Concerns of which universities teaches at MBI got their education and degrees from.

This is a quick-reference chart for concerns about education history of some MBI faculty. Just because they appear on one of these lists does not mean they are a problem. The only way to assess if they are a problem is to know the person and have been watching for false teaching, secret sins, and intentional devaluing of truth, and right and wrong.

>> Category 1: US Jesuit training <<

“Society of Jesuits” training

For the past 300 years, the Jesuits (SJ = Society of Jesuits) have been the top level of leaders in the religion topics in satan’s ruling of America. There is confusion on who is a Jesuit because 95% to 99% of them hide their allegiance to and oath to the Vatican and the “pope”.

We have covered the discussion of Jesuits and/or Jesuit-training here:

<http://www.restorembi.com/problems-at-Moody-Jesuits.htm>

The biggest problem with allowing Jesuit authorities to infiltrate a Christian ministry or school is that they want to take it over for the pope, give all inside information about how to control it back to the Vatican, teach Jesuit philosophy and tactfully introduce every kind of false doctrine available that their hearers will tolerate, as well as corrupt the morals of anyone working with them who is looking for permission to sin. They especially partner with Free-masons for much of this work when it comes to Protestant organizations, because they can play dual sides and control the whole thing one way or the other. When there seem to be only two options, most people will side with one or the other. When someone within the ministry will not conform or is uncooperative they show their power by intimidating them into silence or throwing stumbling blocks to lead them to sin, discredit them and try to remove them, or else act like them while sowing contention and trying to make them an accomplice in whatever secrets possible, then throw them out as a trouble-maker. In the case of a ministry who refuses to let Jesuits and Masons infiltrate and control, they go into destroy mode while trying to steal as many followers as possible. And they just destroy relationships left and right. In the end, everyone is confused and the ministry is divided without knowing exactly what even happened. Then they kind of have to start over or else everyone gets discouraged and gives up on the efforts to keep the ministry going.

>> Category 2: European Jesuit/Freemasonry training <<

Professors who got European Society of Jesuits & Freemasonry training

This grouping is the list of professors and faculty who got training at a university that is directed by both European Jesuits and Freemasonry, and directly funded by the Rothschild family and team, and their high-level NWO-controlled top colleges for “education”.

Whereas the Jesuits and Free-masons are very secretive and sneaky in America, they are not nearly as established in the few hundred years they have been trying to keep power over America compared to what they have been able to accomplish in Europe. It is really only the last hundred years that they have been able to really get control and run the entire of culture in America. In Europe however, they have strongly established networks throughout everything. They have played control games for centuries with the Vatican throughout Europe and the world from Europe. As far as Jesuits in Europe, they have been so thoroughly discredited, but at the same time, everyone is so used to their thinking that it is natural structure of most things in Europe. But England is somewhat one of the last European targets of Jesuit influence, because England had been so thoroughly opposed to Catholicism, that it became a primary interest to them. In addition to that, Britain doesn't need to have openly Jesuit schools to control the ideology and culture because Free-masons and closet Jesuits in the Church of England (Anglicans and Episcopalians) are doing this for them. Jesuits are able to instead do most of their work secretly under the cover of Free-masons. The British network of Masons and Jesuits have been partnered on dominating and controlling how the Jews get back to their land since the 1800's, on how to lead the Protestants back to Rome's authority since the 1600's (by the Church of England's copying programs and principles from the Vatican), on how to control evangelism and ministry literally all over the world since the 1700's. So when you see people getting their education especially doctorates from England, you can be sure they are getting dual education.

>> Category 3: Rockefeller-funded Jesuits + Freemasonry training (US) << Direct NWO Rockefeller-funded, built on satanic deceptive “education” from both the Society of Jesuits and Freemasonry

This category is the same as in Europe but are primarily involved in education systems in America. It was a way of letting Christians gain some distance from the Vatican so they feel freedom, while in reality their authorities and experts are all partnered with Jesuits and Free-masons. This program can seem docile for a long time, but it steadily drifts back toward its real directors’ objectives unnoticed for as long as possible. Then it becomes more aggressive in society and media and education when they decide that the people are disagreeing too much. They try to create as many distractions along the way to keep everyone from noticing what is happening while they gain power. But when their swift mode takes over, they start to become less friendly. Jesuits primarily focus on arts, culture, entertainment, education, banking, legal, and executive authorities. Free-masons primarily focus on religious, education, business/commerce, financial, and social networks. There are many places where their roles overlap, but mostly where one gets caught, the other one steps in to cover for them.

That is exactly what is happening at Moody Bible Institute and Moody Church right now. Since the Jesuit network is being noticed a little bit too much right now, all of the Free-mason educated authorities are helping create an atmosphere of supposed “unity” with the Jesuits and trying to make sure to cover over or distract from all questions with lies and give their undivided approval to the current leadership. They are acting as a Public Relations network to hide the truth. When someone is not directly involved in certain decisions, it is easier for them to make up answers and give the official story repeatedly until the questions die out. That is the current phase at Moody Bible Institute primarily powered by the Trinity Evangelical network.

The largest hub of this satanic unity is found in Rockefeller funded programs where the ideology was also directed by the Rockefellers and associates. Back in the late 1800’s, the Rockefeller family made a partnership with the illuminati families of Europe and they together started to build business empires that would rake in money (to control all resources in the world) and then use that money to build a one-world society by force, and then also build a cooperative of all religions through Freemasonry directed by the Vatican’s international agendas. Essentially, the system of the Vatican and anti-christ combining. Starting in the 1800’s until now (and especially from the 1910’s to 1950’s) the Rockefeller family has been ruthlessly making changes to religious teaching institutions in the U.S., requiring them to make changes to conform or else be shut down. The large outlets of these directives and money include the Rockefeller Brothers Fund (and their Fund for Theological Education), the Carnegie Fund, the Eli “Lilly Endowment”, and the Rockefeller partnered Association of Theological Schools. These are all directly funded by Rockefellers to control American Christianity and religious organizations and their education puts their trainees a lot closer to being helpful for their one-world religion movements. The other method of control is through collective networks like the National Association of Evangelicals, the World Council of Churches, the World Evangelical Fellowship, the International Bible Society, and similar groups. They are training and controlling a lot of fake religious leaders who sound "Christian" but whose life and secret sins prove to these networks that they can be trusted to help promote these agendas because many of them are apostates or satanists. You can find out more of who the Rockefeller family funds such training at these links:

 - satan's "Family" or "Fellowship"

Professors who got training at a university (US) run by the satanic "Fellowship" (also called the "Family") in Washington DC, that runs the "Religious Right" (also called the "Moral Majority")

This is one that we do not expect to be a familiar subject to most Christians. It involves the secret leadership and motives of the Council for National Policy, National Prayer initiatives, Moral Majority, Religious Right, and various political leaders who seemed to be mostly politically-minded. Because of the politics, most Christians ignore their spiritual influence as though they are separate departments. In reality, these secret elites of one-world religion programs have been shaping the world's media about what American Christianity is like by trying to redesign the politics of evangelical Christianity for all the world to see, which in effect is to slowly die-out conservative Christianity while recognizing ignorant and liberal Christianity to negotiate in the world arena. The truth of it is that these leaders do not actually represent us, but rather are using world power to get money and popularity for their version of faith which is really just a satanic mimic of what we believe with the powerful ability to discredit genuine Christians in so many ways. These universities are led by a prominent member of this network such as Pat Robertson and Jerry Falwell. You can get a good starting education on the ideology of these groups by looking up the Council for National Policy or reading Jeff Sharlett's The Family: the Secret Fundamentalism at the Heart of American Power.

>> Category 5: Doctorate training <<
 = Doctorate in a specific subject

Professors who got training to have a doctorate in one subject or another (that is to allow them to be the leaders in the Jesuit/Masonry networks), the people with the doctorates are the ones leading the rest – good or bad. Professors who got a Doctorate - that means they spent at least 8 years training under men to obtain the honor of those men for being among the top knowledgeable teacher on a given subject

Links to study for more info:

<http://www.restorembi.com/what-is-a-doctorate.pdf>

When someone gets a doctorate in a subject, it gives them recognition among expert authorities in a country. However, the power they have over education and over ministry is so much worse – here's how that works. First of all, they have spent that many years agreeing with the influential mentors from the Jesuits, Free-masons, and scoffers who run most education. Secondly, they bow to the authority of those experts before them who have built the corrupt system they are helping to carry on in whatever subject they get approved in. Then they use that expert authority to control education and other aspects of culture. People with doctorates have the most influence over a school and can change entire courses or delete entire programs by their directions. They have the knowledge of the accreditation systems to help keep their programs in line with secular beliefs and culture, even if secretly through slow changes. We are definitely hearing about a number of these kinds of power plays at Moody Bible Institute. They have even, somewhere along the way, deleted the inexpensive evangelism/missions programs that D. L. Moody wanted to be a staple at MBI for training the poor and minorities for evangelism and missions.

(<https://www.moody.edu/about/our-bold-legacy/d-l-moody/>
<https://www.christianitytoday.com/history/people/evangelistsandapologists/dwight-l-moody.html>)

They did this under the guise of saving money, but have failed Chicago and disciples of Jesus in the process. Whereas Moody ranks 21st in the top most affordable seminaries, that just means they have joined the status quo. That does not accommodate gospel education courses for the poor and minorities of Chicago as D. L. Moody specifically wanted them to do.

Now these experts with their doctorates are in process of destroying multiple more programs of education (music, Jewish studies, Spokane campus, California extension studies) at Moody, and are slowly bringing in course materials and classes that disagree with Jesus' example of doing ministry. But there is an even worse problem than all of that. It is the fact that people with doctorates wield their power of "expertise" over pastors and ministries in Chicago and around the world, trying to exert their pressure to change how ministry is done or else deciding who is fit for ministry and who is not. They were influential in establishing staff in the admissions department at Moody Bible for a few decades who purposely reject true ministers of the gospel that Christ has called for His ministry. And instead welcomes students who do not show as much heart to do ministry as they do to follow agendas and make a career. And their staff has also been slowly bringing in lots of scoffers to corrupt thoroughly the atmosphere and fellowship of truth at Moody campus. That affects ministries around the world in a very serious way.

>> Category 6 – Freemasonry training <<

Professors who got training at “top conservative” university (US) run by Freemasonry

Freemasonry is satanism repackaged. I know that fact will be shocking to many because less than 50%-75% of freemasonry members know this, and very few are in on or even realize that there is a bigger plot to the network. Freemasonry is presented as a business club, and the majority of masons stop at the 1st 3 levels - called the "blue lodge". But, when you see someone has the title of "Master Mason" or higher, they have advanced into the mythology of theosophy of the freemasonry religion. But, Freemasonry says that they aren't a religion, right? Ah, yes, that is what they say publicly. But when you read their top apologists and researchers, including Albert Pike and Albert Mackey, you find out that they worship Lucifer at the top (openly and boldly) and that the top leaders make evil partnerships and lie to all lower masons. What all masonic members can see that they know is wrong is to make an oath to masonry above marriage (wedding ring is removed) and above anyone outside masonry, including to keep the secrets (including secret sins, even murder, rape, theft, extortion, etc) a "secret" of the lodge - to be kept only between the "masonic brethren".

Freemasonry is mostly a men's only club, but they do also have a few groups for ladies. The message of Freemasonry - public and secret, is the supposed incessant search for "light" and "truth" until they have completely reject the God of the Bible and replaced Him with an "anything goes" false gospel, just like satanism. At each degree of advancement, blood-oaths or injury oaths are taken along with the increase in honor - which should alarm any mason, because if they ever have to say "no I can't cover your crime" they have already agreed to being murdered or harmed in grotesque manners. Freemasonry is broken into two branches - Scottish Rite and York Rite. Scottish Rite has 32 actual degrees (or steps) to climb, and the York Rite has 13 actual degrees to climb, though both have "honorary" degrees as well. European freemasonry is more satanic and secretive than US masonry, only because of how it's packaged. But, the masons in the US and Europe (and abroad) all submit to the secret commands that come down from the Jesuit networks, which is a carefully secret. What might surprise many - masons and public alike is to know that all of the major cities in the US are run mostly by masonry leaders, under the ultra secret Jesuit leaders.

As we have already noted, Freemasonry is a religious system that okays members of all religions, as well as being a "step-up" type system where a member has to learn "secret knowledge" and pass-codes and handshakes, etc to "level up" or get "promoted" to the next level. What comes with each promotion is also additional agreements or teachings he must accept if he wants to keep making more money in their business networks. By the time a man gets to the highest levels of masonry, he is keeping a lot of secrets of crimes and evils and sins, but has made so many agreements and taken so many oaths, that he's become okay with those evils. By the time he's gotten high enough to see the total evil of freemasonry, he has become so dark spiritually that he can't remember God's truth that he learned earlier in his life. It's very hard for high-level masons to turn on their friends, favorite sins, and business agreements and come clean and back into the Light of God's Word, holiness, and walking with a clear conscience - and few want to or try to.

The masonic control grid includes many of the training centers for leadership positions (government, religious, economic, etc), as well as the chambers of commerce and unions, as well as the public lodges themselves, and their underling organizations - Rotary, Elks/Moose/Eagle Lodge, Fraternal Order of Police/Military, DeMolay, etc. If you happen to see or meet a Shriner, they have completed all of the steps of freemasonry (and are very clever at covering up truth with skilled double-wording, and are very satanic) and at the top of the Shriner system, you find out that they say to each other, that "Allah is God and Mohammad is his prophet". Yep, just like the Vatican-owned/run "religion" of Islam, so, masonry too preaches another Jesus and another gospel. Freemasons may seem low level in that system, but they are by no means worth ignoring - watch them closely, for when push comes to shove, they will betray all except their brotherhood (even lying under oath). If you happen to meet any mason in the Knights Templar/Knights of Malta or a Knights of Columbus (Catholic) member, that is the satanic crossover for the control-system - that's where Jesuits meet Freemasons and pass down commands. You can find more information on the inner-workings of Freemasonry (in the past called "OddFellows" or "Deists") in the information below. And if you need more info, please ask - we need honest followers of Christ to know how satan controls things around us.

>> Category 7: the pagan world's psychology training <<
Psychology, or the “Christian” version of the same thing: “counseling”
Professors who got training to be a professional “psychologist” or worker with “mental health”

This category is one of the most serious ones, because of how subtle and hidden their effect is. Psychologists and counselors affect the personal decision-making processes of so many students for the purpose of excusing sin as normal thought processes. Their method is analyzing human behavior from a godless (scientific supposedly) point of view and attempt to teach everyone how to get what they want while not having to call it as sin, and they ignore or outright avoid and rewrite sin’s consequences and God’s conviction on people’s consciences. A conscience can be taught what to focus on and is not a firm guide like the Holy Spirit is. So psychologists prey on this in order to help rewrite their conscience to accept and tolerate sin both in themselves and in others. Psychologists can change the entire culture in a very short time, just by enforcing strict manners and questioning the mindset of various individuals or ideologies. This is a power (to understand how the mind thinks) that is either held closely in check by Scriptures or it becomes very dangerous and hurtful to everyone very quickly. Even worse, is the fact that the entire basis of psychology is from secular humanism – the attempt to create moral beings without the work of the Holy Spirit.

Psychology is not an effort to understand the mind as it would seem. It is actually an attempt to explain decisions without an moral reference. They only see chemicals and neuronal patterns and feelings and damage. They have no reference to sin in this structure at all. The “Christian” form of this is counseling, which really is just lower level thought-police who enforce only some parts of the major system of psychology while trying to make it seem compatible with the Scriptures. When you don’t deal with sin of the heart, you will have every kind of evil thought available. But psychologists and counselors have to do their best to pretend to be neutral – as in, not knowing who is right or wrong on any given subject – so as to allow the “patient” the ability to express themselves. The end result is excusing sin as “understandable” and a blurry inconclusive list of suggestions, while keeping records against the person. That records-keeping part going into the hands of the more powerful psychologists who are trying to control Christians to keep us from influencing the people under their power. They are literally willing to label Christians with multiple “diseases” and “disorders” – anything to keep us from preaching the gospel, preaching against sin, correcting the problems of society, or setting a strong example of righteousness in a visible way.

>> Category 8: Long-time staff members with concerning training <<

10yrs or more working at MBI

This category points out specifically the length of time a faculty person has had to see trends and changes at Moody Bible Institute. This is very important because many of those who have been here the longest should be held most accountable for not speaking up when they saw these strong tides of change pouring in.

Obviously, sometimes there are people who just don’t know what the solution is and they just keep their head down and try to do ministry as long as possible under the newer and slightly more hostile conditions.

But eventually, you have to wonder if they are complicit, if they keep going along with the changes or worse if they are helping approve and keep all of the new changes.

Conclusions: each of the names on this list, in alphabetical order, with the concerning education abbreviations after their names. Notice the ones with the most categories, and you will find some of the secret evil-doers at MBI right now.

>> First – Two commendable people, because they are actively exposing evil, actively calling for correction and accountability on leaders who are doing evil secretly, and they are getting harassed for doing so. We have heard that others on the MBI faculty are doing the same, but we don't know their names. We have seen these two actively trying to help Restore MBI, so we commend them.

-- Rich Weber
 -- Elizabeth Naegele

Again clarifying, just because you see people's names on this final list (or any of the lists above), that doesn't mean they are evil – it just means that some of their credentials, education and connections concern us. Time and their actions will show whether they stand with God or with the Jesuit and Freemasonry network.
