Hello brothers and sisters in Christ and fellow prayer partners (and friends), [October 2019]

This article on the teachings of the Jesuits is building off of the previous three articles on who they are (their history), and how they twist prayer, and just a little exploration into their false gospel. If you missed any of those, you might want to read them first. We encourage you to read them and study the details out, comparing everything with the literal whole Word of God, in context. You can find those articles, here:

Who Are the Jesuits?

This is a brief reminder of a centuries old threat, and modern problem and nightmare of the Jesuits and their sabotage tactics to help Rome conquer the world.

Beware the Examen “Prayer”?

The “Examen” is the supposed “formula” on how to pray to yourself about what you want while pretend to be praying to God.

You can also find more info on how many ways the Vatican and her Jesuits contradict the Bible, in these free resources too. In this first article, we give the Scriptures that answer 10 top lies of the Vatican, including was Mary perfect, was Jesus an only child, was Peter the first “pope”, and more. The following 3 articles expand on the Scriptures that show that Peter, Paul, and Mary (earthly mother of Jesus) all stand against Rome and her myriad of crimes and mistreatment of those who love the Bible and the Author of the Bible, the one True God, Creator and Judge, and the only Mediator who can save from sins through the covenant of the cross.

Now that you're back, let's continue. What we'd like to do next is to take a deeper look into the clever and crafty (dare we say enticing or enchanting?) false teachings of the Vatican and her Jesuits. The Jesuits are the keepers of mythologies, so they are constantly trying to overthrow the faith of everyone, in subtle ways so as not to get caught. And their main tactic is to use clever generalizations and allegorize (or myth-ologize) God's teachings in the His Word (the Bible). The best way to catch their lies is to compare their lies (including the nuances and conclusions) with the whole counsel of the literal Word of God (the Bible) in context. That will help destroy the grip of those lies on you – and the truth, shown in the Bible, usually makes that very simply. Because, although they deny it, God has answered all of the lies of satan in His Word.

Before we move to our first section in this 3-topic article, let us review the method of the madness of satan (chief demon) and his fellow conspiring demons and the humans foolish enough to join their evil rebellion against the Holy and Good God. As many of you already know (and may have forgotten), satan has nothing to offer anyone. Literally - nothing. You see, he lost everything the day he puffed himself up with pride, deceived himself and 1/3 of the angels into trying to murder God and take His Throne, Authority, Glory and Power. Yes, that day (before the fall of man), satan lost everything, and you can find the details in Isaiah 14, Ezekiel 28, and some of Jesus' teachings about casting out demons, and other passages like John 8 and John 10. But... despite the fact that satan lost then, he still didn't give up. Then satan made an further and even bigger mistake – since slandering Jesus didn't work, he then murdered Jesus to stop Jesus from preaching and teaching the people (and us) about the devil's lies and the lies of his servants. While Jesus' human body was dead, He preached to the demons from Paradise into Hell of their condemnation for choosing to be evil and do evil – see Luke 16, 1st Peter 3:19. Then Jesus rose again, which not only proved that satan lost again, but Jesus then became/proved to be the only Mediator between God and man, and the only way to Heaven (John 14:6) – for all who put their trust only in Him. Yet, even still, satan never gives up trying in his on-going war against God. That's why Jesus was warning about satan's tactics in John 8, and then again in John 10. Why? Because satan's war continues, and will continue until he is locked up forever for his crimes against God and angels and men, and the smoke of his torment will ascend forever and ever – and they will have no rest, them or those humans foolish enough to accept and act on his lies. Yes, satan will be destroyed, as God has already explained in the Book of Revelation, especially, but that doesn't release us. We need to resist sins and grow stronger in holiness too – and that takes time, practice, and years of maturity.

The problem for you and me, though, is that we cannot see him or his demons, we can only hear his temptations to sin and invitations to join his rebellion against God. And because God defines sins and sinful attitudes and sinful desires so well in such passages as Exodus 20 and Galatians 5 and Romans 1, we can identify his temptations. You see, because satan has literally nothing to give to us in trade for our souls and partnership with him to attack God, satan has to use imagination to lure people onto his team and into his agendas and schemes. And that's the reasons for most "sciences", books, movies, songs, plays, radio shows and trash vendor (TV) shows. It's a constant barrage of temptations to sin, with the false offer of fun and other empty allurements with various levels of painful consequences. The best thing you and I can do is to turn off as many of satan's preaching pulpits as we can, and just keep the ones that we can use to discuss the Bible with believers and unbelievers. Remember, tempting with sin is what satan did with Jesus to try to make Him stumble into sin (Matthew 4 and Luke 4). Jesus replied with Scripture and holiness that showed the crafty lies of the devil. And that's what God answered through the apostle John too, in 1st John 2: "¹⁵ Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. ¹⁶ For all that is in the world--the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life--is not of the Father but is of the world. ¹⁷ And the world is passing away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides forever." (1st John 2:15-17) And God explains this further through James, "¹ Where do wars and fights come from among you? Do they not come from your desires for pleasure that war in your members? ² You lust and do not have. You murder and covet and cannot obtain. You fight and war. Yet you do not have because you do not ask. ³ You ask and do not receive, because you ask amiss, that you may spend it on your pleasures. ⁴ Adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.” (James 4:1-4)

We overcome satan by resisting him, and submitting our will to Jesus (James 4:7) and becoming dead to our animalistic sin-nature and its selfish and self-centered wants. God through Paul in Romans 6 and 8 talks a lot about this, and again through Paul in Galatians 2 and 5 and 6, and then through Peter in both 1Peter and 2Peter. Here is another passage on the topic from 2nd Corinthians 10: “³ For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh. ⁴ For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, ⁵ casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ, ⁶ and being ready to punish all disobedience when your obedience is fulfilled.” (2Corinthians 10:3-6) The English doesn’t translate the passage very well, but in context and in the deeper and literal Greek, that is saying that Jesus is ready to deal with every disobedience (and attacks against us) when we have reached the maturity He desires us to have in resisting sin on the area that satan is accusing us of. As God through Paul reminded us: “¹⁵ Meditate on these things; give yourself entirely to them, that your progress may be evident to all. ¹⁶ Take heed to yourself and to the doctrine. Continue in them, for in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.” (1 Timothy 4:15-16)

The deceiver and satan and the devil always promises more than he can give and more than he wants to give. He cares nothing about anyone who serves him – only himself, not even his most loyal subjects. Jesus spoke the Truth always, including about satan – “¹⁰ The thief does not come except [only] to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly.” (John 10:10) There is so much to cover and teach on these topics that the Scriptures make so plain... but none of the Vatican-controlled state-run 501c3 “churches” teach at all. But those will have to be others future (or your own) studies to themselves. In conclusion of these short notes, satan has to use imaginations of fame, fortune, power, and control and immortality – while he has nothing to give. So, instead he resorts to imagination – or his other favorite tactic(s) said in the Garden of Eden (long ago destroyed in the worldwide flood), “Has God indeed said...” (Genesis 3:1) That would be better translated – Did God really say? Even today, satan still repeats the same three lies that he did in the Garden –

Lie 1) Did God really say? Or putting satan’s lie more plainly – Is God really telling the truth?

> Reply: Yes, God always tells the truth because holiness and truth is part of His very character.

Lie 2) You will not die from rebelling against God.

> Reply: As is always true with the devil, what satan said was only partially true. True, they didn’t drop dead physically immediately, but they instantly separated themselves from God by choosing sin, and the process of physical death, disease, and sin-abuse started there.

Lie 3) If you join me in rebelling against God, you can know everything – good and evil, and you can become a “god” or like God.

> Reply: This lies is said in a million ways around us today – from the Babylonian + Egyptian + Greek + Roman mythologies, to the modern-day versions of those age-old lies – the “superheroes”. And the reason this is so appealing is two-fold, 1) we want a relief from the healthy fear of the Lord that turns us away from sin that looks fun, and 2) we want someone to save us from the consequences of sin. The devil, satan, had that fear of God’s judgment on his rebellion even while he tempted Eve, but he had already turned evil and gotten himself kicked out of Heaven, so now he was trying to deceive humans and trick them into pledging themselves into joining his side – to fight God. But, what satan didn’t count on is that each person is an ego-maniac, so they didn’t loyally follow him, so he had to figure out what sin-fun to offer them to get them to join his rebellion against God.... There is a lot more to study here, which we cover in part 3 in more detail.

Eve’s response shows that the deception worked: “⁶ So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree desirable to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate. She also gave to her husband with her, and he ate.” (Genesis 3:6) Eve was deceived, but Adam having heard from God directly – rebelled. “¹²Therefore, just as through one man sin entered the world, and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men, because all sinned.” (Romans 5:12) Notice that Eve saw that it looked good – lust/coveting of the eyes, it was good for food – lust of the flesh, and that it could (according to satan) make her wise – pride of life, so she ate – with less knowledge that it was wrong than Adam, but she had some knowledge, because Adam had told her, and she admitted it to the serpent.

Now seeing these 3 categories of lies, look for them in Scripture. You can see them when satan is tempting Jesus in the wilderness in Matthew 4 and Luke 4 and you’ll see that it’s the same 3 lies that God then answers through Paul in Romans, through John in 1st John, and Peter in 1Peter and 2Peter. Those are the only 3 categories of imagination and temptation satan and his demons and human co-conspirators can offer you. Everyone has 2 choices - Sell your soul to satan for cheap tricks, or repent of your rebellion against God and give your life and soul fully to Him, becoming adopted into His family and out of satan’s family (because of sin) through the blood of Jesus the Christ.

All of those short details should help the following 3 topics and the layers of lies in them, make more sense. So, the three topics are as we mentioned above – the so-called “Jesuit exercises”, the lies of demonic psychology, and the mythologies – or as I typically call them “superhero mythology”. We plan to provide for articles you to explore on your own for each. First, we want to look at something that is in a positive light and should not be at all – Ignatius Loyola’s “Spiritual Exercises”, something that is also called “Spiritual Formation”, or the Protestant trick-phrase of “Spiritual Transformation”, etc. The second part of this article focuses on something many “Protestants” have sadly accepted as “normal” – that being the demonic lies and twists on God’s Word about “sin”, reducing it to a “disease” or “disorder” that needs a Jesuit-medical “potion” or “drug” to fix and not honest repentance. The third thing this article focuses on is the myths and entertainment that God talks about in 2nd Timothy 3 and 4, but sadly the honest followers of Christ don’t realize the modern-day versions of the age-old lies, due in a large part, to the lies from the Jesuit-mason “clergy” in the state-run messages of the 501c3 “churches” (who are a far cry from what Jesus established, see Matthew, Mark, Luke, John and Acts).

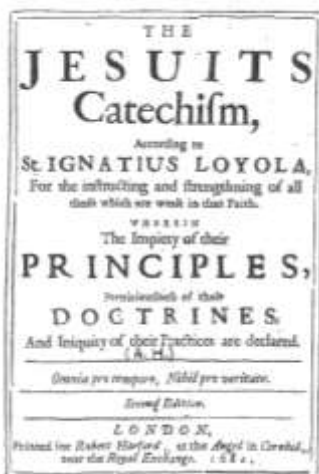

So, with that intro, let’s briefly take a look at these 3 topics.

Part 1 - Ignatius Loyola’s “Spiritual Exercises”

Jesuit-ism’s founder, Iñigo “Ignatius” Loyola and his spiritually dangerous “exercises” – training the most evil men (and secretly the most evil women) to look, talk, and appear to be the “most moral”, while rejecting and twisting everything God has said – turning all things into a “religion”, or more like a list of rules of conduct to be used feign/pretend piety/holy-living and to excuse their crimes, and so they can keep a “clean image” to control the “masses”. This is a key portion of that fake religion that you despise throughout the world, and that is especially taught (in some form and measure) at the 501c3 so-called “churches”. Let’s take a look, shall we?

Before we give more commentary on this, let’s just open the pages and take some quotes right from their own words (Loyola’s mainly) and let you see it firsthand, and then we can simply compare it to God’s Word.

- Let’s start with another book that will help this make more sense... or rather to show how far from sense Rome and her Jesuits are. Let’s look at their so-called ‘catechism’, which is very different from the Catholic one, and a bit harder to find too. The copy we’re quoting to you from is called: “The Jesuits Catechism”. This is what their title page says. “The Jesuits Catechism according to St. Ignatius Loyola, for the instructing and strengthening of all those which are weak in that faith. Wherein the impiety of their principles, perniciousness of their doctrines, and the iniquity of their practices are declared (AH). Omnia pro tempore, Nihil pro veritate. Second edition. London, Printed for Robert Hayford, at the Angel in Cornhil, near the Royal Exchange. 1681.”

On the topic of the “power of the pope”, it says this: “The papal fiat [power] is the guide; What he doth here, in Heaven is ratified; He acts as God, their power so equal are, that God, Christ, Pope have but one Judgment Chair. Then [“than” or “compared to”] Paul or th[e]’ old Law, he’s great and true, he can command [a]gainst Paul and the Gospel too, Can from Rules of Faith, the old casheer [guard/keeper]; And over General Councils domineer; If he to Hell millions should draw, Yet none must ask him why? His will is Law.” (Jesuit Catechism pg 2)

On the topic of what is the pope – it says this. “He is the vicar of Christ, King of Kings, and Lord of Lords, and there is but one and the same Judgment-Seat belonging to God and the Pope... everyone is to be obedient to the pope upon pain of damnation... The Canon Law will tell you that the Pope is as far above Kings, as the Sun is greater than the moon... according to astronomy... to be above 7744 times greater than any king, and for Kings, they are no more to be compared to the pope than lead is to gold. A common priest is as much far better than a King as man is better than a beast; nay farther...” (Jesuit catechism, page 3)

“All laymen are no better than horses, mules, or [donkeys], and the Romanist himself hath but the honour to be a tame [donkey], while the heretick is a wild one; nor do kings of the Popist persuasion get any more esteem from him than that of the formost of leading [donkeys] with the fine jangling bells about their necks. There is but one Supreme Authority in the world, and that is the Pope. Q – How do you prove that? A – Because God created Heave in the beginning, for its not laid in the beginnings, in the plural number, therefore, he that doth not believe the Pope to be the only Supreme, is a heretick Manichee... No Law can be made to bind Christians, but by the Pope’s Authority, as of old the Israelites received none but by the intercession of Moses. The Gospel would not be Gospel if the Pope had not approved it...”

We saved the PDF copy we could find (first 5 pages) and uploaded a copy to our site – intact, unaltered. If you look at it, you’ll notice that it’s the ancient British script and a bit hard to read until you realize that two letters “s” and “f” become fancy script in their document. If you keep that in mind, it’s fairly easy to read, despite its slightly different British sentence structure compared to our English style, and it’s 500 year old King-James style dialect.

> <https://www.RestoreMBI.com/Jesuit-catechism.htm>

Yep, you read that right. The “pope” thinks that he can write anything into law and everything he says becomes the law of the universe... and when people didn’t listen and the popes could get away with it, they would round up and murder their opponents and non-faithful “subjects” and burn their Bibles. Those times of murders and weeping were in the days of the “Holy Roman Empire” and were known (especially the worst of them) as “Inquisitions” and “Crusades”. As you can see, the so-called “pope” has nothing to say. He’s a scoundrel that is earning himself a deeper place in the forever Lake of Fire, the more evil and blasphemies he does and says. So, resist him and his team and his so-called “priests” and his secret-army of Jesuits, in prayer and with your words.

#ItTakesATeam.

So, that’s what the pompous liars at the Vatican and their Jesuit agents think of you and everyone else. But, as we said before, they have to make themselves look good and moral and pious. So, with all of the crimes – including rapes and baby-murders - they do to cover up the scandals, how do they look moral? By keeping a code of conduct, or to put it differently a list of moral actions, or list of religious things they do every day (several times a day) to look and claim to be spiritual and following the One True God. And that, we find in the Jesuit’s “Spiritual Exercises” – also written by Ignatius Loyola. Let’s look at what it has to say.

Quoting from page 47, where it says: “The purpose of these Exercises is to help the exercitant to conquer himself, and to regulate his life so that he will not be influenced in his decisions by any inordinate attachment... every good Christian ought to be more willing to give a good interpretation to the statement of another than to condemn it as false. If he cannot give a good interpretation to this statement, he should ask the other how he understands it, and if he is in error, he should correct him with charity...

>> Pausing right there to make one note – this “more willing to give a good interpretation” just asked everyone to overlook any mis-stated words, which typically makes people non-observant, so as not to give a “condemning” response. But that is not what Jesus taught. Jesus taught us to test all things with the Bible – not to try to think positively about everything. That is what God in the Proverbs calls a simple-minded man with no discernment. God through the apostle John said it this way, “¹ Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world. ² By this you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, ³ and every spirit that does not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God. And this is the spirit of the Antichrist, which you have heard was coming, and is now already in the world.” (1st John 4:1-3) And God through Silas explained it this way: “¹² For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you again the first principles of the oracles of God; and you have come to need milk and not solid food. ¹³ For everyone who partakes only of milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness, for he is a baby. ¹⁴ But solid food belongs to those who are of full age, that is, those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.” (Hebrews 5:12-14)

Continuing on the deceptive “piety” practices of the Jesuits still page 47, “Man is created to praise, reverence, and serve God our Lord, and by this means to save his soul. All other things on the face of the earth are created for man to help him fulfill the end for which he is created. From this it follows that man is to use these things to the extent that they will help him attain the end... Therefore we must make ourselves indifferent to all created things, in so far as it is left to the choice of our free will, and is not forbidden...”

>> Very clever way to excuse themselves of all kinds of evil, pretending almost everything is in the “gray area” of “free will”. But God says: “²⁸ And to man He said, 'Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom, And to depart from evil is understanding.'” (Job 28:28) and again, God says “¹³ Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God and keep His commandments, For this is man's all.” (Ecclesiastes 12:13-14) And again, God says: “¹⁵ And what accord has Christ with Belial? Or what part has a believer with an unbeliever? ¹⁶ And what agreement has the temple of God with idols? For you are the Temple of the living God. As God has said: 'I will dwell in them And walk among them. I will be their God, And they shall be My people.'” ¹⁷ Therefore "Come out from among them And be separate, says the Lord. Do not touch what is unclean, And I will receive you." ¹⁸ "I will be a Father to you, And you shall be My sons and daughters, Says the LORD Almighty.”” (2nd Corinthians 6:15-18)

>> Also note another key error in that quote/teaching: “Man is created to praise, reverence, and serve God... and by this means to save his soul...” Nope, that’s a lie. We cannot earn anything by bribing God with our tainted “good works”. God through Romans 1 through 3 explains this in many ways. “¹⁰ As it is written: "There is none righteous, no, not one; ¹¹ There is none who understands; There is none who seeks after God. ¹² They have all turned aside; They have together become unprofitable; There is none who does good, no, not one." ... ¹⁸ "There is no fear of God before their eyes." ¹⁹ Now we know that whatever the law says, it says to those who are under the law, that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become [be shown to be] guilty before God. ²⁰ Therefore by the deeds of the law no flesh will be justified in His sight, for by the law is the knowledge of sin... For there is no difference; ²³ for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God...” (Romans 3:10-23)

Continuing the quotes, this time from page 48, “Particular Examination of Conscience To Be Made Everyday – This Exercise is to be performed at three different times, and there are two examinations to be made. The first time: As soon as he arises in the morning, the exercitant should resolve to guard himself carefully against the particular sin or defect which he wishes to correct or amend. The second time: After noon meal, he should ask God our Lord for what he desires, namely, the grace to remember how many times he has fallen into the particular sin or defect, and to correct himself in the future. Following this he should make the first examination demanding an account of his soul regarding that particular matter which he proposed for himself and which he desires to correct and amend. He should review each hour of the time elapsed from the moment of rising to the moment of this examination, and he should make note on the first line of the following diagram, a mark for each time that he has fallen into the particular sin or defect. He should then renew his resolution to improve himself until the time of the second examination that he will make. The third time: After the evening meal, he will make the second examination, reviewing each hour from the first examination to this second one, and on to the second line of the same diagram he will again make a mark for each time he has fallen into the particular sin or defect."

> > This is not repentance. This is works based, self-help, and a literal "formula", as it were, to "better himself". God through Paul corrects the errors here: "⁹ Now I rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that your sorrow led to repentance. For you were made sorry in a godly manner, that you might suffer loss from us in nothing. ¹⁰ For godly sorrow produces repentance leading to salvation, not to be regretted; but the sorrow of the world produces death." (2nd Corinthians 7:9-10) And God through Paul explained this further in Romans 8, "... ⁴ that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. ⁵ For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. ⁶ For to be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. ⁷ Because the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, nor indeed can be. ⁸ So then, those who are in the flesh cannot please God." (Romans 8:4-8)

Worldly sorrow is far different from an actual change of heart – both may have tears, one leads to honesty with God, and correction of behavior and self-control against selfish and self-centered wants, the other is just a cover or mask to white-wash the previous behavior, and usually to blame the person who is trying to hold them accountable for their behavior – ie "it's your fault I did such and such... if you hadn't done that, I wouldn't have... or if you hadn't been there, I wouldn't have... or if you hadn't said that, I wouldn't have... blah, blah, blah". Catch the lies and clever false accusations and you can easily dismiss them, and keep holding the liar accountable.

Another short key note I saw that was extremely deceitful was the next section where they put sins or "grievances" in different categories. I assume you have already noticed that they (like their Catholic leaders) lessen the image of and damage of sin with lies and then pretend that they can twist God's arm and make them forgive and forget... In this, they willfully forget that God is Holy, Holy, Holy and He cannot and will not ignore even one willful sin, because if he condemns Jesuit Hitler but excuses lying or stealing or immorality, He becomes an accomplice to those sins. God is both 100% Holy Purity and 100% Truth and He also faithfully measures up to that standard too. "¹⁹ God is not a man, that He should lie, Nor a son of man, that He should repent. Has He said, and will He not do? Or has He spoken, and will He not make it good?" (Numbers 23:19) The complication for Him is always how to show us mercy without becoming an accomplice and enabler to sin. But, because Jesus came, we all have the opportunity to be saved – through a salvation covenant, as explained in these verses.

> "¹⁸ 'Come now, and let us reason together,' Says the LORD, 'Though your sins are like scarlet, They shall be as white as snow; Though they are red like crimson, They shall be as wool.'" (Isaiah 1:18)

> "² For He shall grow up before Him as a tender plant, And as a root out of dry ground. He has no form or comeliness; And when we see Him, There is no beauty that we should desire Him. ³ He is despised and rejected by men, A Man of sorrows and acquainted with grief. And we hid, as it were, our faces from Him; He was despised, and we did not esteem Him. ⁴ Surely He has borne our griefs And carried our sorrows; Yet we esteemed Him stricken, Smitten by God, and afflicted. ⁵ But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities; The chastisement for our peace was upon Him, And by His stripes we are healed. ⁶ All we like sheep have gone astray; We have turned, every one, to his own way; And the LORD has laid on Him the iniquity of us all." (Isaiah 53:2-6)

> "¹⁶ For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. ¹⁷ For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved. ¹⁸ He who believes in Him is not condemned; but he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. ¹⁹ And this is the condemnation, that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. ²⁰ For everyone practicing evil hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. ²¹ But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his deeds may be clearly seen, that they have been done in God." (John 3:16-21)

> ³⁴ When He had called the people to Himself, with His disciples also, He said to them, "Whoever desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me. ³⁵ For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake and the gospel's will save it. ³⁶ For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? ³⁷ Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul? ³⁸ For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him the Son of Man also will be ashamed when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels.'" (Mark 8:34-38)

> ⁸ But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." (Romans 5:8) -- See also Romans 3:10-26, and Romans 6:23.

> ³ For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, ⁴ who desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. ⁵ For there is one God and one Mediator between God and men, the Man Christ Jesus, ⁶ who gave Himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time, ⁷ for which I was appointed a preacher and an apostle--I am speaking the truth in Christ and not lying--a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth." (1Timothy 2:3-7)

Building on that point, let's look to see what the lying Vatican Jesuits say about this topic of "greater and lesser" sins. Quoting from page 50: "There are two ways of sinning mortally: The first exists when one consents to an evil thought with intention of carrying it out later, or with the intention of doing so if he could. The second way of sinning mortally is to put that thought of sin into action. This is a more grievous sin for three reasons: 1> Because of the greater length of time. 2> Because of the greater intensity. 3> Because of the greater injury done to both persons..."

The clever lie here is that all willful sins are pre-planned, but that's not what makes them more grievous or have harsher consequences – there are 3 sins that have a spiritual death penalty: murder, sexual immorality and sorcery/witchcraft. All three can be forgiven by God, but they add a level of consequences and heavier trials for life – David's life and Paul's life are two very easy examples to study. Romans 1:18-32 also explains that there are 4 levels of hardening of heart in sin – and all of them require/include personal choices and a strengthening of the will to fight for sin, the opposite of which is to soften our hearts toward God, and not fight Him to get our petty self-centered wants and "sin-fun". If you didn't catch it before, God through Paul in Romans 5:8 also answers this clever trick and lie. When we choose to do a sin, we (in a small way) become like satan and an enemy of God, but unlike satan's imaginations – we don't lock-step follow him, we fight for our own wants. But that heart of rebellion will fight God to get our wants, even try to "murder" Him if we could. That is the lust of or desires of the flesh, also called the "sin nature" that God through Paul taught us to become dead to. ¹¹ Likewise you also, reckon yourselves to be dead indeed to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus our Lord. ¹² Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts. ¹³ And do not present your members as instruments of unrighteousness to sin, but present yourselves to God as being alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God. ¹⁴ For sin shall not have dominion over you, for you are not under law but under grace." (Romans 6:11-14)

And again: ³ And not only that, but we also glory in tribulations, knowing that tribulation produces perseverance; ⁴ and perseverance, character; and character, hope. ⁵ Now hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who was given to us." (Romans 5:3-5)

And again: ¹⁹ For I through the law died to the law that I might live to God. ²⁰ I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me." (Galatians 2:19-20)

And again: ¹ I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. ² And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God." (Romans 12:1-2)

So, after building some sort of pretense of religiosity [yes that's a word :)], they then at a certain point get tired of their own list of rules, so instead of having new material, they start to repeat themselves. Did I say empty self-help program? Cause yeah, they know that's what this is too. See for yourself. We'll start with page 54.

“The First Exercise. This meditation is made with the three powers of the soul, and the subject is the first, second, and third sins. It contains the preparatory prayer, two preludes, three principle points and a colloquy (homily)... [page 55] The preparatory prayer without changes, and the two preludes mentioned above, which may be changed at times if the subject matter requires it, are to be made before all contemplations and meditations... [page 56] The Second Exercise. This is a meditation on sin. It consists of the preparatory prayer, two preludes, five points, and a colloquy. Prayer: This is the same as the first Exercise. The first prelude is the same as in the first Exercise. The second prelude is to ask for what I desire... [page 58] The Third Exercise. This is a repetition of the first and second Exercises with three colloquies. After the preparatory prayer and the two preludes, the first and second Exercises are to be repeated.... The Fourth Exercise. This is a resume of the third Exercise. I have called this a resume because the intellect, without digression is to recall and review thoroughly the matters contemplated in the previous exercises. The same three colloquies should then be made. [page 59] The Fifth Exercise. This is a meditation on Hell. It contains a preparatory prayer, two preludes, five points and a colloquy. Preparatory prayer: This prayer will be as usual. First prelude: This is the presentation of place. Here it will be to see in imagination the length, breadth, and depth of Hell. Second prelude: I will ask for what I desire...”

They’ve pretended to reduce God to keeping a list of very trite rules that focus only on the outward appearance and to get praise from men, far from a genuine heart-change and an actual relationship with God. Jesus responded very well too in His 7 letters to the churches.

“¹ And to the angel of the church in Sardis write, 'These things says He who has the seven Spirits of God and the seven stars: "I know your works, that you have a name that you are alive, but you are dead. ² Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die, for I have not found your works perfect before God. ³ Remember therefore how you have received and heard; hold fast and repent. Therefore if you will not watch, I will come upon you as a thief, and you will not know what hour I will come upon you. ⁴ You have a few names even in Sardis who have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with Me in white, for they are worthy. ⁵ He who overcomes shall be clothed in white garments, and I will not blot out his name from the Book of Life; but I will confess his name before My Father and before His angels. ⁶ He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.'” (Revelation 3:1-6)

And again, in Matthew 15. As you’ll see, God’s Word applies to all spiritual wolves, not just the Jewish ones: “⁶ ... then he need not honor his father or mother.' Thus you have made the commandment of God of no effect by your tradition. ⁷ Hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy about you, saying: ⁸ 'These people draw near to Me with their mouth, And honor Me with their lips, But their heart is far from Me. ⁹ And in vain they worship Me, Teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.'” (Matthew 15:7-9)

There would be a lot more to say here, but it really needs its own longer article to itself. If you wish to take apart the lies of the Roman Catholic leaders and their Jesuit “doctrines”, then buy a copy of “The Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius” and write out every lie you see and share it. It’s clever false doctrines are made very plain when compared directly with Scriptures, especially the New Testaments books written by God through faithful men (apostles and prophets).

Part 2 - Demonic Psychology

Do you remember earlier when we looked at satan’s 3 lies in the Garden of Eden? Let’s review that briefly, because any study on psychology needs to take a deep look at those lies. “Has God indeed said...” (Genesis 3:1) That would be better translated – Did God really say? Even today, satan still repeats the same three lies that he did in the Garden –

Lie 1) Did God really say? Or putting satan’s lie more plainly – Is God really telling the truth?

Lie 2) You will not die from rebelling against God.

Lie 3) If you join me in rebelling against God, you can know everything – good and evil, and you can become a “god” or like God.

Any honest study of psychology needs to focus on 1 key thing – identifying and correcting satan’s many tricks and deceits as he questions God at all levels and in all ways, in hopes of turning the world against God, and finding the right way to accuse God to get himself off the hook, out of the forever Lake of Fire, and replacing God on His Throne. No joke... that’s satan’s whole scheme in a nutshell, and it’s explained in various places in God’s Word. And in case you didn’t realize it, if you join his side or play into his hands, you will be treated with the “tender care” of a pawn and nothing more. But, before we work to take apart some of the lies of modern “psychology”, let’s review what psychology says about itself, what it is, and some short history of psychology and a few of their key players and inventors of this massive set of lies.

First off, psychology pretends to be the “science” of the study of the mind and “psyche” or soul. It pretends that you can reduce the whole human person and life itself down to an equation or algorithm or computer codes made up of dots or dashes or 1s and 0s. Now, considering that psychology lies throughout their whole system, what is it’s real point? That’s a good question, and that question takes us back to the “dark ages” of mythologies. So, what are mythologies? Mythologies are worldviews that take things we can see and attribute “god-like” status to them, then build up to be worship, sacrifice, satanic and occultic rituals, etc to appease these fake “gods” or as God calls them, idols. The reason many of us here in America don’t see idols much anymore is because people in this modern age have gotten lazy about creating depictions of the god of their imagination, and usually just leave it in their head to worship and serve and excuse their sinful behavior. Keep in mind as you continue reading that the so-called “science” of psychology is no more a science than the so-called art and science of questioning the Bible (aka, “textual criticism”), or the so-called science of the universe that is really a religion to exclude God – something you would recognize as “evolution”.

So, the study of psychology, according to those who talk about its history, traces its roots go back to Egyptian mythology/idolatry (7th century BC) and then to the Greeks myths and so-called “learning”. But most people pick up the more prominent practice in the 1700s and 1800s. The roots of psychology really come out of something was once called “philosophy”, and is the same set of lies as mythology. Today, people get so-called “degrees” from the Jesuit/Masonic so-called “halls of learning” we know simply as colleges, universities, seminaries, etc. And they get something called a PhD – which stands for “Doctorate in Philosophy”. Anyone trained and has the letters PhD after their name has excelled in satan’s lying Jesuit and demonic psychology and understands the so-called “mysteries” of satan, and although they may quote the Bible, they have a very different Jesus, and an accursed false gospel – according to God Himself.

So, the modern starts of psychology were started in the 1600s with Rene Descartes with his idea/theory of “dualism” where we have our brain and our soul/heart competing for control of our bodies. Then in 1700s, two men: John Locke (1632-1704) and Thomas Reid (1710-1796), promoted the part-truth that all learning comes from experience, something he called “empiricism”. You’ve probably heard that partly false fact said in a variety of ways. Then in the 1800s, there was a man by the name of Hermann von Helmholtz (1821-1894), who was a German physiologist who popularized the idea of everything you experience – see, say, feel, taste, touch, etc is because of the neuron impulses in your brain, so he did a variety of odd experiments to “discover” how the brain works. His theory relied on the thinking of “consciousness” and “introspection”. This theory only proving partially-true and thus only partially helpful, others looked for other ways to understand the brain and soul. Following him was the German man names William Wundt (1832-1920) who built and established the first “lab” for testing psychology theories. Wundt also promoted the teaching/thinking that our thought processes had to do with what type of brain we had and the chemicals and proteins in our brain – a theory known as “structuralism”. Then there was a man most people know the name of – Sigmund Freud (1856-1939) whose name is said/pronounced like: “froid”, but whom I call “fraud”. Freud was an Austrian physician/neurologist who promoted the thinking/theory that dramatic reactions (good or bad) come from something unconscious. His theories covered quite a few subjects including “defense mechanism”, “transference” of past fears into the present, and his deceptive description of the soul – the “ID”, the “ego” and the “superego”. So, he did a variety of experiments to prove his theories, including using what he called “dream analysis”. Freud also worked hard to develop the deceit about the evolutionary development of child to adult (including the sexual desires and sexual focus). Demons are very sexually perverted and they strongly influenced him. In case you didn’t know it – Freud was a very wicked man, demon-possessed, a bold liar, and a twisted pervert in his mind, which comes out in some of his so-called “research”. Another honorable mention is a Russian psychologist named Ivan Pavlov (1849-1936), who studied how to teach new behavior to dogs (and people) testing the use of positive and negative incentives and/or compliments or corrections in changing their behavior.

Up until this point, most of the so-called “study” of Jesuit/demonic psychology was concentrated in Europe. Then in the late 1800s, a man named Edward Titchener (1867-1927) – a student of Wundt brought this so-called “science” to America. Titchener was a proponent of a different sort of idea. Titchener’s perspective was something called “functionalism” – meaning how the brain functions, in contrast to what makes up the brain. Titchener’s work led to the founding of the official-sounding “American Psychological Society”, that is now more commonly known as the “Association of Psychological Science” (founded in 1988). The founding of this demonic organization here in the US was the start of one of the most evil tricks of the devil here in the US, and around the world. There are others to mention, like William James (1842-1910) who wrote the so-called primer on demonic psychology called “Principles of Psychology”. And then there was G. Stanley Hall who founded the American Psychology Association, and invited known so-called psychology “experts” such as Freud and others. Then there was James Cattell (1860-1944) who used Darwin’s Jesuit so-called “science” of evolution to create a false view on child to adult development. At the same time, John Watson (1878-1958) and B.F. Skinner (1904-1990) were working on a view called “behaviorism” which focused on the observable behavior to teach them how to help a person correct their ways and practiced patterns. At approximately the same time as Cattell and Watson/Skinner were working here in America, a man in Germany by the name of Max Wertheimer was working to create/invent the theory of “Gestalt psychology”, which promoted the partial-fact/partial-confusion that we are products of our environment. The last key one we should mention here would be the theories of two Americans physiologists - Abraham Maslow (1908-1970) and Carl Rogers (1902-1987) - whose work led to a new more-broadly embraced teaching and false religion known as “humanism” which states that humans can think rationally and improve themselves. Maslow and Rogers promoted the ideas that the reason people can’t find peace and blissfulness is because they haven’t had some lower level of “need” met. They even invented a chart to explain it in 5 levels of a pyramid – physical needs, security, social connections, esteem, and self-actualization. Level 1(bottom) – physiological (physical needs) which include food, water, shelter, warmth, etc. Level 2 – security, which includes safety, employment and assets. Level 3 – social, which includes family, friendship, intimacy, belonging. Level 4 – esteem, which includes self-worth, accomplishment, and confidence. And Level 5 (top) – self-actualization, which focuses on inner fulfillment.

So, that’s quite a history, but that is by no means an exhaustive one. There are many more names that we do not have time to reference, but will reference some of them in the analysis below. And, with the NWO and Jesuit teams selling the lies of psychology to the people of the United States, the so-called study of psychology has become so “mainstream” that many pagan-run and Jesuit-run colleges and universities and seminaries teach these lies and give “degrees” for those who excel at these deceptions, and have been teaching them for decades. And because these lies are promoted so much since the late 1980s (thanks to the trash vendors – TVs – as well), much of American culture and language is heavily influenced by the subtle lies of the false religion of Jesuit/demonic psychology. It’s gotten so bad, that almost every so-called “counselor” you can name teaches demonic psychology and not the Bible, but most people just smile and nod and naively believe these lies, not comparing/contrasting them with Scripture to see if the psychology lies and definitions match the Bible, or they would see the blatant errors.

As we continue, you will start to see the true purpose of psychology is not, as it is said, the so-called “study of the mind and soul”, but of how to control and manipulate minds and control masses of people. So, the best way to see this is to start analyzing if what psychology claims is true, and then contrast it with the Bible. Simple enough, right? Yes, but as you will see, the lies we will encounter have many levels to them – like an onion. But, you’ll also quickly notice that demonic psychology repeats its lies and false views of men and God in various ways, showing that it’s a religion, not a science. Psychology has many tangents and flavors that are inter-woven. They all have the same direction and false teaching and beliefs, so I’m going to refer to this in terms of what demonic psychology says, versus what God says.

Jesuit/demonic Psychology says:

(Dualism) There is are two things fighting over our behavior – our brain and our heart/soul. It is depicted (even today) in the little cartoons of a supposed “angel” on the one shoulder and a “demon” on the other shoulder. You also find it referenced in common phrases like our “better nature” or our “better half”.

But God says:

“¹⁶ I say then: Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh. ¹⁷ For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another, so that you do not do the things that you wish. ¹⁸ But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. ¹⁹ Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lewdness, ²⁰ idolatry, sorcery, hatred, contentions, jealousies, outbursts of wrath, selfish ambitions, dissensions, heresies, ²¹ envy, murders, drunkenness, revelries, and the like; of which I tell you beforehand, just as I also told you in time past, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. ²² But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, ²³ gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law. ²⁴ And those who are Christ's have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.” (Galatians 5:16-23)

> That war inside of us (if we are saved) is because our sin-nature that we inherited from Adam and Eve wars against what is right and truth and pure taught to us by God the Holy Spirit.

“⁵ For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. ⁶ For to be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. ⁷ Because the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, nor indeed can be. ⁸ So then, those who are in the flesh cannot please God.” (Romans 8:5-8)

> Psychology wishes to pretend that we cannot correct our thinking and behavior, but God says that we need to become dead to the sinful ways of our “sin nature” and not to live carnally-minded, but to live for God, and submit our will to the Holy Spirit of God and the clear undiluted teachings of God’s Word (the Bible). God through Paul answers this lie very well in Galatians 5:16-26.

Jesuit/demonic Psychology says:

(Empiricism) We are born as blank slates and we learn everything by experience.

(behaviorism) Man is already good at heart, he just needs some encouragement and to be noticed and appreciated.

But God says:

We are no born as blank slates – we are born with sin wants because of our forefathers – Adam and Eve. You can see this easily for yourself. Notice a baby or a toddler, you can see their selfish wants right away. True they have physical needs and are no longer in the warm protection of the mother’s womb, but they also have a strong selfish drive. They like the taste of some foods and don’t want to eat other foods – usually liking sweet things and hating the bitter foods that are better for them. They want to hold onto a toy that they are holding, even if that toy belongs to someone else. They want to do things that they are told not to do – like touching breakable glass or running out into the road. And if you tell them no, they throw a temper-tantrum. But don’t worry, they can’t hurt you because they can’t pick up anything heavy. And you know that next time, they will try to be very clever and do what you told them not to, when you’re not looking. They have a strong rebellious will. That is not a blank slate.

¹⁰ As it is written: "There is none righteous, no, not one; ¹¹ There is none who understands; There is none who seeks after God. ¹² They have all turned aside; They have together become unprofitable; There is none who does good, no, not one." ¹³ "Their throat is an open tomb; With their tongues they have practiced deceit"; "The poison of asps is under their lips"; ¹⁴ "Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness." ¹⁵ "Their feet are swift to shed blood; ¹⁶ Destruction and misery are in their ways; ¹⁷ And the way of peace they have not known."

¹⁸ "There is no fear of God before their eyes." ¹⁹ Now we know that whatever the law says, it says to those who are under the law, that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

²¹ But now the righteousness of God apart from the law is revealed, being witnessed by the Law and the Prophets, ²² even the righteousness of God, through faith in Jesus Christ, to all and on all who believe. For there is no difference; ²³ for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God...” (Romans 3:10-23)

As you also might have realized, Galatians 5 that we just looked at above, answers this well too – selfish and self-centered desires of the flesh warring against God, the Holy Spirit.

Jesuit/demonic Psychology says:

(Freud) Your personality is made up of 3 levels of responses: 1) ID – unconscious biological urges, 2) Ego – the mind logically seeks to fulfill urges, within “acceptable bounds”, 3) super-ego – your conscience, or values and ideals of society

But God says:

²⁸ Then one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, perceiving that He had answered them well, asked Him, "Which is the first commandment of all?" ²⁹ Jesus answered him, "The first of all the commandments is: 'Hear, O Israel, the LORD our God, the LORD is one. ³⁰ And you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.' This is the first commandment. ³¹ And the second, like it, is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these."” (Mark 12:28-31)

> Jesus would not command us to obey and do something we couldn't. Here He explains quite clearly that we are to love God with a pure mind and a pure heart, for the carnal mind (fighting for sins and self-centered wants) cannot please God. As you notice in Freud's theory and false teaching, he completely rejects that God is the source of right and wrong and that God is the Standard, which he pretends is just society. He also pretends that we supposedly cannot stop our urges, and yet God explains that one of the fruit of the Spirit is self-control. God says we can control ourselves, but obviously those who reject God cannot stop themselves, which Scripture reminds us of as well.

¹⁴ But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; nor can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.” (1 Corinthians 2:14) God's commands to turn from sin to Jesus require submitting to God for His help to resist the devil and sin-temptations, and to understand how to please God.

⁶ Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time, ⁷ casting all your care upon Him, for He cares for you. ⁸ Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. ⁹ Resist him, steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same sufferings are experienced by your brotherhood in the world.” (1 Peter 5:6-9)

Jesuit/demonic Psychology says:

(functionalism) Everything you do has a logical reason, so reasoning with a person and helping them think it through differently is all that is needed.

But God says:

This is common excuse used by so-called atheists. At its core, it's trying to blame God for making them this way, but that is a lie.

¹² Blessed is the man who endures temptation; for when he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life which the Lord has promised to those who love Him. ¹³ Let no one say when he is tempted, "I am tempted by God"; for God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does He Himself tempt anyone. ¹⁴ But each one is tempted when he is drawn away by his own desires and enticed. ¹⁵ Then, when desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, brings forth death. ¹⁶ Do not be deceived, my beloved brethren. ¹⁷ Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning." (James 1:12-17)

¹⁸ For the wrath of God is revealed from Heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness, ¹⁹ because what may be known of God is manifest in them, for God has shown it to them. ²⁰ For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead, so that they are without excuse, ²¹ because, although they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God, nor were thankful, but became futile in their thoughts, and their foolish hearts were darkened. ²² Professing to be wise, they became fools, ²³ and changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like corruptible man--and birds and four-footed animals and creeping things. ²⁴ Therefore God also gave them up to uncleanness, in the lusts of their hearts, to dishonor their bodies among themselves, ²⁵ who exchanged the truth of God for the lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen." (Romans 1:18-25)

Rebellious humans are not wandering because of lack of knowledge or info, but because they reject the truth.

"... ⁹ knowing this: that the law is not made for a righteous person, but for the lawless and insubordinate, for the ungodly and for sinners, for the unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, ¹⁰ for fornicators, for sodomites, for kidnappers, for liars, for perjurers, and if there is any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine, ¹¹ according to the glorious gospel of the blessed God which was committed to my trust." (1 Timothy 1:9-11)

Jesuit/demonic Psychology says:

(Gestalt) We are products of our environment. Our choices are because of our learned experiences.

But God says:

Our environment does not force us to choose good or evil – we choose that.

¹⁶ For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. ¹⁷ For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved. ¹⁸ He who believes in Him is not condemned; but he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. ¹⁹ And this is the condemnation, that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. ²⁰ For everyone practicing evil hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. ²¹ But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his deeds may be clearly seen, that they have been done in God." (John 3:16-21)

Jesuit/demonic Psychology says:

(humanism) We are rational beings and can better ourselves (without God).

But God says:

If you want to count your "good works" against God, you have to be perfect – as in, never intentionally willfully rebelling against God, which all have done. So, if you want to ignore your "bad works", but count your "good works” and require God to accept you on that basis, you will be judged by the full law – not excused by your false piety. Bribing God with your “good works” always fails, because He is holy and isn’t tempted by evil, and cannot excuse our rebellions against what is right and holy. It has to be paid for on our soul in Hell/Lake of Fire forever, or on Jesus once for all – through the covenant of the cross.

“⁸ If you really fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," you do well; ⁹ but if you show partiality, you commit sin, and are convicted by the law as transgressors. ¹⁰ For whoever shall keep the whole law, and yet stumble in one point, he is guilty of all.” (James 2:8-10)

“⁸ For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, ⁹ not of works, lest anyone should boast. ¹⁰ For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them.” (Ephesians 2:8-10)

As you can see, this is a false religion (even a false gospel) of man’s so-called “goodness”. This section hasn’t even begun to go into correcting satan’s lying definitions on words that God in His Word (the Bible) defines according to holiness while satan pretends he can whitewash sin and reduce it’s meaning, effects, and consequences. God through Paul spoke about false gospels and false teachers, masquerading as “angels of light”.

“⁸ But even if we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel to you than what we have preached to you, let him be accursed. ⁹ As we have said before, so now I say again, if anyone preaches any other gospel to you than what you have received, let him be accursed. ¹⁰ For do I now persuade men, or God? Or do I seek to please men? For if I still pleased men, I would not be a bondservant of Christ.” (Galatians 1:8-10)

“¹³ For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ. ¹⁴ And no wonder! For satan himself transforms himself into an angel of light. ¹⁵ Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also transform themselves into ministers of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.” (2 Corinthians 11:13-15)

As Jesus said it so well: “¹³ But He answered and said, "Every plant which My heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted. ¹⁴ Let them alone. They are blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind leads the blind, both will fall into a ditch.”” (Matthew 15:13-14)

Jesuit/demonic Psychology says:

(hierarchy of “needs”) When people are not at peace and in contentment, it’s because they have some underlying need. If the leaders just provide them with those needs, they will be content. Those needs are divided up into 5 layers –

> Level 1(bottom) – physiological (physical needs) which include food, water, shelter, warmth, etc.

> Level 2 – security, which includes safety, employment and assets.

> Level 3 – social, which includes family, friendship, intimacy, belonging.

> Level 4 – esteem, which includes self-worth, accomplishment, and confidence.

> And Level 5 (top) – self-actualization, which focuses on inner fulfillment.

But God says:

Notice that demonic psychology completely ignores the needs of the soul, and the salvation from the judgment on sin. The spiritual needs of the soul, and salvation from sin is man’s most important need.

“²⁶ Jesus answered them and said, "Most assuredly, I say to you, you seek Me, not because you saw the signs, but because you ate of the loaves and were filled. ²⁷ Do not labor for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to everlasting life, which the Son of Man will give you, because God the Father has set His seal on Him.”” (John 6:26-27)

“¹⁶ Then He spoke a parable to them, saying: "The ground of a certain rich man yielded plentifully. ¹⁷ And he thought within himself, saying, 'What shall I do, since I have no room to store my crops?' ¹⁸ So he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build greater, and there I will store all my crops and my goods. ¹⁹ And I will say to my soul, "Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years; take your ease; eat, drink, and be merry." ”

²⁰ But God said to him, 'Fool! This night your soul will be required of you; then whose will those things be which you have provided?' ²¹ So is he who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.”” (Luke 12:16-21)

³ Jesus answered and said to him, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God." ⁴ Nicodemus said to Him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born?" ⁵ Jesus answered, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the Kingdom of God. ⁶ That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. ⁷ Do not marvel that I said to you, 'You must be born again.' ⁸ The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell where it comes from and where it goes. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit." (John 3:3-8)

³⁴ When He had called the people to Himself, with His disciples also, He said to them, "Whoever desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me. ³⁵ For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake and the gospel's will save it. ³⁶ For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? ³⁷ Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul? ³⁸ For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him the Son of Man also will be ashamed when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels." (Mark 8:34-38)

As you can see, the Jesuit and demonic psychology teachings are a worldview to reject God's Word and right and wrong, and to excuse all kinds of sins and abusive behavior, pretending it's a "disease" that needs a "potion" or "drug" or "self-help" to correct... But the only thing that will actually correct a rebellious and abusive heart, is honest repentance before God, and holy-living men and women. There is no other substitute. And the Jesuits are at the helm of preaching this false teaching and false gospel across America, and trying to preach it around the world – and in doing so, they bring a curse from God on themselves.

Here are some other articles that explain the huge contradictions between demonic psychology (even so-called "Christian psychology") and God and His Word (the Bible).

Part 3 - Superhero Mythology

In the beginning, God created everything and it was very good (Genesis 1:31)... And then, sin entered the world (Genesis 3)... and pain, disease, suffering and death because of sin (Romans 5:12). Death and pain came into the world because of willful rebellion against both God and what is right and wrong. The fall of Adam and Eve, the first two humans God created, into sin has led to what we see today. And sin entering the world was very much influenced by the fallen angels, and the chief demon – satan. What did satan say to Adam and Eve to talk them into making the first rebellious choice against God? The sum of it was this - Did God really say? Even today, satan still repeats the same three lies that he did in the Garden.

Lie 1) Did God really say? Or putting satan's lie more plainly – Is God really telling the truth?

> Reply: Yes, God always tells the truth because holiness and truth is part of His very character.

Lie 2) You will not die from rebelling against God.

> Reply: As is always true with the devil, what satan said was only partially true. True, they didn't drop dead physically immediately, but they instantly separated themselves from God by choosing sin, and the process of physical death, disease, and sin-abuse started there.

Lie 3) If you join me in rebelling against God, you can know everything – good and evil, and you can become a "god" or like God.

> Reply: This lies is said in a million ways around us today – from the Babylonian + Egyptian + Greek + Roman mythologies, to the modern-day versions of those age-old lies, myths and "legends" – the "superheroes". And the reason this is so appealing is two-fold, 1) we want a relief from the healthy fear of the Lord that turns us away from sin that looks fun, and 2) we want someone to save us from the consequences of sin. The devil, satan, had that fear of God's judgment on his rebellion even while he tempted Eve, but he had already turned evil and gotten himself kicked out of Heaven, so now he was trying to deceive humans and trick them into pledging themselves into joining his side – to fight God. But, what satan didn't count on is that each person is an ego-maniac, so they didn't loyally follow him, so he had to figure out what sin-fun to offer them to get them to join his rebellion against God. Let's look more deeply at this in this section.

First off, what is a super-hero and what is superhero-mythology? Both good questions. Super-heroes is a modern term for the lying false teaching that we can "evolve" into becoming "little gods". It's a repeat of the age-old lies from Greece and Rome, and the Babylon and Egypt before them. It can be seen captured in satan's 5 "I will" statements found in Isaiah 14 and Ezekiel 28. Let's look at them.

"¹² How you are fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! How you are cut down to the ground, You who weakened the nations! ¹³ For you have said in your heart: 'I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will also sit on the mount of the congregation On the farthest sides of the north; ¹⁴ I will ascend above the heights of the clouds, I will be like the Most High. ¹⁵ Yet you shall be brought down to Sheol, To the lowest depths of the Pit. ¹⁶ Those who see you will gaze at you, And consider you, saying: 'Is this the man who made the earth tremble, Who shook kingdoms, ¹⁷ Who made the world as a wilderness And destroyed its cities, Who did not open the house of his prisoners?'" (Isaiah 14:12-17)

"¹² Son of man, take up a lamentation for the king of Tyre, and say to him, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "You were the seal of perfection, Full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. ¹³ You were in Eden, the garden of God; Every precious stone was your covering: The sardius, topaz, and diamond, Beryl, onyx, and jasper, Sapphire, turquoise, and emerald with gold. The workmanship of your timbrels and pipes Was prepared for you on the day you were created. ¹⁴ You were the anointed cherub who covers; I established you; You were on the holy mountain of God; You walked back and forth in the midst of fiery stones. ¹⁵ You were perfect in your ways from the day you were created, Till iniquity was found in you. ¹⁶ By the abundance of your trading You became filled with violence within, And you sinned; Therefore I cast you as a profane thing Out of the mountain of God; And I destroyed you, O covering cherub, From the midst of the fiery stones. ¹⁷ Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty; You corrupted your wisdom for the sake of your splendor; I cast you to the ground, I laid you before kings, That they might gaze at you. ¹⁸ You defiled your sanctuaries By the multitude of your iniquities, By the iniquity of your trading; Therefore I brought fire from your midst; It devoured you, And I turned you to ashes upon the earth In the sight of all who saw you. ¹⁹ All who knew you among the peoples are astonished at you; You have become a horror, And shall be no more forever." ' ' ' ' (Ezekiel 28:12-19)

That is what God says about satan and his fall from Heaven. The devil, satan, was created as a beautiful angel, apparently one of the top in the category of “covering cherub” (or cherubim). Then as you see in both passages, that satan got proud about his outward appearance (given to him by his Creator), then envied the praises God was getting, wanted some for himself, then decided he wanted to steal God’s Throne. What doesn’t come out quite clearly in this text, is that satan wanted to murder God to steal His Throne. And Jesus explained that and a few more pieces that are critical here. Let’s look at them.

“... ¹⁷ Then the seventy returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in Your name."

¹⁸ And He said to them, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from Heaven..." (Luke 10:17-18)

“⁴⁴ You are of your father the devil, and the desires of your father you want to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own resources, for he is a liar and the father of it.” (John 8:44)

So, thanks to Jesus explaining, we have a few more details here. The devil and satan was thrown out of heaven and his outward beauty was scorched. The devil and satan was a “murderer from the beginning” and the inventor and “father” of lies and lying and deceit. So, satan was a murderer and a liar... but to take on God alone – that’s majorly stupid, right? Indeed. But, there’s still one more piece missing, and we find that in Revelation 12.

⁵ She bore a male Child who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron. And her Child was caught up to God and His throne. ⁶ Then the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, that they should feed her there one thousand two hundred and sixty days.” (Revelation 12:3-6)

So, now we have the final piece – satan wasn’t fighting alone. Notice, he (depicted as a dragon here) drew a third of the stars from heaven and threw them to earth. The analogies get a little confusing, unless you define them with others Scriptures. Remember, always find a more clear passage to define a not-so-clear one, or to double-check that you are interpreting it right. The Bible always agrees with itself, and never contradicts itself, because God is Truth. If there is an apparent “contradiction”, usually it has to do with a poorly translated or poorly defined passage. Biblically speaking, in an analogy or poetic or symbol passage, the word “star” means angel. You see this in Job 38:7 noting that all of the angels (including Lucifer before he fell) sang to God praise for His amazing creation and caring and holiness. “⁴ "Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth? Tell Me, if you have understanding. ⁵ Who determined its measurements? Surely you know! Or who stretched the line upon it? ⁶ To what were its foundations fastened? Or who laid its cornerstone, ⁷ When the morning stars sang together, And all the sons of God shouted for joy?" (Job 38:4-7) Note, the word “star” and “sons of God” are both talking about the same thing – angels. The phrase “sons of God” in English translation of the Old Testament Hebrew always refers to angels (see also the odd passage and the violation of the roles of angels in Genesis 6). That is the symbol-definition for “star”=angel is the definition here in Revelation 13. So, you see here, two different proofs that the Biblical English word here “star” is angels, showing us that satan drew 1/3 of the angels to join his mutiny and rebellion against God. Most people don’t realize that the Bible defines the words it uses, as long as they are translated right, and in context. A tip – learning Hebrew and Greek, or using a Hebrew/Greek Interlinear (direct translation of Hebrew and Greek into English) are very helpful Bible study tools, which you can find online at BlueLetterBible and a few other places, as well as my favorite tool – www.Scripture4all.org which only works for Microsoft computers. But for those who want a book form, you also have Jay P. Greens (my favorite), or Moody Bible Institute’s Kenneth Wuest’s Interlinear, just to name two of them.

Back to the text :) ~ So, satan fooled/conned 1/3 of the angels to join him in fighting God and trying to murder their Creator, and it got them kicked out of Heaven, forever. That war of satan continues today... though satan likes to re-write history, as do his human helpers. And that brings us to the topic of myths and legends. With satan being the originator and inventor of lies, you can see that nothing he and his demons (and his demon-inspired people) teach is 100% truth, correct? Good. So, that leads to the next point – everything around us is preaching to us – either to turn from sin to Jesus, or turn from Jesus back to sin. And, a parallel point, almost everything you hear, read, watch, etc – is satan trying desperately to craft believable lies, and rewrite the story where God becomes “evil” and he becomes “good”... or close enough. That is all of the Jesuit and world mythologies – all of them. If something is quoting old mythologies, they are saying they hate the real God and are looking for something else to believe in and promote it to get others to join them in their rebellion against God, to get their sin-wants and “sin-fun”. Proof for this – what does satan look like now? According to the Bible, a scorched angel, who never shows himself, and always pretends to be a “misunderstood” angel of light, looking for helpers to help him build his kingdom of evil. That’s what satan looks like. And one day, when God judges the rebellious and unrepentant sinners, He will also show satan and we will all see who this mass-deceiver really is. For now, he’s invisible... stay on guard and kick his lies out of your house, and you will have God’s peace.

Ever heard of the old Greek myths of Zeus and Hercules? Or how about the old Egyptian myth of Atlantis? Those are the types of myths and legends we are discussing here. What is the point of them? Simply put, people rejecting the one True Holy God and Creator and Judge, and creating a “god” in their own image to worship instead. God explains that in Romans 1. “... ²¹ because, although they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God, nor were thankful, but became futile in their thoughts, and their foolish hearts were darkened. ²² Professing to be wise, they became fools, ²³ and changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like corruptible man--and birds and four-footed animals and creeping things.” (Romans 1:21-23)

God through Paul explained it this way: “³ As I urged you when I went into Macedonia--remain in Ephesus that you may charge some that they teach no other doctrine, ⁴ nor give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which cause disputes rather than godly edification which is in faith. ⁵ Now the purpose of the commandment is love from a pure heart, from a good conscience, and from sincere faith, ⁶ from which some, having strayed, have turned aside to idle talk...” (1 Timothy 1:3-6) And God through Paul, 3 chapters later, commanded us to reject these myths and doctrines of demons because they turn us away from God and back to the sins that destroy us, body and soul: “⁷ But reject profane and old wives' fables, and exercise yourself toward godliness.” (1 Timothy 4:7) So, if we’re supposed to avoid them, why are we discussing them here? Because God wants us to understand enough about them to preach against them – as God through Paul did in Acts 17, and other similar passages. We are to be calling people to leave these idols and turn to the One True Living God. “² You know that you were Gentiles, carried away to these dumb idols, however you were led...” (1 Corinthians 12:2) God inspired Paul to preach boldly to those who tried to worship him after a healing in the town of Lystra. He said it this way: “¹² And Barnabas they called Zeus, and Paul, Hermes, because he was the chief speaker. ¹³ Then the priest of Zeus, whose temple was in front of their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, intending to sacrifice with the multitudes. ¹⁴ But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard this, they tore their clothes and ran in among the multitude, crying out ¹⁵ and saying, "Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men with the same nature as you, and preach to you that you should turn from these useless things to the living God, who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and all things that are in them, ¹⁶ who in bygone generations allowed all nations to walk in their own ways...” (Acts 14:13-16)

Having studied myths and legends and super-hero mythologies for quite a few years, I believe it is quite simple to distill down the point of myths and legends, and they seem to have a several main purposes, from the devil and his demons, and the humans who promote them. 1) to make humans sound like they can become a “god”, 2) to make God sound like He sins too, 3) to make the rulers of humans sound like mini-“gods”, and 4) to get us to not fear the One True God, and become more comfortable in sin.

Yes, you read that right – those so-called “innocent” comics are not so innocent. They are preaching another gospel. Review in your mind how many of them have copied some sort of Jesus-on-the-cross pose and dying in sacrifice to save all humanity. Or how about the “virgin birth” that they imitate – Superman and Star Wars both have examples of that. Those are just two examples. When they imitate Christ, what does that make them? An antichrist. Yes, it’s that bad. And if you study more deeply than that, you will find all super-hero movies, films, books, comics and shows have one purpose – repeating the age old lies about the old (mostly) Greek and Roman “gods” and “goddesses” and bring them into a modern context. Antichrists. If you also look very closely, you will also see all of these so-called heroes are into porn or (all kinds of) sexual sins, and okay with blaspheming God’s Name, stealing stuff when it’s “right to do”, and willing to murder – to cover their scandals. They aren’t heroes at all. Yet, look at what they are being used right now in American society to prop up so that we give worship and honor to them – the President, governors, judges, police, Jesuit medical teams, soldiers fighting to destroy countries to bring in the satanic 666 NWO agendas, etc. The people making and playing those lies worldwide are quite literally just trying to brain wash us all into believing that those in power are all appointed by God (no matter how evil they are, and the fact that they got in by bribes against God’s will), and therefore must stand above the peasants on their so-called “Mount Olympus”, and yes they actually use references like that – though most parents don’t notice it, because it’s the kiddos watching or reading every word, not the parents. Please consider watching some of these things to expose the lies of them, or turn it off for good. If you are watching it for “entertainment”, the sins and lies are eroding your soul and putting more distance between you and God. Cut the cord and take it to the trash pile, if you’re only going to use it for evil. Amen?

If you have been a parent who lets the trash vendor (TV) babysit your child without your presence and watchful eye and care and prayers, you need to fix that. If you don’t know how to – ask God for wisdom, and you know He will give you wisdom on what to change and how to change. It will be good for your whole family. God gives you that promise in James 1: “² My brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various trials, ³ knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience. ⁴ But let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking nothing. ⁵ If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach, and it will be given to him. ⁶ But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea driven and tossed by the wind. ⁷ For let not that man suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; ⁸ he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.” (James 1:2-8)

There’s another key lie in this that we need to cover – the topic of fear. If you listen to today’s culture and/or the religious leaders, almost all of them are pretending that all fear is bad and that “strength” is to do whatever you want to do without fear. You hear this propaganda in songs, movies, TV shows, and books – at a certain point though, it proves to be not only hollow and a lie, but also an attempt of satan and his demons and humans to brainwash all of the world into rejecting fear once and for all, and demonic psychology is one of the main pushes of this deceptive false teaching. So, what’s the problem? Simple – not all fear is evil. You see, there are many different types of fears, and although they can be basically divided into 2 categories, they cannot all be classified as evil. For instance, what stops you from running out into a highway where the traffic is traveling at 50MPH (miles per hour)? Well, many things, for sure. But one of them is the inevitable pain that you will get from the impact of a 1 ton (or larger) piece of steel slamming into your fragile skeletal frame, yes? So, that’s one fear that protects us, not hurts us. Secondly, when you know you’re about to do something wrong – why don’t you just do it? I mean, it’s right in front of you and you can, so why not? Because inside each of us, God has placed a conscience (Romans 1; Romans 2:15; 2 Corinthians 1:12; 1 Timothy 1:5; 1 Timothy 1:19; Titus 1:15). The lying religion of Jesuit “evolution” tries to reject and ignore that, as do many other false teachings – but the fact remains that we have a conscience, and we have some understanding of right and wrong, and we can either grow that, or become harden our hearts in rebellion against God.

“⁹ The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders, ¹⁰ and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. ¹¹ And for this reason God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie, ¹² that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness.” (2 Thessalonians 2:9-12)

The amount of lying you are willing to do, is the amount of deception you are willing and will fall for. That’s a principle Jesus taught in the parable of the soils – found in Matthew 13, Mark 4, and Luke 8. God also explains it this way, through Paul in Galatians 6: “⁷ Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap. ⁸ For he who sows to his flesh will of the flesh reap corruption, but he who sows to the Spirit will of the Spirit reap everlasting life. ⁹ And let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap if we do not lose heart.” (Galatians 6:7-9)

So, simply-put, satan pretends that “freedom” is escaping from the fear of God’s Judgment and doing whatever you want to do... which leads to very painful consequences and ultimately destruction. The devil, satan, wants you to reject the healthy and protective fear of the Lord, because he can lead you into destructive sin-patterns that way. None of us like the fear of the Lord, but it is our shield to protect us from being condemned and judged with the wicked who war against God for their selfish and self-centered wants.

“²⁷ Then He saw wisdom and declared it; He prepared it, indeed, He searched it out. ²⁸ And to man He said, 'Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom, And to depart from evil is understanding.' ” (Job 28:27-28)

“⁹ The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever; The judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.” (Psalm 19:9)

“⁷ The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge, But fools despise wisdom and instruction.” (Proverbs 1:7)

“⁸ Do not correct a scoffer, lest he hate you; Rebuke a wise man, and he will love you. ⁹ Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be still wiser; Teach a just man, and he will increase in learning. ¹⁰ The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, And the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.” (Proverbs 9:8-10)

“³¹ Then the churches throughout all Judea, Galilee, and Samaria had peace and were edified. And walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, they were multiplied.” (Acts 9:31)

If you want to find the blessing of God and to escape satan’s destructive temptations and deceptions, you need to grow in accepting the healthy fear of the Lord that teaches you graciously and gradually to depart from evil and cling to what is truth, purity, and holy.

And, the more comfortable you become with the fellowship of walking in and growing in holiness as God is 100% holy, the more you can reject and overcome all of the other fears.

>> Fear of Man – “²⁴ Whoever is a partner with a thief hates his own life; He swears to tell the truth, but reveals nothing. ²⁵ The fear of man brings a snare, But whoever trusts in the LORD shall be safe. ²⁶ Many seek the ruler's favor, But justice for man comes from the LORD. ²⁷ An unjust man is an abomination to the righteous, And he who is upright in the way is an abomination to the wicked.” (Proverbs 29:24-27)

“⁴² Nevertheless even among the rulers many believed in Him, but because of the Pharisees they did not confess Him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue; ⁴³ for they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.” (John 12:42-43)

>> Fear of Torment – “⁹ Therefore we make it our aim, whether present or absent, to be well pleasing to Him. ¹⁰ For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad. ¹¹ Knowing, therefore, the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are well known to God, and I also trust are well known in your consciences.” (2 Corinthians 5:9-11)

>> Fear of Damnation – “¹⁷ Love has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness in the day of judgment; because as He is, so are we in this world. ¹⁸ There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves torment. But he who fears has not been made perfect in love. ¹⁹ We love Him because He first loved us.” (1 John 4:17-19)

-----Getting free from these fears only comes through salvation through Jesus Christ, and the covenant of the cross, and the sealing of the Holy Spirit, which leads to growth in purity and holiness. That’s the only way to overcome the fears that satan uses, and to be able to walk with a clean conscience.

So, probably the last main key question is why do we call super-hero mythology a Jesuit trick and attack? Also a good question. Most people don’t realize, though more are starting to figure it out, that the Jesuits – the secret army of the “Pope” – are the keeper of the mythologies. The world’s religions were being proven a fraud by God for centuries, but in the last few hundred years, satan has been using the Roman Catholic lies and idolatry and her secret agents the Jesuits, to sneak into every country and prop up the false religion of that country and give a duopoly – illusion of choice, two options – The lies of “Christianized” paganism called Roman Catholicism, or the false religion of the land. That makes missionary work very hard, but God still speaks to every single person on planet earth, helping everyone, to some extent, to see through the lies and seek God to find the Truth, found only in Jesus the Christ.

“⁹The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance. ¹⁰But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat; both the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up. ¹¹Therefore, since all these things will be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness, ¹²looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be dissolved, being on fire, and the elements will melt with fervent heat?” (2 Peter 3:9-12)

Conclusion

God places a “Woe” Judgment on those who do that, and we find that in Isaiah. “20 Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; Who put darkness for light, and light for darkness; Who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!” (Isaiah 5:20) This article seeks build from there and to briefly review a few of the Jesuits most popular (and destructive) influences in society and what the Bible has to say about their “clever” twisting of God’s Word, for their agendas – ultimately one-world-government (a “New World Order), which isn’t allowed until during the actual 7-year Tribulation), and their one-world religious “unity” ruled by a cabal/mafia of top religious “leaders” whom they portray as “heroes”, but the Bible calls “antichrists” (1st John talks a lot about this). The easiest way to catch them is to do what Jesus taught us – examine their fruit (.). And God through Paul explained more: “¹³For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ. ¹⁴And no wonder! For Satan himself transforms himself into an angel of light. ¹⁵Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also transform themselves into ministers of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.” (2 Corinthians 11:13-15) And again, God explains further in Galatians 1: “⁶I marvel that you are turning away so soon from Him who called you in the grace of Christ, to a different gospel, ⁷which is not another; but there are some who trouble you and want to pervert the gospel of Christ. ⁸But even if we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel to you than what we have preached to you, let him be accursed. ⁹As we have said before, so now I say again, if anyone preaches any other gospel to you than what you have received, let him be accursed. ¹⁰For do I now persuade men, or God? Or do I seek to please men? For if I still pleased men, I would not be a bondservant of Christ.” (Galatians 1:6-10).

May we all daily pray that we would walk in the fear of the Lord, discernment, and departing from sin and becoming dead to our past sin-pleasures. And may we daily grow in becoming more alive to Jesus the Christ, as living sacrifices, preaching His Truth and His holiness in a very dark and rebellious world, encouraging the brethren, and calling saved and unsaved to turn more from sin, and more to Jesus Christ – building (or starting to build) their covenant relationship with God, through the blood of Jesus the Christ, the Lamb of God – the only Mediator. Amen?
