This report is Part 7 of the “Project to Restore Moody Bible Institute to its Roots and Foundation”. This seventh part looks at several leaders and seeks to inform the Moody family, alumni, faculty, donors and prayer partners and to warn them about leaders who show by pattern as not believing the Bible and working against it. If you missed the previous parts, you can find them here:

Many years ago, this FEDBP team started to notice key errors and false teachings in the “Left Behind Series”, but back then – it was just odd, seemingly like slight contradictions but for the purpose of light fiction to “teach”. God’s Word is 100% true and yet many religious men are just liars and thieves – pretending to be “pastors” and yet peddling a twisted version of God’s Word for profit. That group would very much include both Jerry B Jenkins and Tim LaHaye. We’ve heard they can be wonderful people in person... but as we have noted in other reports, just because someone appears nice doesn’t mean that God approves of them, or even that they are telling the truth. The only way to tell if they are telling the truth according to the Bible or not is to test their words against God’s Word. So, that’s what we endeavor to do in this study/report, as well as give resources to help people catch up to speed and hopefully stand up to and rebuke Mr. Jenkins as an apostate and the false teaching he teaches as well as the scandals and corruption he is both a part of and that he is helping to cover up.

“¹ Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world.” (1st John 4:1)

“⁸ But even if we, or an angel from Heaven, preach any other gospel to you than what we have preached to you, let him be accursed. ⁹ As we have said before, so now I say again, if anyone preaches any other gospel to you than what you have received, let him be accursed.” (Galatians 1:8-9)

So, first off who is Mr. Jenkins? That is a question that will have to remain partially a mystery, because he has such a good PR machine (cover-ups and “public relations”) that we couldn’t find any of his history, his education, or even much about his family and upbringing. All we could find so far is information about his prolific writing career – most of it in the supposed “Christian” fiction category. And probably the most well-known series of that is his “Left Behind” series, which we intend to look at in just a minute.

But let us first look at something more current – the scandals he is a part of concern Moody Bible Institute (MBI).

* Before 2006

As of 2006, it came to light (Thanks to Julie Roys and others) that Mr. Jerry B. Jenkins had an exclusive suite for him and his family on top of the Jenkin's Hall. In 1999, Mr. Jenkins had donated an undisclosed amount to help build this building, and also requested the board remodel the top 2 rooms to be a livable suite for him and his family to use on occasion. The key issue was that he and his family had exclusive use of it, and used it more as a second home, rather than just a "when we're in town" as he had originally said and was agreed upon (details of which are still questionable). When enough pressure spoke up in concern, he finally had to give up exclusive use of it... but many questions are left unanswered. What all happened in that suite that only Mr. Jenkins and his family and a two to three maintenance people had access to, above one of the teaching halls? With the level of corruption involved here, there are serious concerns here for anyone in youth and college ministry background. Serious issues. Was there sexual misconduct going on? Was there sexual sins going on? Who all was involved? We need a thorough investigation of this one for sure. Maybe the professors who teach on abuse at the Chicago campus can conduct an investigation. If not them, then someone needs to. Sins don't just harm a few – they harm many. And some sins harm deeper. And sins covered allow abuse to continue – if/when it is going on.

And Karen Huber explains some things others have missed about Mr. Jenkins and his gambling habits:

“... My uncomfortableness rests in three things:

“1) The double standard Moody seems to place on its students, staff and trustees, setting forth strict codes of conduct based on (or implied by) biblical principles for students and staff (gambling, for one, is strictly prohibited; other activities such as drinking, smoking and movie-going are also prohibited for students) while the trustees enjoy no such prohibition.

“2) In the World article, Jenkins admits an attempt to hide his poker playing from the Chicago-area Christian community.

“It's too close to Chicago. I serve on the board of Moody, so I wouldn't want to cause any embarrassment to anybody if they had a problem with that. ... I live in Colorado, so if I play it's outside the Midwest.”

— Jerry Jenkins

“3) The most troubling aspect of the article was the perceived posture of Jenkins, who refers to himself as being "flush," refers to the money he's gambled, lost and won as "pocket change," and states that playing in a casino where his son is a dealer is the only way he's able to interact with non-believers.

“Frankly, were it not for poker, we would hardly ever rub shoulders with unsaved people.” — Jerry Jenkins”

* Then, August 2013

Under Mr. Nyquist, Mr. Jenkins and Mr. Lutzer, and the top-leadership changed the rules for the MBI staff that they could now engage in alcohol and tobacco. The ban was finally lifted. Mr. Greg Thornton told Mrs. Julie Roys that the gambling ban had not been lifted, as per request of her and others. Mrs. Roys investigated and found Mr. Thornton's words to be dishonest – the top-leadership had snuck the change through without informing anyone outside their little circle.

So, as you can see so far, 2006 (and before) Mr. Jenkins (and family) have been almost caught doing something secretive with the once-exclusive rooms at the top of MBI's Jenkin's Hall... but that something was covered up and no action against Mr. Jenkins was taken. Then in 2013, Mr. Jenkins and family were again caught in a scandal – this time, the Jenkins family (or we should say, at very least Jerry and his son Dallas, along with their good friend James MacDonald) were gambling at casinos in Colorado, Nevada (Lost Vegas), and Illinois. But again, the Jenkins family has not yet been caught or corrected, and the top-leaders at MBI covered it up... and then went further, into illegal activity. They fired Julie Roys and Rich Weber (and we don't yet know how many more) for asking questions and asking for the corruption and scandal to be corrected and fixed. And as for Jenkins being honest? Nope, just the slightest bit of a few right-sounding words, and that's it.

Julie Roys gives very good details in these 4 articles, which thankfully others have picked up on as well.

A reminder, this issue is not yet resolved, but Mr. Greg Thornton (the man who orchestrated for Mrs. Julie Roys to be wrongfully fired) is now acting president of MBI. At least 3 key questions remain unanswered.

-- If Jerry B. Jenkins has nothing to hide – then why is the amount of his donation still kept a secret?

-- Why is there secrecy and a coverup on the Jenkins family's use of that room?

-- And why was Julie fired for asking questions, and fact-checking MBI's corrupt "official story"?

Yes, as you can see, the top-leadership is trying to cover up sins, instead of questioning and leading the guilty parties to confess and walk in repentance and holiness, if they can. To get to that stage, it's clearly going to take a team. Let's work on getting this resolved properly and Biblically. You can read more about the huge concerns of Mr. Thornton including Greg's role in firing Julie to cover up these scandals, as well as his background and his activities, here:

www.restorembi.com/Problems-at-Moody-GregThornton.htm
www.restorembi.com/Problems-at-Moody-GregThornton.pdf

An additional clarification here: the level of corruption among the top-leaders of MBI, as shown in just these 3 events mentioned above – that level of corruption, coverup, and suppressing the truth is what has led to a downturn in enrollments and the lack of trust. Corruption and coverup have led to that – not a supposed lack of wanting Biblical education, as Mr. Nyquist made up to try to cover the corruption he was involved in. Mr. Nyquist lied, and he knows it. So, yes there is corruption, but if we work together, in prayer and with God’s Word, we are sure that we all can get this resolved and see Moody Bible Institute restored to the Biblical foundation that DL Moody built on, and the covenant with God that it was based on.

You can find the timeline of scandals that are taking Moody down right now, here:

Section 2 - Jerry’s writings and false teachings - (The “Left Behind” Series and it’s false teachings mixed with Biblical teachings)

Here are other key things to discuss – like his false teachings. Let’s start with... taking the “mark of the beast” and still being saved. This clip sums the problems up well. You will quickly see that Mr. Jenkins weaves some honest Biblical themes with anti-Biblical teaching.

“1) The major premise is that people who had missed the Rapture but became saved afterwards, had organized themselves into an armed rebellion and were strenuously fighting the forces of Antichrist.

While this idea proved popular, is it Biblical? Where in the Bible does Jesus or any other writer, urge the Christians at that time to stand up and fight the forces of Antichrist? Not only is this an unbiblical concept, Jesus actually speaks of Christians meekly going to their slaughter at the hands of Antichrist...

“2) In the last three books, LaHaye writes the plot so that one of the Christian leaders, Chang, is forced down by his father's bodyguards and forced to take the "Mark of the Beast". They threw him to the floor, and then physically restrained him as they injected him with the "Mark".

“From that moment onward, Chang discovered that having the "Mark of the Beast" gave him numerous advantages as he directed the Christian forces in their battle against Antichrist. Chang was depicted as still in right standing with God and still going to Heaven. In the last book, Jesus returns to Earth to begin setting up His Millennial Reign. He specifically seeks a meeting with Chang, where He congratulates him for taking advantage of all the advantages inherent in having the "Mark" in his right hand...”

So, to sum up - the top 3 major false teachings and altered teachings of the Bible include:

- * the mark (of God) on supposed “Christians” is supposedly visible to other “Christians”, but not to themselves, and it cannot be seen by non-believers either.
- * supposed “Christians” in this series are trying to stay alive instead of serving Christ, proclaiming the gospel and being willing to die for the sake and Name of Jesus Christ and His gospel of repentance and salvation through the covenant of the cross.
- * (in “The Mark” book, 3rd in the series) a leader of the Christian “militia” (Chang Wong) who already supposedly has the invisible/secret “mark of God” on his forehead, is caught by the antichrist forces and is forced to receive the implanted chip (supposed “mark of the beast”) and yet still remains saved. And worse yet, in the end Chang is even welcomed into Heaven and personally thanked by Jesus Himself.

I have heard that the Jesuits have messed with and tried to mess up the teachings of the Bible on the “rapture” or catching up of the honest followers of Christ. Even more, I have personally found a number of key subtle false teachings added to the teachings of God’s Word where only the genuinely saved will be “caught up”. So, it’s no surprise that this is one of the hardest topics to understand, because many don’t study to rightly teach all of God’s Word, but only tidbits which they are either confused on or intentionally twist to peddle God’s Word for profit or fame. So, we need to be clear what the “rapture” is according to God’s Word. So, let’s review what the Scriptures say.

Biblical teachings on the rapture

Though the word “rapture” is not used in the Bible, the words “caught up” are a right interpretation of the text of 1st Thessalonians 4.

“¹³ But I do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning those who have fallen asleep, lest you sorrow as others who have no hope. ¹⁴ For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him those who sleep in Jesus. ¹⁵ For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will by no means precede those who are asleep. ¹⁶ For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. ¹⁷ Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord. ¹⁸ Therefore comfort one another with these words.” (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18)

Jesus also promised it to those who were faithful during the “Philadelphian” church age that wraps up at the “rapture”. Notice, it is not an escape from trials, but only from the 7-year Tribulation, for those who qualify. “¹⁰ Because you have kept My command to persevere, I also will keep you from the hour of trial which shall come upon the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth. ¹¹ Behold, I am coming quickly! Hold fast what you have, that no one may take your crown.” (Revelation 3:10-11) The rest of the people are left on earth to think seriously about life, death and eternity and many get saved at that point – through a much harder measure of trials.

And you remember, 2nd Thessalonians 2, makes it plain that the antichrist cannot be revealed and step on the world stage until after the Holy Spirit steps aside, which is at the “rapture” or “catching up” of believers in Christ. Only then can the antichrist set up his agreements and kingdom with the world rulers and Rome, and then sign the 7-year “peace” treaty with Israel that officially starts the 7-year Tribulation, which the antichrist breaks at the middle of those 7 years, with Jesus returning at the end of those seven years to destroy the antichrist and his armies, and to set up the 1000 year reign of Christ. “⁷ For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only He who now restrains will do so until He is taken out of the way. ⁸ And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the breath of His mouth and destroy with the brightness of His coming.” (2nd Thessalonians 2:7-8)

“¹ Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven, having the key to the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. ² He laid hold of the dragon... he cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up... till the thousand years were finished...” (Revelation 20:1-15)

As you can see there, before the Tribulation, Jesus will appear in the air, the archangel will sound his trumpet and with a shout, Jesus will catch up His genuine believers – dead or living, and take them to Heaven, for their work is done. Revelation explains that God protects Israel with the 2 witnesses (Enoch and Elijah), the 144,000 literal Jewish people who get saved and become missionaries for Jesus, as well as those who get saved during the Tribulation and all together they preach the gospel around the world until their final breath.

And the “rapture” will not be a secret one, for every eye will see Him – something the Creator knows how to do, even if we don’t know how He’ll do that.

“⁷ Behold, He is coming with clouds, and every eye will see Him, even they who pierced Him. And all the tribes of the earth will mourn because of Him. Even so, Amen.” (Revelation 1:7)

And no one will be able to take the mark and be saved. God made this clear 4 times in the Book of Revelation, including by the voice of a powerful angel.

“⁹ Then a third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, ‘If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives his mark on his forehead or on his hand, ¹⁰ he himself shall also drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out full strength into the cup of His indignation. He shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb. ¹¹ And the smoke of their torment ascends forever and ever; and they have no rest day or night, who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name’.” (Revelation 14:9-11)

“² So the first went and poured out his bowl upon the earth, and a foul and loathsome sore came upon the men who had the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image.” (Revelation 16:2)

“²⁰ Then the beast was captured, and with him the false prophet who worked signs in his presence, by which he deceived those who received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image. These two were cast alive into the lake of fire burning with brimstone. ²¹ And the rest were killed with the sword which proceeded from the mouth of Him who sat on the horse. And all the birds were filled with their flesh.” (Revelation 19:20-21)

“⁴ And I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was committed to them. Then I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their witness to Jesus and for the Word of God, who had not worshiped the beast or his image, and had not received his mark on their foreheads or on their hands. And they lived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years.” (Revelation 20:4)

So, let us hold to the Scriptures in contradiction to the false teachings of Jerry B. Jenkins, Tim LaHaye and others such as Kirk Cameron. We are not to be ashamed of Christ. And we are not to chase the things of this earth (Matthew 6:24; Mark 8:34-38; James 4:1-4; 1st John 2:15-17), but we are to become actively dead to sin (Romans 6:11, Romans 12:1-2; Galatians 2:20) and alive to Christ (Romans 13:12-14), and grow in holiness (2nd Peter 1:5-11), and to be diligent about the work of Jesus Christ – namely, the preaching of the repentance of Jesus’ gospel (Acts 17:30), and the training of disciples for Jesus Christ (Matthew 28:18-20). And if it costs us our lives – so be it. If you truly believe in Jesus, you know that Jesus will share His blessings on you – a little on this side, but more so on the other side. As Jesus teaches, so let us live and die faithful to Jesus, knowing that He protects those who seek Him, and only He determines the life and death of believer and unbeliever.

“¹¹ And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to the death.” (Revelation 12:11)

As Jesus taught us all: “¹⁸ If the world hates you, you know that it hated Me before it hated you. ¹⁹ If you were of the world, the world would love its own...” (John 15:18-25)

See also: 2nd Timothy 2:10-12 and Hebrews 11.

Let us all grow in boldness in walking holy and pure and in boldly reading, explaining and teaching the Word of God and the gospel to everyone we can reach. Not being ashamed of the gospel that Jesus taught.

“¹⁶ For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes, for the Jew first and also for the Greek. ¹⁷ For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written, ‘The just shall live by faith.’” (Romans 1:16-17)

Another thing to address here is a few of Mr. Jenkin’s quotes.

One key quote of Jerry B. Jenkins:

“My dream remains to inform and entertain through fiction in the form of novels and movies that compete in the market of ideas.”

> That’s a pretty clever way to disguise his love of money and want for the praise of men – wouldn’t you say? But, God talks about this too.

“²⁵ The fear of man brings a snare, But whoever trusts in the LORD shall be safe.”

(Proverbs 29:25) See also: John 12:42-43, Luke 6:26,46, and 2nd Corinthians 2:14-17

“²¹ Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in Heaven. ²² Many will say to Me in that day, ‘Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?’ ²³ And then I will declare to them, ‘I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!’”

(Matthew 7:21-23)

Another quote of Jerry B. Jenkins:

“The uninitiated have real questions and valid concerns over how things of God appear to them.”

> No. You’re wrong again Mr. Jenkins. God is clear in His Word (the Bible) that He is talking to every person on planet earth, calling all men to repent and find salvation in Christ alone (John 10:3-5; John 14:6). Any person who holds onto their “questions” is trying to find a way to blame God and excuse their sins, just like satan does. They are in Romans 1:18-21, fighting God for more sin.

“¹ Now the serpent was more cunning than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said to the woman, ‘Has God indeed said, ‘You shall not eat of every tree of the garden?’” ² And the woman said to the serpent, ‘We may eat the fruit of the trees of the garden; ³ but of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God has said, ‘You shall not eat it, nor shall you touch it, lest you die.’” ⁴ Then the serpent said to the woman, ‘You will not surely die. ⁵ For God knows that in the day you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.’”

(Genesis 3:1-5)

> The two original lies: “Has God said...?” and “You will be like God”. There are no “valid concerns” of humans against God, just the grumbings of rebels who love their sin but don’t want its rightful consequences. They are without excuse.

“¹⁸ For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness, ¹⁹ because what may be known of God is manifest in them, for God has shown it to them... so that they are without excuse...” (Romans 1:18-23)

And the third quote from Jerry B. Jenkins:

“Good fiction must be entertaining, but what makes fiction special and – and true, is that the realness of a novel allows it to carry a larger message.”

> Yes, it sure does Mr. Jenkins. It has allowed you to alter the Word of God – and the shocking part is you probably think God is going to let you get away with it. Nope.

God’s Word talks about the supposed “power” of imagination.

“⁵ Then the LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every intent/imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.” (Genesis 6:5)

See also: 2nd Timothy 3:8-9, 2nd Timothy 4:3-4

Mr. Jenkins, because you have turned many from obeying Jesus Christ and used fables and myths to encourage them to harden their hearts in fighting for sins and their rebellion against God, you are in the condemnation of that passage. Can you repent?

With Mr. Jenkins writing such obvious false teaching in his fiction books, we are sure there is at least some false teaching in his “non-fiction” books as well. We encourage you to avoid all of his mix of sin and Bible “teachings”. Just open the Word of God, and study it – spend much quality time in it, reading it or listening to it on MP3 or your phone. That is far better than having to sort out the lies of Mr. Jenkins from the honest teachings of the Bible.

Jerry Jenkins also has a writers “guild” ... or we might say he had an old “Christian Writer’s Guild”. It does appear that he has started a new one in the works. Note the word “guild” implies masonic connections, which also fits other clues we’ve seen. Mr. Jenkins is connected to seemingly all of the wrong high-powered religious leaders on the planet. Shame on Mr. Jenkins for his partnering with evil to control and sway (even deceive) the honest followers of Christ away from the Holy Bible. Romans 1:32 teaches it well – evil people give approval to each other.

Section 3 – Jerry B. Jenkin’s high-powered connections (here are 2).

-- Tim Layahe

So, that is a lot so far... but there’s more. You see, we have only talked about Mr. Jenkins’ current scandals and his false teachings. There’s still one more topic to address – his high-powered connections.

Tim Lahaye was one of the 5 founders of a supposedly “conservative” group that has caused many wars and been involved in many murders. It’s the masonic/satanic group called the CNP = “Council on National Policy”. The CNP like the CFR is not government in anyway, but merely a gathering of ultra-rich tycoons who use religion to sway nations for their own profits, prestige and to advance one-world government projects and programs.

This article has some odd stuff, but it does highlight Mr. Lahaye’s use of obvious masonic/satanic symbols.

Billy Graham – 33rd mason and one-world religion leader

Some might know that Mr. Jenkins and the Graham family are friends to some extent. But many who have heard of Billy Graham are probably familiar with the autobiography that Jerry B. Jenkins helped co-write for Billy Graham. It's called "Just As I Am" after the favorite hymn of Mr. Graham. Mr. Jenkins co-wrote it with Mel Lorentzen (professor of journalism at Wheaton College), John Akers (one of Billy's close friends), and Bill Griffin (a good friend of Billy's daughters).

Billy Graham – long-known 33rd mason and agent for the Vatican since the mid-1940s.

"This video produced by The Most Holy Family Monastery explains evidence that the evangelists Billy Graham and Pat Robertson are members of the Masonic Lodge, and it is also mentioned that evidence exists of Pope John Paul I being murdered by Freemasons.

"It is explained that in a book by Dr. James Wardner entitled "Unholy Alliances" that it is mentioned that a former high ranking Freemason named Jim Shaw said that when he became a 33rd degree Mason, the evangelist Billy Graham was present to help with his initiation in Washington DC, and a picture of Graham is shown with him giving a Masonic handshake.

"Also the televangelist Pat Robertson is shown on the cover of a 1986 issue of Time magazine giving a Masonic symbol called "The Lion's Paw." [Note— Other pictures of Robertson giving Masonic symbols exist as well.] Also Robertson's book "The Millennium" has a point within a circle on the top of every page, which is a symbol representing sun worship and is also a symbol of the Illuminati.

"Also explained is a book called "In God's name," by David Yallap, which is an investigation into the murder of Pope John Paul I, where a case is presented that the mafia associated "P-2" Masons were involved. One of the points mentioned in the book is that John Paul served 33 days, with the number 33 having much significance to Freemasons."

We have more information on Mr. Graham and his long history of deceitful double-wording in our article on Ed Stetzer.

Another person to mention here is Mr. Jenkins’ son, Dallas Jenkins – a young movie director of equally foolish movie content, pretending to be “Christian” films, including one where a non-believer plays the role of Jesus and supposedly gets saved doing it – while teaching Christians to “not judge”. Matthew 7:1-5 shows the lies of that false gospel.

Mr. Jenkins has lots of money as he admits himself.

“... A few weeks ago World Magazine published an article on Jerry Jenkins and his frequent past-time of playing poker for money. The article quoted Jenkins - chairman of the Board of Trustees for Moody Bible Institute and best-selling author of the oft maligned, though still popular Left Behind Series - saying, ‘... You can do the math. I’ve sold 70 million books. So to break even making $8,000 playing poker, it’s kind of pocket change for me.’...”

But all of the money in the world cannot save the soul of a person who’s already sold it for the money, trinkets and sin-pleasures of this life.

“²⁴ No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon [earth’s trinkets and sinful pleasures].” (Matthew 6:24)

Mr. Jenkins was involved in the discussion of firing Julie Roys, along with Paul Nyquist. Now Greg Thornton is continuing this coverup. You can find more information on Greg's scandals and history, here: www.restorembi.com/Problems-at-Moody-GregThornton.htm

Mr. Jenkins (and co-conspirators) needs to be stiffly held accountable for these and more corruption, scandals and cover-ups. And if he refuses, he needs to be swiftly fired from the board and word needs to be intentional send and spread throughout the Moody network and alumni of why he was fired. If it's done that way, those who do that will find God's blessing and favor and have a got possibility of saving Moody from completely crashing. Let us pray and push to that end. Amen?

Please share this information and these prayer points and concerns with all of the Moody team and alumni you can find. Thank you for watching and praying.
