff at Bill Hybel’s Willow Creek __ Partner in the cover-up of sale of half of Moody’s Chicago property which includes Residence Halls – Spencer said that a shortage of residence dorms was the cause of so few students being selected to Moody Bible Institute (see more in Northfield Short Report point #9 or Moody NMH MBI Comparison point #1) __ There is so much more to say about Spencer's partnerships as well as about the C. S. Lewis Distinguished Fellows – see more in full bio]

- Education: Doctorate in Jesuit Philosophy (PhD) from Jesuit-led Trinity International University, M.A. from Jesuit-led Wheaton College, a M.Div. from Moody Theological Seminary, and certificate from Jesuit-led Harvard Institute for Education Management.

- James Spencer was Vice-President and Dean of MBI Distance Learning (online and non-traditional learning) since 2012, then was Vice-President and Dean of Moody Bible Institute (2016). Spencer is now Online Director of Strategic Development for Northfield Mission Center.

Sajjan Mathews [@ ecumenical Prairie Graduate School and @ Jesuit-led Trinity Evangelical Divinity School __ Elder in Brethren Church __ Moody Theological Seminary Professor of Systematic Theology and Director of Moody Bible's Kern/Acton Institute Faith, Work, and Economics studies. Their partners include Oikonomia Network, Tommy Lee's Resource Global for business mentoring, Bilderberg-think-tank American Enterprise Institute, Acton Institute founded by Jesuit Paulist Fathers, Billy Graham's Christianity Today International, Lausanne-partner - The Gospel Coalition, most major evangelical seminaries and Seattle Pacific University who hosts the John Perkins' Center (CCDA and Lausanne America founder), David Kotter who is Dean of Theology at Colorado Christian University's Centennial Institute host of the Western Conservative Summit where Grace To You's John MacArthur stumped for the Donald Trump campaign (Trump spoke also at this event), and finally Art Lindsley of the Institute for Faith, Work and Economics who previously was Director of C. S. Lewis Institute and R. C. Sproul's Ligonier Valley Study Center which was an American L'Abri following Jesuit Kingdom-dominionism of Francis Schaeffer/Bill Bright/Loren Cunningham in the Swiss heart of United Nations power

__ The purpose of Oikonomia Network is to collect all Freemason/Jesuit-led Protestant power to control the four largest sectors of society on behalf of the Vatican – 1. all Church-life, 2. all Home-life, 3. all Business, and 4. all Government to be directed/guided by Vatican directives and Jesuit control grids __ That is a simplified program of Kingdom Dominionism built on seven mountains/spheres

(notice the anti-christ reference there) that Schaeffer explained as 1. all Religion, 2. all Family, 3. all Education, 4. all Government, 5. all Media, 6. all Arts and Entertainment, 7. all Business __ This is why Mark Jobe promotes himself as helping God's "Kingdom Come: Unleashing Heaven on Earth" and calls Christ "King Jesus" by which he approves the Pope's purpose of forcing God's Kingdom and then handing it off to the anti-christ and pretending that he is the return of Christ. They want our whole lives, our whole country and our whole future for the Pope and the Jesuit murderers/crusaders toward anti-christ new world order, so let's learn this lesson well so we can kick out the infiltrators/usurpers and remain non-Catholic and pro-Bible __ more about Oikonomia Network and F,W,E in full bio]

- Education: prestigious, historic University of Madras in India, as well as ecumenical Prairie Graduate School, and Doctorate in Jesuit Philosophy (PhD) Jesuit-led Trinity Evangelical Divinity. Prairie Graduate school hosts Anglicans, Christian and Missionary Alliance, Evangelical Free Church, Anabaptist, Wesleyan, and Reformed leadership. Ralph Winter – President of the U.S. Center for World Missions (actually are being used as Catholic Crusades) – is a notably dangerous graduate of Prairie Graduate.

- Sajan Mathews is Professor of Systematic Theology at MBI/MTS as well as Program Director of the Faith, Work, and Economics (FW&E) Initiative with a grant from Kern Foundation (the Generac company owners).

- "Brother Mathews" is Evangelist and Elder of New Life Bible Chapel and his wife "Sister Grace Mathews" was Spiritual Integration Lab facilitator for women's studies at Moody Theological Seminary and is now Coordinator for the Student Wives Fellowship at MBI since 2010. Both Sajan and Grace Mathews have spoken at the Indian Brethren Families Conference.

Chris Brooks [@ Jesuit-led Biola University and @ Jesuit-led Harvard University; Brooks is an Acton Institute Fellow – founded by the Jesuit order of Catholic Paulist Fathers - which is a partner with Faith, Work, and Economics program at Moody Theological Seminary; To explain how powerful the Paulist Fathers are – they were the first Catholic community ever placed in America in the 1700s because they tried to sound Protestant and were in charge of interfaith relationships before the Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity existed; even now they lead pro-life, theological, and interfaith dialogue constantly in religious settings and through their media wing The Broken Halo with Dave Dwyer; the goal of Acton Institute is to write apologetic arguments for the open partnerships between “free-market” global corporations and the networks of inter-religious dialogue to improve global “democracy” __ Brooks is Executive Pastor of Evangel Ministries/Woodside Bible Church after being mentored his whole life by Senior Pastors George Bogle/Doug Schmidt who are top Jesuit leadership in Detroit. Detroit is a powerful Jesuit hub with two Jesuit high-schools, one Jesuit college – University of Detroit-Mercy, a former Chief of Police/Deputy Mayor who is a Jesuit Father, and a special Jesuit church because they already infiltrated all of the others, so the extra Jesuits needed their own Jesuit church. In fact, the former Jesuit Provincial over Chicago-Detroit district of Jesuit command is now President of the entire U.S. Jesuit Conference (more in John Restum bio) __ Brooks is a ministry partner of Jesuit ecumenical Detroit ministry networks such as inner-city trouble youth ecumenical program and community action/prayer programs __ Faculty of Summit Ministries along with Josh McDowell and Moody’s Christopher Yuan, Winfred Neely, and Matt Heard (who was a Moody Pastor of Singles/Evangelism then founded Moody’s sister mega-weed “church” Park Community and now is Lead Pastor in place of Joel Hunter who is a partner and friend of John Fuder’s friend Noel Castellanos – see more in John Fuder bio) __ Lecturer for interfaith spokesperson Ravi Zacharias in his Urban Ministries & in the Centurions Program of Chuck Colson __ Co-director of Detroit Council of 50 and Evangelical Pastors Network (that is what they call it) with Doug Schmidt __ Possibly the connection that brought Jesuit C. S. Lewis Institute to Moody’s Northfield, MA and possibly is the connection that brought Kern Foundation/Acton Institute to Moody Chicago, since he is a fellow of the Acton Institute __ (Re)Founder of Detroit Bible College after collapse of William Tyndale College]

- Education: MA Biola (Bible Institute of Los Angeles) University (which is Moody Bible’s equivalent in L.A.), additional certificates from Jesuit Harvard Institute for Management and Leadership in Education and from Ravi Zacharias’ Oxford Centre for Christian Apologetics (OCCA) at Wycliffe Hall (where Jonathan Armstrong was on theology faculty in 2007).

- Chris Brooks is Moody Theological Seminary Dean of Michigan campus.

John Fuder [@ ecumenical Prairie Graduate School and @ Pepperdine University and @ Jesuit-led Biola University; Fuder is Dean of Global Cohorts for Tommy Lee's business mentorship program called Resource Global. Lee is a partner with Moody's Kern Foundation Faith, Work, & Economics which is a Roman Catholic attempt to conquer American Protestant freedoms through Jesuit leadership over all aspects of human life; Fuder is a top interfaith community organizer in Chicago with Vatican II Council's program called Lausanne Movement; Fuder's Jesuit co-authors and partners are Phil Miglioratti, Tony Danhelka, Joseph Stowell, Gene Crum, John Perkins' Christian Community Development Association (CCDA) leaders, Bill Bright's Campus Crusade leaders, and World Vision Canada __ Miglioratti was director of Erwin Lutzer and Franciscan Father Dimitri Sala's Pastor Network called G11 Gatekeepers and has served as Chief Operating Officer of Lausanne's Mission America Council (now called Table Coalition under Nick Hall – see more in Winfred Neely bio) as well as Co-Chair of the interfaith program called Chicago Explore God 2019 that was used in more than 800 churches (see more in our Chicago-Explore-God-report or in our Northfield-Short-Report point #1) __

John Perkins and Bill Bright were co-founders of the Lausanne Mission America Council with Billy Graham in 1995; Perkins also founded the Christian Community Development Association which is a sister organization to Mark Jobe's New Life Centers (see more in our Mark Jobe report)

___ Fuder's books and networking is endorsed by Steve Roa of U. S. Center for World Missions whose founder Ralph Winters is also a graduate of Prairie Graduate as is Moody's Sajan Mathews who leads Moody's Faith Work and Economics ___ Fuder's students who are fans call him the modern D. L. Moody based only on Fuder's community networking and social programs though he does not preach against sin or organize events to share the gospel or equip others to understand and teach the Bible on practical every-day life ___ Fuder attended (and his book was a resource for) the 2010 Lausanne III Cape Town Commitment which was the third Lausanne covenant since the original in 1974 (the second was in Manila, Philippines 1989) ___ Fuder has co-authored two books with Obama advisor Noel Castellanos, a close friend of Obama's spiritual advisor Joel Hunter who was disgraced by welcoming LGBTQ into Northland Church and then appointed as the new lead pastor his long-time friend in the Orlando spiritual mafia Matt Heard, who is a former Moody Church Singles/Evangelism Pastor; Castellanos was a long-time board member and then President of John Perkins' Christian Community Development Association to control inner-city social ministries with Vatican Lausanne agendas; this is exactly the same work that John Fuder does ___ Fuder is founder of Pray Chicago and Together Chicago which are two ecumenical and interfaith religious programs to assist the Catholics and Jesuits in controlling all of Chicago's churches also through Miglioratti's Pastors Network and Tommy Lee's Resource Global and World Vision, which holds the highest status of United Nations consultation world-wide ___ With all of these notably ecumenical and interfaith partners, how is John Fuder still a professor at Moody, much less being called a modern D. L. Moody?]

- Education: Prairie Bible College (more in Sajan Mathews bio), MA in Religion from Pepperdine U., and Doctorate in Jesuit Philosophy (PhD) from Biola University.

- John Fuder was Professor of Urban Evangelism Studies at Moody Theological Seminary and now is adjunct Professor.

Ashish Varma [M.A. and Ph.D. @ Jesuit-led Wheaton College; Varma's assistant Amar Peterman attended Interfaith Youth Core's Leadership Institute with his approval __ Peterman learned that all of the world's religions were already working together to solve the world's problems and was surprised that Evangelical Christians had the audacity to avoid "helping" by choosing to boycott interfaith work. Obviously Peterman is ignoring the fact that false religions were created to allow sins and evils that Creator God was not condoning. So this "togetherness" is really just avoidance of real truths that would solve problems and instead they double the contradictions and evil power-struggles __ Varma teaching at Moody and having his assistant involved in Interfaith Dialogue carries out Erwin Lutzer's purpose started in Parliament of World Religions 1993 "Unite or Perish" to try to force the Moody Christian family into interfaith partnerships led by Catholics/Jesuits to save the world from global problems that are caused/maintained by the Catholics/Jesuits who then want to be the solution to the very problems they forced

__ Varma was raised Hindu and is still very likely a closet Henotheistic Hindu based on his life and teaching – we thought this even before we knew about Amar Peterman __ Ashish Varma views his teaching to his students as interfaith dialogue based on his own words in his introduction to his students where he says "What really excites me about training the next generation of ministry leaders is the opportunity to creatively wrestle while being faithful with where the church has come from as we engage in new possibilities in the world" – by which he means training interfaith "community" leaders over a new world order __ This also makes sense with why Varma initially said he could not sign the Chicago Biblical inerrancy statement and did not agree with a "correspondence view of truth" until an unnamed Jesuit faculty friend such as Bryan O'Neal explained to him a way of thinking about it that allowed him to say he could agree to sign it (see more in Bryan O'Neal bio and John Jelinek bio) __ Varma is also possibly the unnamed Moody Distance Learning Professor who personally believes that Adam and Eve had soul-less brutish ape-like predecessors whom Cain married – otherwise perhaps it was David Rim who was caught and removed already __ David Rim and Ashish Varma were the two professors that Julie Roys and Rich Weber named in the original questions about faculty who did not believe the Bible]

- Education: Two M.A.'s in Theological Studies and History of Christianity and a Doctorate in Jesuit Philosophy (Ph.D.) from Jesuit-led Wheaton College.

- Ashish Varma is Moody Professor of Theology (Philosophy, Systematic Theology, and Apologetics) at Moody Bible Institute with Amar Peterman as his assistant. Timothy Heyward and Amar Peterman are the Moody students who connected with Interfaith Student Council and are hoping to raise awareness of the need for Interfaith cooperation to solve the world's problems caused by the abuses and lack of moral truth of the very same networks with Jesuit and Roman Catholic guidance world-wide since the 1500's. This is following Jesuit Erwin Lutzer's example in attending the 1993 Parliament of World Religions whose theme was "Unite or Perish", because satanists increase/maintain the world's problems to discredit God as being unwilling or unable to help (pretending that God does not exist or else is the source of evil – something that Jesuit Lutzer also promotes in his expose about Hitler) until the world agrees that God seems as bankrupt as all of man's false religions.

Rosalie De Rosset [@ ecumenical Bryan College where her parents were on faculty/staff and @ Jesuit-led Trinity Evangelical and M.A. in English at Northeastern Illinois University and Doctorate in Jesuit Philosophy of Language, Literacy, and Rhetoric from University of Illinois at Chicago; Rosalie De Rosset is a bigger problem than the Christians think she is – like a queen hornet trying to establish a hive – Rosset has the longest term as faculty member @ Moody Bible Institute – since 1969, which shows that she is the most consistent partner in Erwin Lutzer’s Jesuit take-over at Moody. Rosset has seen all of the steps along the way since back when Lutzer was still going through Jesuit philosophy training at Loyola University and before he was a pastor at The Moody Church. And Rosset knows all the secrets of MBI/MTS faculty/ leadership/ students through the decades and she hides the truth of the Jesuit attacks and sins and crimes with the skills of European royalty/ Jesuit Mothers like the satanist Queen Elizabeth II does for her Anglican Jesuit kingdom that has partnered for centuries in the Vatican’s modern Crusades (Jesuit operations through colonialism and sharing Freemason enlightenment only to the leaders who will partner with them) until the sun never set on Britain’s “kingdom” which it has ruled on behalf of Rome – a kingdom which secretly still includes America. For example, Queen Elizabeth’s personal Jesuit Chaplain John Stott was co-founder of Lausanne International with Billy Graham to control international missions under the Vatican operatives. On a local scale in the Moody Bible family, Rosalie’s role has been to weave stories and social networks on campus that make the Catholic Jesuit attack seem like unintended consequences or even just coincidences which has somehow worked since the Jesuits were never really caught and removed by the alumni and friends of the Moody evangelical community until now it is just starting to come to light.

___ This is the truth behind why Lutzer stepped down from The Moody Church – his Jesuits are now getting caught (which he must avoid at all costs) and he is pledged to serve a higher international Jesuit role in the threats they are making against the United States and our Christian missionary work if we refuse to submit to Roman Catholic authority in control of our government. Rosset has served the Jesuits almost perfectly in guarding all of Erwin Lutzer’s friends around campus ___ Now Pamela MacRae is being personally mentored this year by Jill Briscoe – who is a 40-year Jesuit partner of Billy Graham on his trustee boards etc – in order to take Rosset’s role when it comes time that she must retire ___ Rosset is a Gifted For Leadership writer and Editorial Advisor for Billy Graham's Christianity Today

___ If it wasn't clear that Rosset has top-level Jesuit social/public relations director status at Moody based on her education alone, it is certainly clear when you see all of the Jesuits and Jesuit-partners that she recommends and reprints ___ Rosset is Senior Editor for Moody Classics which includes her reprints of Jesuit Catholic priest Henri Nouwen and pre-Jesuit Catholic Fathers Thomas A. Kempis and St. Augustine. Thomas Kempis laid the groundwork for the Spiritual Exercises so that Jesuit order's founder Ignatius Loyola studied his writings consistently in designing his governing and philosophies which then inspired Heinrich Himmler (nephew of a prominent Jesuit Canon at the Court of Bavaria) to found the Nazi Gestapo based on these principles of the Jesuit order ___ St. Augustine laid the groundwork for Islam to take over in Africa and the Middle East by spreading hostility against the Jewish people and by organizing international Catholic councils to argue which doctrines would best control the regions. Muhammad, the founder of Islam 180 years later, studied St. Augustine's writings and was personally mentored by Catholic priests and married the wealthy merchant cousin of one of those priests ___ Henri Nouwen was trained by Jesuits in the Hague (Netherlands seat of government which now houses the International Criminal Court), then became scholar-in-residence at the Pope's Pontifical North American College in Rome, Italy, and was a Fellow at the Ecumenical Institute and served as professor also at Notre Dame and at Jesuit-led Universities Yale and Harvard. Nouwen is lauded for his frequent speaking to Anglican and Evangelical audiences evangelizing for the Pope, which is exactly what Jesuits do in peace-time in any Protestant country ___ Rosset also recommends works by other prominent Jesuit spokespeople such as Eric Metaxas, C. S. Lewis, Francis Schaeffer, J. I. Packer, Os Guinness, James Dobson, and Chuck Colson. In summation, Rosalie De Rosset is an expert spokesperson for the Jesuit take-over of Moody and America and she is skilled as a cover-up agent and United Nations Change Agent]

- Education: ecumenical (William Jennings) Bryan College, Northeastern Illinois State University, University of Illinois at Chicago, and Jesuit-led Trinity Evangelical Divinity.

- Rosalie De Rosset has just celebrated 50 years at Moody Bible Institute since 1969 as Professor of Literature, English, and Homiletics. Literature is a broad path to every evil fiction and teaching in world history.

Brian Kammerzelt [@ Jesuit-led Trinity International University; Former Professor of Media and Society at known Jesuit Loyola University ___ Self-proclaimed “Romance” expert who allows all types of sexual sins and talk other than assault ___ Chair of Communications at MBI and a dangerously skilled Jesuit Psychologist who diligently avoids calling anything sin and promotes human-centered philosophy for success/self-preservation as the focus of most of his work ___ Believes in interfaith cooperation for a nation built on shared morality since he says religion is the foundation of morality – meaning new world order. The plan for the new order is to reject separation of personal and public life in attempt to make an openly religious bully system to enforce “morality” except that each religion has its own “morality” to enforce in its segregated region or group. Those groups are led by interfaith leaders who can partner with other faiths in implementing new religious rules/ social changes/ carbon-tax rules/ health-eugenics rules/ segregating rules/ digital data and security rules/ police abuses/ and so many other United Nations-appointed hypocritical rules they intend to keep making and imposing worse still until they control literally everything about a person’s life ___ Legacy Chicago Minister with specialty emphasis on his Jesuit theology of communications and interfaith culture ___ Contributing author to Charisma Magazine’s younger partner Relevant Magazine ___ Signer on at least one ecumenical statement on the Clean Air Act and Mercury air pollution ___ Spoke at Chapel at Jesuit-run Judson University

___ Kammerzelt says in his articles that he has always been a confidante to many friends after they have been in immoral situations, but mostly only admits to knowing stories involving friends who were assaulted. Kammerzelt also says he was the friend of a popular guy in school who assaulted other youth and was sentenced to juvenile detention. Kammerzelt says he didn’t know that was happening but that he and the friend always went together places to meet girls and that people questioned him because of it. We assume that Kammerzelt’s telling of these stories is his way of inviting victims of assault and remorseful students who were involved in immoral activity as well as “snitches” to come talk to him, because he will know how to cover-up sins and protect the rebellion and minimize the information to “help” them and be a “friend” to them. This is an interesting choice of leadership positioning on campus since there has been an undercurrent/ underground network (doing their worst activities off-campus mostly) of homosexuality and immoral activities present at Moody campus since at least the early 1980’s with a secret approval from the leadership. There are also clear testimonies of Moody students who are offended by the crude joking and conversations etc that are happening around campus frequently. We are convinced that Kammerzelt knows these activities and “helps” hide them as a “friend” to those who confess to him or tell him their concerns. This is the true work of a old-school Jesuit confessor (in Europe or among royalty) – who receives confessions on behalf of the Catholic Church and then doles out methods of penance and absolution; they are known from history to be very disgusting. Kammerzelt’s promoting/enticing students into sexual sins is a strong tool of the devil to ruin Moody Bible institute; sexually perverted Bible teachers are strongly condemned in 2 Peter 2 and Jude ___ Kammerzelt is a second-tier Jesuit partner to collect data for Rosset, and there are definitely other professors who fill this role also]

Gregg Quiggle [Jesuit myth-maker and “Official Historian” for Moody Bible Institute on the Life of Dwight Lyman Moody; Quiggle is B.A. Jesuit Psychologist from Jesuit-led Wheaton, also has M.A. from both Jesuit-led Wheaton and openly Jesuit Marquette University in Church/Theological History __ Quiggle believes that Vatican II and the Jesuit-led Charismatic movement (founded in Rome in 1906) were helpful for dialogue between Catholic and Protestant leaders. It works for them that both movements confuse God’s truth __ Quiggle promotes/lauds Billy Graham’s and John Stott’s Lausanne movement as if it were based on Dwight Moody’s example of ministering in England/Scotland with Anglican ministers. But actually Stott was personal Anglican Jesuit Chaplain to the highest satanist in Britain – Queen Elizabeth II and Billy Graham was personal friend of Pope John Paul II (who called him sincerely his “brother”) since 1977 when Bill Bright and Billy Graham partnered in Krakow with then Archbishop Karol Wojtyla and Graham filled his pulpit on the day that Wojtyla was appointed Pope John Paul II

__ Quiggle likes to serve as fake Protestant opposition in media and debates with Jesuits/Catholic “evangelists” in order to give them a voice on Protestant Evangelical platforms to open the door to interfaith dialogue as Erwin Lutzer is doing. “Evangelists” from the Roman Catholic religion are just preaching forced submission to the Pope. One example of this is with Julie Roys’ former show at Moody called Up For Debate in which she welcomed Devin Rose of St. Joseph’s Vanguard one time where Quiggle and Roys hesitantly agreed that his speech sounds almost Evangelical “born-again” __ Jesuit Quiggle pretends – just as Jesuit Erwin Lutzer is also doing – that St. Thomas Aquinas-inspired C. S. Lewis Institute (which is led by Roman Catholics and many Jesuits, Anglicans, and partners of Lausanne, Rockefellers, and satanic Fellowship Foundation in D.C.) on Moody property restores

Moody's Biblical foundation there ___ Considers Carl F. H. Henry to be a hero and was glad to meet his son Congressman Paul Henry who recommended that Quiggle teach an apologetics course at Moody open to the public

___ In Quiggle's Ph.D., he makes a word-smith's effort to reshape Moody's work as a social program rather than just gospel preaching for example he states that Moody "never fully embraced the Calvinistic goal of a righteous republic" and "Thus from Moody's perspective, political or structural reforms divorced from evangelism were ultimately doomed to fail". In another example, rather than recognize that Moody got his theology from the Bible and talking with God, Quiggle suggest Moody's theology came from personal circumstances, experiences, and temperament. Quiggle also quotes authors who frame Moody's social views as if discussions about industrialization, immigration, and urbanization were against the gospel and that Moody's purpose of ministry was reactionary to socio-economics. We are absolutely confident that Moody's focus was on the gospel and ministry perhaps to a neglect of some social topics, but to frame him as reactionary or pridefully self-centered or ignorant is quite hurtful. And certainly, Moody was not agreeable to building a false kingdom on earth as if it were for God – as the Catholics and Jesuits like Quiggle pretend it is.]

- Education: Jesuit Psychology (BA) Wheaton College and an MA from both Wheaton College and openly-Jesuit Marquette University in Church and Theological History. Quiggle earned a PhD at Open University in U.K. with a Doctoral Thesis on the subject of Dwight Moody's Urban Social Vision which he sees closer to Mark Jobe's and Lausanne's vision which is nothing like D. L. Moody's actual gospel work.

- Gregg Quiggle is Professor of Theology and Dean of Moody Study Abroad program. Quiggle has taught at Moody Bible for 32 years.

- Gregg Quiggle is the Official Historian and spokesperson on the life of D. L. Moody for MBI for example in the book A Legacy of Preaching which includes Catholic "Fathers" - St. Augustine and St. Francis of Assisi, Jesuit founder of the first attempt at World Council of Churches Deitrich Bonhoeffer, Four Square Pentecostal founder Aimee Semple McPherson, Catholic-led Moral Majority leader Jerry Falwell, and Jesuit 33 degree Freemason "Evangelist" Billy Graham and Anglican Chaplain/advisor to Queen Elizabeth II Mr. John Stott CBE who are both founders of the Jesuit Lausanne Movement for Vatican II Council partnership (Moody's Jonathan Armstrong also contributed a chapter on the life of Ephrem the Syrian Deacon and mystic hymnographer who wrote against heresies).

Bryan O'Neal [M.A., Ph.D. @ Purdue University; Associate Provost which is a role that puts him in charge of the spiritual foundation and Biblical accuracy of the entire of Moody Bible Institute teaching, but as we show here, he does not believe God's Word and even defends Muslim's beliefs as an equal voice to historic Christian theology on knowledge of God's thinking __ Replaced James Spencer as Dean of Moody Distance Learning so that Spencer could work on the Northfield Mission project; nominated Jonathan Armstrong to be future Director of Aqueduct Project in the planning (Dallas Gathering) conversations with Brad Smith of Bakke Graduate University (Ray Bakke mentors Mark Jobe) and Darrell Bock of Dallas Theological and Manfred Kohl who is a leader of Lausanne Movement since before the 1966 Berlin event started the international project __ Debater with prominent Atheist Dan Barker at Loyola University and Unitarian Universalist platforms in Chicago and Florida

__ Debates also with Chicago Tribune's Eric Zorn articles – in which O'Neal particularly stated in 2014 discussion that the flood could be "figurative or mythical". The primary reasons O'Neal gave for why he couldn't agree that it is mythical is that it would raise the question of why would Christians tell stories to scare people into good behavior and secondly because he says Jesus and New Testament writers "seem to regard it as historical". At a late point in the email exchanges, O'Neal answers Zorn's question about whether God knew "that his first iteration of mankind would go so wrong that he'd have to summarily destroy... life on earth?" O'Neal's response is "Yes. At least I think so. I think the large majority of historic and contemporary Christian theology agrees with me, but I recognize that there is a minority voice in opposition. And of course, I don't speak for Jews and Muslims who also confess the accuracy of the Biblical text." This was still touted by Moody staff as a strong defense of the Bible being the inerrant, inspired Word of God

__ O'Neal does not believe the Word of God to be infallible and given and preserved to us by God, and he covers for so many other faculty who think similarly saying that the accusations about MBI allowing faculty members who deny the authority of the Word of God are "false. All of our faculty affirm inerrancy annually when they sign their annual contract. It's explicit... There is no drift. It is always possible that an individual within an institution does drift or lean, and then that has to be examined and corrected." __ So O'Neal gets all faculty to sign the inerrancy statement by which all faculty who do not believe in God's Word are found lying to the Holy Spirit __ But then just to be sure this lie sounds believable, O'Neal co-wrote Standing Firm: The Doctrinal Commitments of Moody Bible Institute with John Jelinek who is Interim Provost __ They also added an additional factor to confuse everything by now requiring faculty to sign onto the ecumenical Jesuit-written Chicago Biblical inerrancy statement which O'Neal said is only one definition of inerrancy which is an admission that he is allowing faculty their personal loopholes __ It is very telling that O'Neal could consider Muslims as defenders of the "accuracy of the Biblical text". That tells us everything we need to know, since the Quran actually rewrites the flood account and also the creation account in at least three ways (besides many other passages of Scripture that it rewrites). The Quran says that God told Noah to take more than the eight named. And regarding Creation, the Quran says God used a sexual element in the making of Adam; the Quran created a lie about God requiring all the angels to bow before Adam and that the angel "Iblis" disobeyed (a lie which was adopted by Kabbalah Judaism), and that God creates all souls and introduces Himself to them up there and makes them swear that they know who He is and that they understand that He will judge them in the after-life before He places them into a body on earth. Furthermore, in dozens of places, the Quran accuses the Jews and Christians (meaning Catholics) of changing the Scriptures to serve their own interests (and so the Quran retells the story with their alteration from the True God-given Scriptures), thereby repudiating the accuracy of the Biblical Text – contrary to what O'Neal has said. If that doesn't do enough to show O'Neal to be an interfaith spiritual overseer (provost), there's probably plenty more to see or hear

___ Former Chairman and Vice-Chairman of Evangelical Theological Society Midwest and has networked in ecumenical conversations with Jesuits such as from Loyola ___ Presbyterian Church planter and friend of Mid-America Reformed Seminary staff Alan Strange ___ Member of 2019-2023 Commission on Accreditation of the Association for Biblical Higher Education, nominated by James Spencer (more in James Spencer bio) – this is the accreditation program requiring Jesuit Spiritual Formation to be taught at Moody Bible Institute ___ There is actually far more on all of this in the full bio with the quotes from the very long conversations etc.]

Bryan Litfin [@ Freemason/Jesuit-led Dallas Theological and @ University of Virginia; Son of Duane Litfin, a popular former President of Wheaton College who is a close partner with Moody in conferences and community events. Duane has Jesuit Doctorates from Purdue University (where we got Bryan O’Neal from) and Jesuit-led Oxford University in Britain. Duane was previously a Professor at Free-mason/Jesuit-led Dallas Theological Seminary after being a student there in classes with Jesuit Erwin Lutzer who mentored him in Homiletics class of Dr. Haddon Robinson. Both Duane and Bryan Litfin were contributors to Proclaiming Jesus: Essays on the Centrality of Christ in the Church in Honor of Joseph M. Stowell (who was also a student at the time of Lutzer and Litfin at DTS and knew them a little and Stowell has also served on the Board of Trustees for Wheaton College)

__ Bryan Litfin is a “Protestant Patristics Scholar” which is the study of almost entirely Catholic Church Fathers. Litfin is author of Getting To Know The Church Fathers 2007 book for Evangelicals to accept and get used to the “authority” of Catholic Church Fathers, though he avoids the history that shows all of the deadly threats and torture, Inquisitions and heresy hunts, and constant oppression. By doing this, Litfin joins his hand in the interfaith dialogue that the Roman Catholic Church is leading as he tries to convince Protestants that most of our beliefs from the Bible are held in common with the Vatican authorities. But he knows quite well that the Vatican adjusts/adapts to whatever religion it is trying to infiltrate and control for worse plans of the devil. The Scripture clearly says that it should be no surprise that the devil’s worst partners pretend to be the best angels of light/truth/honesty, since that is what the devil himself does. In this book Litfin says (for example) “We are small figures inevitably carried forward by the weight of the holy catholic church, whose sails are filled by the mighty wind of the Holy Spirit”

__ Litfin was the professional host of the “Evangelical and Catholic Ecumenical Dialogue” on Moody Bible campus in 2013 with Erwin Lutzer’s close friend John Armstrong from Wheaton College and Jesuit Father Robert Barron – a Thomas Aquinas Catholic scholar __ Litfin is a member of The Gospel Coalition which is a Lausanne Vatican II partner __ Litfin was inspired to write religious fiction by Catholic J. R. R. Tolkien (among other similar Jesuit inspirations) who is one of the most subtly anti-semitic and anti-christ voices speaking for satan that has ever been accepted by “Christians” as harmless fiction as he entirely rewrote the prophecies of Ezekiel and Revelation to make the anti-christ a hero]

Marcus Johnson [@ Jesuit-led Trinity Evangelical Divinity School and @ Jesuit-partnered University of Toronto; Deacon of The Episcopal Church of the Church of England ___ Apologist for Roman Catholic dogmas/emphases, Catholic Catechism, Vatican II Council rewrites, and for using historical narrative to shape most disagreements between the Pope and true Christians as old and unnecessary ___ Laying the ground-work for interfaith dialogue ___ Writes arguments to shape future interfaith dialogue with Vatican ___ Johnson liberally quotes from Thomas Torrance who was an organizer for World Council of Churches and Reformed-Catholic dialogue ___ Theologian friend with many people who are artificially changing the conversation for Jesuit Roman Catholic benefit to sneak in among us pretending that the Catholic “Church” really did change their heart of unbelief and antagonism toward Christians ___ Marcus was raised Roman Catholic, then transitioned to Lutheran then settled in The Episcopal Church – of The Church of England and is a Episcopal Deacon etc. ___ Johnson has spoken at events alongside Episcopal scholars including his church’s Rector Amy Peeler who is Assistant Professor of New Testament at Jesuit-led Wheaton College

___ Marcus Johnson writing on behalf of the Calvin Theological Journal wrote a review of the book Is The Reformation Over? By Mark Noll and Carolyn Nystrom in which they argue that the theological differences have reduced between the Catholic Church and Reformed Protestants and no longer involve discussions of how to be saved, but only relate to how the church functions. In Johnson’s review, he says, “Noll and Nystrom have provided a clear, cogent, and evenhanded presentation of their topic, particularly to be commended for its attention to the historical circumstances that shape religious antagonism... This book is recommended as an admirable example of a well-balanced, reasonable, historically sensitive, and sympathetic call for ecumenical engagement and appreciation.” In other words, Johnson believes it is time to figure out how to reverse the Reformation, as we will show through his other writings and endorsements and partnerships.

___ Johnson and Clark begin their book with their inspiration from John Williamson Nevin. John Nevin is the close colleague and defender of Philip Schaff in their Mercersburg Theology who agreed with Roman Catholic doctrines such as infant baptism (as a step toward salvation), “spiritual real participation” presence of Christ consumed with the sacraments (as taught by St. Augustine and Martin Luther, though not a belief in substance change of the sacraments), the principle of church authority given to Peter to be expressed through a Federal or Confederate Union of “Christian” denominations (though he didn’t quite agree to Papal succession from Peter), and a mystic union between Christ and all His followers toward a Catholic human kingdom (though he supposedly didn’t believe that flesh and blood could inherit the kingdom of God). Philip Schaff spoke at the 1893 Parliament of World Religions promoting these teachings from a Protestant Presbyterian point of view in hopes of reuniting with the Catholic Church if Pope Leo XIII would reverse papal infallibility. In fact, Schaff was an early endorser promoting voice for the Parliament of World Religions which General Committee was Chaired by fellow Presbyterian John Henry Barrows of First Presbyterian Church in Chicago.

___ There are many interesting aspects of this Parliament. First of all, D. L. Moody refused to attend the Parliament because to do so would suggest that all religions are approximately the same and can walk together toward world solutions because they are agreed. Dwight Moody instead acquired as many preachers of the gospel as he could find to preach to the guests of the World's Columbian Exhibition (Chicago World's Fair), among which the Parliament of World Religions was included as one of many congresses/events. So Moody saw all of this false religion being preached to Chicago and saw the need to preach the true gospel. But Schaff not only attended and spoke at the Parliament but was also a promoter of the event and spent time with the Catholic delegates etc.]

Toronto School of Theology (University of St. Michael's College) whose partner graduate school Regis College is the theological study center for Society of Jesuits in Canada. Moody Professor John Clark also graduated along with Marcus Johnson at University of St. Michael's College.

- Marcus Johnson is MBI Assistant Professor of Theology whose Teaching Assistant in 2009-2010 Paul C. Maxwell (who was also teaching assistant to Brian Kammerzelt) made the September 2018 statement/prediction to pave the way for Dr. Mark Jobe being presented as the champion to rescue Moody Bible Institute.

Inland Empire School of the Bible founded by Greater Spokane Association of Evangelicals in partnership with Multnomah School of the Bible __ Lewis is likely the contact or is close friends with the contact that brought about a library partnership between openly Jesuit Gonzaga University and Whitworth University and Moody – Spokane as still listed on Moody’s website under Other Library Catalogs __ Other programs at Spokane campus over which Lewis is Dean include partnership with National Association of Evangelicals’ World Relief and Red Cross __ Lewis was three-year Dean of The Global Proclamation Academy in concert with Freemason-led Dallas Theological Seminary for Global Theological Education which led to the partnership between Jonathan Armstrong and Bryan O’Neal in Aqueduct Project with DTS and Lausanne leaders (more in Jonathan Armstrong bio and Bryan O’Neal bio). Daniel and Amy Koehler [Representatives at Moody to the ecumenical Jesuit-led Chicago Area Theological Library Association; Moody Archives Researchers __ Amy is Moody Distance Learning Librarian]

They are also both involved in the Moody partnership of Crowell Library with the Chicago Area Theological Library Association (CATLA) which you can see on Moody Bible Institute Other Library Catalogues. There are likely other librarians doing this networking, since there are One of the Koehler's specific tasks (that they are allowed to tell us about) is working with Jesuit Billy Graham Center Archives to digitalize all of D. L. Moody's history for online readability. But the purpose/founding of this program is an ecumenical library sharing program for students to access wide sources of information. It is one of the major programs set by Carl F. H. Henry and Harold Ockenga for establishing secret leadership partnerships with top Jesuit networks toward rejoining all American Protestant education under the Roman Catholic Vatican propaganda pathways. The Members of the CATLA are (Jesuit-led) Wheaton College and (Jesuit) Billy Graham Center, (Jesuit) DePaul University, (Rockefeller) University of Chicago, (Jesuit) Loyola University, (Rockefeller) Northwestern University/United Library, Roosevelt University (all six of these first ones are Jesuit-led and/or Rockefeller built/funded), Chicago Public Library, Northern Baptist Theological Seminary, Harold Washington College, McCormick Theological Seminary (Presbyterian partner with Jesuit DePaul U. and Lutheran Seminary and Rockefeller University of Chicago), (Jesuit-led) Trinity International University, University of Illinois Chicago, North Park University (John Fuder's friend and former Moody Professor of Bible Dwight Perry is President), and Newberry Library. Moody also partners with the British Library which is the largest national library in the world. Moody partners with the UNESCO-tasks ecumenical association of European national Theological Library organizations (BETH).

Now let's come back to Chicago and talk specifically about the founding of the Chicago Area Theological Library Association (CATLA). CATLA started with planning in 1960's and three other programs, the Association of Chicago Theological Schools and the Librarians' Council of the Chicago Cluster of Theological Schools established in 1970 and the Chicago Theological Institute established 1969 partnering secretly together attempting to connect Roman Catholic, Jewish, Catholic Eastern Orthodox, and Protestant Christian networks of sharing information. This program was sponsored by the Lilly Endowment which is known for funding research in dangerous psychological experiments and utopian societies like the Shakerstown Pleasant Hill Kentucky and their psych drug experimenting and New Harmony/State of Indiana program and inter-faith hospitality partnerships of United Way as well as ecumenical forced programs such as the Association of Theological Schools and other Rockefeller Brothers partnerships since 1964. In 1980-1981, the Association of Theological Schools (Rockefeller built agency which accredits Moody Theological Seminary and is requiring Jesuit Spiritual Formation which is written/taught by William Thrasher) used their accreditation visit to partner with Chicago Cluster of Theological Schools study to figure out how to require the schools to work together. This same year, the Chicago Jesuit School of Theology dissolved to give way to strengthening Loyola U. and the Jesuits refocused on St. Louis University (an official Jesuit institution founded in 1818) and partnered more closely with the Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley as well as Jesuit Loyola University and their Arrupe House Jesuit Community (Retreat House) which in May of this year (2019) graduated its inaugural class (from 2015 with four year degrees) of the world's first Jesuit Community College for a less-expensive Jesuit education to entice a broader audience to participate in Jesuit games against Chicago (since non-Catholics and even uninitiated poorer Catholics are not aware of how evil and cruel and hidden the global conquer tactics of Jesuits are and just tend to follow what they are told). The result of all of this is intended to slant information (by hiding past aggressions/abuses against true Christians and divisive splits to conquer all churches and forcing/mass-distribution of new groups of blatant and intentional false doctrines rather than repenting of them) toward ecumenical agreements by intentionally ignoring false doctrines and focusing on similarity of doctrines only. (see one more paragraph of details on partnership with University of Tübingen in Full Jesuit Faculty bio)

Doug Hastings [not faculty – Moody Radio Vice-President __ Serving at least two terms as Board of Directors at National Religious Broadcasters (notice admittedly ecumenical Religious and not Christian Broadcasters, because there are so many large cults and Freemason voices in the mix). NRB is recently caught having lied about their financial condition and using the Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability (ECFA was founded by Billy Graham's network of friends) to hide its dishonesty and corruption. It was such a scandal that it required ECFA President Dan Busby to resign just a few days ago __ The 75th Anniversary of NRB held in 2019 in Anaheim, CA was an ecumenical interfaith party which welcomed such strange speakers together as John MacArthur (Grace To You and Master's Seminary), Rick and Kay Warren (Purpose Driven false gospel), Roma Downey and Mark Burnett (Roman Catholic mystics who wrote the Bible Miniseries and are in leadership of the Roman Catholic Shrine in Washington D.C. called the Museum of the Bible), Bobby Schuller (grandson of Robert Schuller), Greg Laurie (Harvest International who is trying to revive the Jesus Movement), Kirk Cameron (Left Behind and Saving Christmas), Alex Kendrick (Sherwood films like Fireproof), Tony Evans and his daughter Priscilla Shirer, Charles Stanley (In Touch), Mike Huckabee (Arkansas Baptist Governor assisting the North American Security and Prosperity Partnership with Mexico and Canada) – needless to say some of these people would have serious credibility issues with their followers if it were known they were all working together (which they are, but they can't let you understand that), so some changed plans (such as John MacArthur of course). But Hastings has no problem supporting the Jesuits' conglomerate of religious broadcasters and giving and receiving awards at their event.]

Winfred Neely [@ Jesuit-led Wheaton College and Jesuit-led Trinity Evangelical Divinity School and in progress of an advanced Research Ph.D. at the old Jesuit-hub at University of Bristol ___ Neely served as Teaching Pastor at Lawndale Community which is the church that co-founded the Christian Community Development Association with John Perkins – a sister organization to Mark Jobe’s New Life Centers (see more in our Mark Jobe report). Perkins is also co-founder of the Vatican’s Lausanne Movement Mission America Council with Bill Bright and Billy Graham – all three were mentored personally by Jack MacArthur and Henrietta Mears who co-founded the Hollywood Christian Club that made Billy Graham famous. John Perkins was actually mentored and funded by John MacArthur’s (of Grace To You and Master’s Seminary) dad Jack MacArthur as well as by Billy Graham in the civil rights’ leadership and in Freemason lodges which is where John MacArthur admits he and Perkins were on the night that Martin Luther King Jr. was assassinated (in the NAACP office located there). Billy Graham was a 33 degree Mason according to an old printed edition of the Free-mason Bible and Graham was personal friend to Pope John Paul II since when Bill Bright and Graham worked together in Krakow where Karol Wojtyla (Pope John Paul II) was resident Cardinal. Graham even filled Wojtyla’s pulpit the week that he became Pope. And John MacArthur is proud fifth generation “pastor” and boasts of his great grandfather Fullerton who was a Rosicrucian Grand Master Mason in Prince Edward Island. MacArthur also boasts of being a cousin of General Douglas MacArthur who was also a 33 degree Mason and Shriner. Even after all of Billy Graham’s talk about people just following the best light they have in their false religion and still getting into heaven without knowing Christ, John MacArthur still defended his family friend saying, “He preaches the true gospel”

___ Neely was invited to speak or did speak at the Lausanne Conference in the National Mall, D.C. called Together 2016 ___ Neely has spoken at conferences recently alongside John MacArthur, Al Mohler (MacArthur’s Baptist friend), Charlie Dates, Paul Nyquist (Moody President), Jack Hayford (life-long friend of John MacArthur who is a Four-Square Gospel preacher), and at Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary and also in their Distinguished Ockenga Preaching Series ___ Neely wrote a book called How To Overcome Worry which he promoted on the official Jesuit-order Paulist Fathers media called The Broken Halo with Father Dave Dwyer ___ Neely commented on one of Julie Roys blogs about scandals of leadership and decided to cover for Paul Nyquist and COO Steve Mogck during the “financial crisis” which really is just the visible effects of the Jesuit take-over ___ Neely is now a leader in professional media training with Theovision International and HCJB Global and Wycliffe Translators in several countries]

Samuel Naaman [@ ecumenical Jesuit Chongshin University and Bachelor in Social Work (Psychology) from University of Sind and @ Asbury Theological Seminary and @ ecumenical Asian Center for Theology; Worked for Franklin Graham's Operation Christmas Child in Pakistan __ Graham's Pakistan network saw interfaith potential in Naaman and sent him to South Korea for theological training then for a Doctorate in Missions. However, most missions leadership at the doctoral level are focused not on gospel work, but on interfaith dialogue which almost sounds the same except that it focuses on AGREEMENT with LEADERS of other faiths rather than sharing the gospel to the actual people in other religions/countries who have not had the chance to hear the gospel) __ Naaman was Professor of World Missions and Evangelism which title has now been changed to Professor of Intercultural Studies – do you see the difference? Now they are being more honest about what he really does.

__ As further solid evidence of Naaman's interfaith work, we noticed the partnerships and activities of his leaders in the South Asian Friendship Center (SAFC). Naaman is President of SAFC – a community organization that besides its "Christian" format to reach the Hindu, Muslim, Sikh (combination of Hindu/Muslim) neighbors is also being used for shaping Chicago's interfaith leaders __ Chris Castaldo, Naaman's friend who spoke at the 2016 SAFC annual banquet has for seventeen years led at College

Church on Wheaton College campus and as director of Wheaton College Ministry of Gospel Renewal at the Billy Graham Center devoted to “equipping evangelicals for constructive engagement with Catholic friends and loved ones” as a former Catholic himself. Castaldo has authored in three books about Catholics completing the Reformation and reuniting as One Catholic Church, as well as many writings in popular publications like Billy Graham’s Christianity Today and Lausanne-partner The Gospel Coalition. Castaldo also co-authored in a book with Francis Beckwith (Catholic former President of Evangelical Theological Society), Brad S. Gregory (Roman Catholic), Lyle Dorsett (Anglican), Wilbur Ellsworth (Eastern Orthodox), and Dr. Robert Plummer from The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. The book was endorsed by Bryan Litfin (who led the Catholic dialogue on Moody campus) and Mark Noll (friend of Marcus Johnson who believes the disagreements between Protestants and Catholics are not on salvation issues, but only on right of authority in the church – see more in Marcus Johnson bio). Another book written about what divides and united Catholics with Protestants was endorsed by Ed Stetzer (Pastor at Moody Church), Gerald Hiestand (CPT Fellowships – see more in Eric Redmond bio), and Bryan Litfin. Castaldo’s book called Holy Ground: Walking With Jesus As a Former Catholic was endorsed by even more prominent voices including Norm Geisler, J. I. Packer, Lon Allison, Kevin DeYoung, and Philip Ryken (Wheaton President).

Further into leadership of Interfaith partnerships, Naaman’s SAFC Director of Hindu Ministries since 2007 is Anil Yesudas who has been organizing interfaith dialogue networks between Hindus and Christians since well before 2004, and has performed regular (weekly or bi-weekly or even more often sometimes) dialogue at Kalamazoo Hindu Temple and Vivekananda Retreat Center at least as recently as 2010. It is pretty much impossible that he didn’t know something of the problems Yesudas was creating since Yesudas refers to Christ as Lord Shri Jesus which is the Hindu sacred word for receiving purity and power from deities and denotes their connection to the Mother Goddess. It is doubtful that Naaman ever bothered to know what activities Yesudas was leading especially since he was born in Pakistan with a sizeable Hindu population

___ Additionally, there is clear testimony from someone who was frequently involved (or worked) at the center that Naaman has shut down much of the regular activities and has moved the center and is just using his new center activities as a fund-raising gimmick. There is no open-daily Christian hospitality center anymore like the coffee-house used to be and now the only events are scheduled meetups at the new location. They reduced the tutoring from 45 children to 6 or 7, and Naaman moved to a new home away from the community. Obviously, with any gospel preacher there would be a possibility that he was loudly rejected and chased away by the people of false religions. But that is not what is happening here, since Naaman was attracting and training interfaith leaders and even the activities before sound like worldly parties to attract the people of the world and not so much about gospel or ministry. But at least there was apparently ministry before. Naaman has either gotten caught by the Christians in his interfaith networking or else was getting caught for something else and decided to scale back. ___ Naaman partners with Jesuit-led Wheaton campus College Church and Lon Allison’s Wheaton Bible Church (more in Andrew Schmutzer bio)]

John Koessler [former faculty; Education @ Jesuit-led Trinity International University; follower of Catholic Thomas Aquinas and Catholic Josef Pieper doctrines; partner with Billy Graham network leaders; has spoken at C. S. Lewis Institute __ Follower of Jesuit spirituality in Thomas Aquinas (Catholic scholar of “Church” Fathers) and Josef Pieper (German Catholic philosopher) and longs for a rejoining of the Catholic Church “sacred mysteries” and “scent of holiness” in unity with the Protestant Church “consistently positive” “hope of the cross” and “chipper” “business”-like approach to ministry __ In 2000, Koessler co-authored How To Preach A Sermon/Biblical Preaching with Haddon Robinson (former twelve-year president of ecumenical and emergent Denver Seminary and nineteen year faculty at Dallas Theological and ecumenicist Harold John Ockenga Distinguished Professor of Biblical Preaching at Billy-Graham-built Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary) and Steven Albrecht (Jesuit-trained at openly Jesuit Creighton University and a web team leader at Moody Bible Institute) __ Koessler has spoken for the C. S. Lewis Institute in 2018 at Delta Farm; the same institution that is setting up a Study Center on Moody Northfield campus.]

- Education: Wayne State University, two degrees from Biblical Seminary, and a doctorate from Jesuit-led Trinity International University.
